What exactly should I say in the emails to the editors? I usually just keep it brief and say something along the lines of "please consider this op-ed/release, authored by the Lieutenant Governor, for publication, etc.", but I just wanted to consult you so that we are making the most impact.

Let me know if anything else needs to be changed or added, but I didn't make any revisions other than changing "will testify at 'a'..." to "will testify at 'the'..."

Please put this together in press release form with you as contact. I'd like for this to go out later today. Probably better double check the spelling.

Lieutenant Governor Kevin L. Bryant will testify at a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee hearing on S. 217, The Personhood Act of South Carolina, on Thursday, March 30th at 9:30am in Gressette Building Room 308. Lieutenant Governor Bryant is the lead sponsor of The Personhood Act of South Carolina which promotes the Liberty of unborn children by codifying in South Carolina Statute that the life of a child begins at fertilization. S. 217 reaffirms that an unborn child is endowed by their Creator with the unalienable right to life guaranteed by the United States Constitution and the South Carolina Constitution.
