TO THE EDITORS, THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL SENTINEL:

Columnist Kathleen Parker is "offended" by what she sees as anger expressed by Mr. Donald Trump and like Republicans as declared by Governor Nikki Haley;

It appears that both of those "ladies" fail to understand that our fellow citizens have a right (And, duty) to be angry about:

1. The millions of Americans who "no longer count" as they have given up looking for work and are not noted in the lies of current statistics regarding unemployment;
2. The millions of jobs stolen from our fellow citizens (And legal immigrants) by illegal immigrants who violate our democratically enacted laws by unlawful entry into our nation or by grossly violating the terms of previously issued visas;
3. The attacks by B. H. Obama (And his co-actors) on the Constitution's provisions for the "separation of powers" as should/must limit many powers to The Congress;
4. His (And his co-actors) attacks on The Bill Of Rights (Especially Article I, II, IV and X); And,
5. Barrack Hussein Obama's (And his co-actors) direct/indirect support of those supporting the Islamic-terrorists and the disease-like invasion of our government by such persons.

A study of our Nation's history show like expressions of anger:

- 6.. Against the increasing tyranny (Including attempts to seize citizen's arms) in the 1770s;
7. Against the horrors of legal slavery in the USA especially during the 1850s;
8. Against the Imperial Japanese for some time before and very much after December 7, 1941; And,
9. Against Islamic terrorists after "9/11".

Governor Haley's RINO call for moderation and compromise reminds me all-too-much of Britain's Neville Chamberlain's like propaganda in favor of his "Munich

"Agreement" with Hitler. The righteous anger of Americans has not yet reached the "Pitchforks & Torches" level. Perhaps, it should be raised to that level to defeat the enemies of our Republic.

James Pawlak
