This little boy deserves to be with you guys. You obviously care much about him to write this and to get people involved! You love that boy! I pray he gets back with you guys soon.

No parent should be kept from their child because of sexuality. They are no less capable of loving and caring for their child because of sexuality, and it's just wrong for this to even happen to anyone. Especially Kelsey, because she is a great person, has a home and can support her child. A child she loves very very much.

I am signing because that little boy needs to be with the two people who care about him more than anything. His mummy and daddy, it doesn't matter if you're LGBT seriously what matters is bringing up a happy healthy child, he was obviously thriving with his mum and Kalen.
