Subject: second injury fund

Hey Rob,

I'm writing a story for tomorrow about the B&CB action to officially close the Second Injury Fund. The fund will close July 1 and has a shortfall of roughly $200 million. A group of insurers, employers and state agencies have recommended continuing the assessments at $60 million a year for five years in order to ensure the fund has enough money to pay off its liabilities.

Does the governor support this plan? If not, does she have another idea?

Thanks,
