

Ruth Holmes Whitehead

South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C.

A Continuation of the South-Carolina Weekly Gazette. 1764-1781.

MYRTILLA

Lance, Lambert

RUN away about the beginning of February, a NEGROE WENCH, named Myrtilla, about 35 years old, of a yellowish complexion; had on when she run away, a green Negroe-cloth gown; well known in Charlestown, Goose-Creek, Ponpon and John's-Island. Whoever will take up the said Negroe, and deliver her to the Warden of the Work-house, shall have five pounds reward from LAMBERT LANCE.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 April 1764. Supplement.]

LONDON

Outerbridge, White

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 April 1764. Supplement.]

See LONDON in other newspapers.

JOHN; speaks English, French & Spanish

Warner, Samuel; Boyd, Robert, Captain

RUN away about a week ago, TWO NEGROE MEN, John and Thomson; John had on when he went away an osnaburg shirt and a pair of canvas trowsers; of a clear black complexion, and a little bandy-leg'd, and a large lump of flesh on his underlip, about five feet four inches high, can talk good English, French and Spanish. Thomson had on when he went away a striped flannel jacket, a check shirt and long Osnaburg trowsers, and a black wig, of a yellow complexion, and pitted with the small pox, about five feet six inches high. All masters of vessels, or others are hereby cautioned from harbouring or carrying off the said fellows, as they may depend on having the law put strictly in execution. Whoever delivers the said fellows to me in Charlestown, or to Capt. Robert Boyd, shall have Five Pounds reward for each. SAMUEL WARNER. Said Negroes have been several times in Charlestown since they run away.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 April 1764. Supplement.]

THOMSON

Warner, Samuel; Boyd, Robert, Captain

RUN away about a week ago, TWO NEGROE MEN, John and Thomson; John had on when he went away an osnaburg shirt and a pair of canvas trowsers; of a clear black complexion, and a little bandy-leg'd, and a large lump of flesh on his underlip, about five feet four inches high, can talk good English, French and Spanish. Thomson had on when he went away a striped flannel jacket, a check shirt and long Osnaburg trowsers, and a black wig, of a yellow complexion, and pitted with the small pox, about five feet six inches high. All masters of vessels, or others are hereby cautioned from harbouring or carrying off the said fellows, as they may depend on having the law put strictly in execution. Whoever delivers the said fellows to me in Charlestown, or to Capt. Robert Boyd, shall have Five Pounds reward for each. SAMUEL WARNER. Said Negroes have been several times in Charlestown since they run away.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 April 1764. Supplement.]

ANDREW; b. Africa; Guinea

Ekills, Robert

hnbbrbbrUN away the first of June 1762, A Negroe fellow named Andrew, cannot tell his master's name, he is remarkable by having a bosent [sic], which he tried to cut out, and was cured by a doctor, Guinea born, and is supposed to be harboured; if by a white person, on conviction, the sum of Thirty pounds, and if by a Negroe Ten Pounds. Whoever delivers him to me on the Cypress, within ten miles of Dorchester, shall receive a reward of Ten Pounds, and all reasonable charges. ROBERT EKILLS.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 April 1764. Supplement.]

CAIN; cattle-hunter

MacPherson, Isaac; Miles, Thomas; Rowand, Robert RUN away the 17th of October, 1763, a likely young NEGROE MAN, this country born, named Cain, in stature about five feet nine or ten inches; he formerly belonged to Mr. Thomas Miles, and used to be a cattle-hunter at Messrs Miles's Cow-pen on the Saltketchers. He is well known at most of the plantations and cow-pens in those parts. I will give a reward of Twenty Pounds to any person that will deliver him to Robert Rowand in Charlestown, or to me at Horse-Savannah. ISAAC MACPHERSON. [South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 April 1764. Supplement.]

CORNISH; b. Africa; Angola; carpenter; caulker

RAN AWAY, from my wharf at Hobcaw, a tall slim negro fellow, named CORNISH, brought up to the carpenter and caulker business, of the Angola country, had on when he went away a blue jacket and osnaburg trowsers. Whoever delivers him to me, or the warden of the work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward. DAVID LINN. [South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 August 1766.]

NERO; sawyer; wood-cutter

Johnstone, Robert, Governor; Richardson, William

RAN AWAY, from Pensacola [Pensacola, Florida], about three months since, and supposed to be come to this province, a negro man, belonging to Governour Johnstone, named NERO, about five feet six inches high, a sawyer and wood cutter, has a large head, short neck, pury, sore feet, and many scars about his head. Whoever takes up said negro, and delivers him to the warden of the work-house shall receive Five Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges paid by WILLIAM RICHARDSON. August 29, 1766. [South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 September 1766.]

SCIPPIO; LEITH; house-sevant; field-hand

Neil, Arthur; Wilton, Rev. Mr.; Simmons, Captain; Smith, George; Vanderhorst, Elias

RAN AWAY, in May last, from Pensacola in West-Florida, three negro men viz SCIPPIO, BLACKWALL, and OSMYN, all well-made, of a good size, and two of them speak good English. Scipio is well known in Charlestown by the name of Leith, was formerly the property of Capt. Simmons, and afterwards of the Rev. Mr. Wilton; he had on when he went away a blue jacket and breeches, and carried a militia muster [musket?] with him; he is fit for any service either in the house or in the field, and is suspected of having seduced the other two. Blackwall is not so tall or well made as Scipio, but healthy and strong, his legs are very small, has some little marks in his face, and speaks thick and hoarse; he was formerly the property of Lieut. Hook of the Artillery, can cook and shave well, and has been in England: He had on a blue coat lined with red, a pair of shoes, and took with him a blue cloth surtout coat with brass buttons. Osmyn, a new negro, well sized, has a side or down look when spoken to, and had on when he went off a blue jacket and osnabrug trowsers. It is supposed they went through the Indian nation for Charlestown, as they were met by two white men three hundred miles from Pensacola. Whoever takes up said negroes, and delivers them to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, shall, on acquainting Mr. GEORGE SMITH, or Mr. ELIAS VANDERHORST, be properly rewarded, and have all other expences paid by said gentlemen. ARTHUR NEIL.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 September 1766.]

BLACKWALL; b. Africa; ritual scarification?; lived England; cook; barber

Neil, Arthur; Hook, Lieutenant, Royal Artillery

RAN AWAY, in May last, from Pensacola in West-Florida, three negro men viz SCIPPIO, BLACKWALL, and OSMYN, all well-made, of a good size, and two of them speak good English. Scipio is well known in Charlestown by the name of Leith, was formerly the property of Capt. Simmons, and afterwards of the Rev. Mr. Wilton; he had on when he went away a blue jacket and breeches, and carried a militia muster [musket?] with him; he is fit for any service either in the house or in the field, and is suspected of having seduced the other two. Blackwall is not so tall or well made as Scipio, but healthy and strong, his legs are very small, has some little marks in his face, and speaks thick and hoarse; he was formerly the property of Lieut. Hook of the Artillery, can cook and shave well, and has been in England: He had on a blue coat lined with red, a pair of shoes, and took with him a blue cloth surtout coat with brass buttons. Osmyn, a new negro, well sized, has a side or down look when spoken to, and had on when he went off a blue jacket and osnabrug trowsers. It is supposed they went through the Indian nation for Charlestown, as they were met by two white men three hundred miles from Pensacola. Whoever takes up said negroes, and delivers them to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, shall, on acquainting Mr. GEORGE SMITH, or Mr.

ELIAS VANDERHORST, be properly rewarded, and have all other expences paid by said gentlemen. ARTHUR NEIL.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 September 1766.]

OSMYN; b. Africa

Neil, Arthur

RAN AWAY, in May last, from Pansacola in West-Florida, three negro men viz SCIPIO, BLACKWALL, and OSMYN, all well-made, of a good size, and two of them speak good English. Scipio is well known in Charlestown by the name of Leith, was formerly the property of Capt. Simmons, and afterwards of the Rev. Mr. Wilton; he had on when he went away a blue jacket and breeches, and carried a militia muster [musket?] with him; he is fit for any service either in the house or in the field, and is suspected of having seduced the other two. Blackwall is not so tall or well made as Scipio, but healthy and strong, his legs are very small, has some little marks in his face, and speaks thick and hoarse; he was formerly the property of Lieut. Hook of the Artillery, can cook and shave well, and has been in England: He had on a blue coat lined with red, a pair of shoes, and took with him a blue cloth surtout coat with brass buttons. Osmyn, a new negro, well sized, has a side or down look when spoken to, and had on when he went off a blue jacket and osnabrug trowsers. It is supposed they went through the Indian nation for Charlestown, as they were met by two white men three hundred miles from Pansacola. Whoever takes up said negroes, and delivers them to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, shall, on acquainting Mr. GEORGE SMITH, or Mr. ELIAS VANDERHORST, be properly rewarded, and have all other expences paid by said gentlemen. ARTHUR NEIL.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 September 1766.]

SUBA; b. Africa?; speaks High Dutch or German

Birkmeyer, Charles

RAN AWAY from Saluda Fork, in September past, a negro man named SUBA, about 5 feet three inches high, two of his fore teeth filed, speaks high Dutch or German and no English, he had a white coat on when he went away. Whoever delivers said negro to me in Charlestown, shall have TEN POUNDS reward. CHARLES BIRKMYER.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 October 1766.]

ANTHONY; b. Africa; ritual scarification

van Bebber, Jacob; Stuart, Henry; Hall, Jasper

RAN AWAY from the two plantations of Jasper's Barony the five following negroes, which have been seen and described going up Savannah river in a boat with some white men, and thereafter seen above seventy miles up said river in the same boat, still going up, viz.

Anthony, a small thin fellow, with very thin jaws, about five feet five inches high, is about forty years old, has a hole in his right cheek, under his eye, it seems to have been made with a bill, he has his country marks down his cheeks. Charles, a small squat fellow, very black, about five feet six inches high, has his country marks down his cheeks, is about thirty-eight years of age, and is much marked with the small-pox. Mercury, a stout well made black fellow, of about thirty-seven years old, speaks no English, has a long face, his country marks, three cuts on his temples, a sullen, sulky fellow. Robin, a well made little fellow, is about five feet six inches high, has so uncommon a thick black beard that it is particularly remarkable, is a middle aged fellow. Rutland, a stout able bodied fellow, very black, with a full face, about 38 years of age. FIVE POUNDS reward is offered to any person that will bring any of the above negroes to Jacob Vanbebber, on Jasper Hall's Plantation, or to Henry Stuart, in Beaufort, or to the warden of the workhouse, in Charlestown, and TWENTY POUNDS to any that can prove their being in the possession of a white person or persons, so as to have them brought to justice.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 November 1766.]

CHARLES; b. Africa

van Bebber, Jacob; Stuart, Henry

RAN AWAY from the two plantations of Jasper's Barony the five following negroes, which have been seen and described going up Savannah river in a boat with some white men, and thereafter seen above seventy miles up said river in the same boat, still going up, viz.

Anthony, a small thin fellow, with very thin jaws, about five feet five inches high, is about forty years old, has a hole in his right cheek, under his eye, it seems to have been made with a bill, he has his country marks down his cheeks. Charles, a small squat fellow, very black, about five feet six inches high, has his country marks down his cheeks, is about thirty-eight years of age, and is much marked with the small-pox. Mercury, a stout well made black fellow, of about thirty-seven years old, speaks no English, has a long face, his country marks, three cuts on his temples, a sullen, sulky fellow. Robin, a well made little fellow, is about five feet six inches high, has so uncommon a thick black beard that it is particularly remarkable, is a middle aged fellow. Rutland, a stout able bodied fellow, very black, with a full face, about 38 years of age. FIVE POUNDS reward is offered to any person that will bring any of the above negroes to Jacob Vanbebber, on Jasper Hall's Plantation, or to Henry Stuart, in Beaufort, or to the warden of the workhouse, in Charlestown, and TWENTY POUNDS to any that can prove their being in the possession of a white person or persons, so as to have them brought to justice.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 November 1766.]

MERCURY; b. Africa; ritual scarification

van Bebber, Jacob; Stuart, Henry

RAN AWAY from the two plantations of Jasper's Barony the five following negroes, which have been seen and described going up Savannah river in a boat with some white men, and thereafter seen above seventy miles up said river in the same boat, still going up, viz.

Anthony, a small thin fellow, with very thin jaws, about five feet five inches high, is about forty years old, has a hole in his right cheek, under his eye, it seems to have been made with a bill, he has his country marks down his cheeks. Charles, a small squat fellow, very black, about five feet six inches high, has his country marks down his cheeks, is about thirty-eight years of age, and is much marked with the small-pox. Mercury, a stout well made black fellow, of about thirty-seven years old, speaks no English, has a long face, his country marks, three cuts on his temples, a sullen, sulky fellow. Robin, a well made little fellow, is about five feet six inches high, has so uncommon a thick black beard that it is particularly remarkable, is a middle aged fellow. Rutland, a stout able bodied fellow, very black, with a full face, about 38 years of age. FIVE POUNDS reward is offered to any person that will bring any of the above negroes to Jacob Vanbebber, on Jasper Hall's Plantation, or to Henry Stuart, in Beaufort, or to the warden of the workhouse, in Charlestown, and TWENTY POUNDS to any that can prove their being in the possession of a white person or persons, so as to have them brought to justice.
[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 November 1766.]

ROBIN

van Bebber, Jacob; Hall, Jasper; Stuart, Henry

RAN AWAY from the two plantations of Jasper's Barony the five following negroes, which have been seen and described going up Savannah river in a boat with some white men, and thereafter seen above seventy miles up said river in the same boat, still going up, viz.

Anthony, a small thin fellow, with very thin jaws, about five feet five inches high, is about forty years old, has a hole in his right cheek, under his eye, it seems to have been made with a bill, he has his country marks down his cheeks. Charles, a small squat fellow, very black, about five feet six inches high, has his country marks down his cheeks, is about thirty-eight years of age, and is much marked with the small-pox. Mercury, a stout well made black fellow, of about thirty-seven years old, speaks no English, has a long face, his country marks, three cuts on his temples, a sullen, sulky fellow. Robin, a well made little fellow, is about five feet six inches high, has so uncommon a thick black beard that it is particularly remarkable, is a middle aged fellow. Rutland, a stout able bodied fellow, very black, with a full face, about 38 years of age. FIVE POUNDS reward is offered to any person that will bring any of the above negroes to Jacob Vanbebber, on Jasper Hall's Plantation, or to Henry Stuart, in Beaufort, or to the warden of the workhouse, in Charlestown, and TWENTY POUNDS to any that can prove their being in the possession of a white person or persons, so as to have them brought to justice.
[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 November 1766.]

RUTLAND

van Bebber, Jacob; Hall, Jasper; Stuart, Henry

RAN AWAY from the two plantations of Jasper's Barony the five following negroes, which have been seen and described going up Savannah river in a boat with some white men, and thereafter seen above seventy miles up said river in the same boat, still going up, viz.

Anthony, a small thin fellow, with very thin jaws, about five feet five inches high, is about forty years old, has a hole in his right cheek, under his eye, it seems to have been made with a bill, he has his country marks down his cheeks. Charles, a small squat fellow, very black, about five feet six inches high, has his country marks down his cheeks, is about thirty-eight years of age, and is much marked with the small-pox. Mercury, a stout well made black fellow, of about thirty-seven years old, speaks no English, has a long face, his country marks, three cuts on his temples, a sullen, sulky fellow. Robin, a well made little fellow, is about five feet six inches high, has so uncommon a thick black beard that it is particularly remarkable, is a middle aged fellow. Rutland, a stout able bodied fellow, very black, with a full face, about 38 years of age. FIVE POUNDS reward is offered to any person that will bring any of the above negroes to Jacob Vanbebber, on Jasper Hall's Plantation, or to Henry Stuart, in Beaufort, or to the warden of the workhouse, in Charlestown, and TWENTY POUNDS to any that can prove their being in the possession of a white person or persons, so as to have them brought to justice.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 November 1766.]

JAMES MANLY; SCIPIO; mustee

Burton, Francis

RUN away from the subscriber, a Mustee fellow named Scipio, otherwise called James Manly, he will endeavour to pass for a free man; he had on when he went away a brown stuff coat, a red jacket, and blue cloth breeches. Whoever will take up said fellow, and deliver him to me, or the warden of the work-house, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS currency paid by FRANCIS BURTON. Dec. 9. 1766.
[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 December 1766.]

ANTHONY; b. Africa; ritual scarification; filed teeth

Hoskins, Benjamin

RAN AWAY in August last from me at Coosawhatchie, a short black negro man named ANTHONY, about five feet high, speaks good English, his teeth filed, and has his country marks on his back and breast, had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and breeches. FIVE POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges, will be paid to whoever delivers said negro to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, or at Coosawhatchie, to BENJAMIN HOSKINS.

N. B. Whoever harbours or entertains said negro, may expect to be proceeded against with the utmost rigour of law.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 December 1766.]

TOM

M'Clenachan, James

RAN AWAY in September last, a negro boy named TOM, about 15 years of age, has two teeth that stick out of his mouth, and is known on Wadmelah-island [Wadmelah] where he has been seen. FIVE POUNDS reward will be given to any person who delivers said negro to me or the warden of the work house in Charlestown; and any person giving information of his being harboured by a negro, shall receive Ten Pounds reward, and if by a white person FIFTY POUNDS to be paid on conviction of the offenders, by JAMES M'CLENACHAN.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 January 1767]

JAMES

Wood, John; Glover, Mr. (d); Cook, Mr.

RAN AWAY from Charlestown a negro man named JAMES, country born, a lusty fellow, about five feet nine inches high, is of a yellow colour, has some pock marks in his face, a scar over his right eye, and has been shot in his ancles, the marks of which may be perceived: Had on when he went away, a blue cloath coat, black breeches, an old beaver hat, and an oznabrug shirt. It is supposed he is gone towards Broad-River, as he has formerly lived there, and says he once belonged to one Glover, who was killed on Broad-river, likewise to one Cook, he has been seen on the road going that way. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negro to me in Charlestown, or to the warden of the work-house, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges paid by JOHN WOOD.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1767]

ABRAHAM

Chapman, John

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 March 1767]

See ABRAHAM in other newspapers.

ANTHONY; mulatto

John Forbes & Co.

RAN AWAY about the beginning of February last, from the schooner Peedee, in Charlestown, a mulatto fellow named ANTHONY, about five feet six inches high, talks broken English, very well known in town where he has been lately seen, and is supposed to be harboured by some person about Trott's-point. Whoever will give information where the said fellow is harboured, or deliver him to the warden of the work-house, or to us, dead or alive, shall be handsomely rewarded.

JOHN FORBES & CO.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 March 1767.]

ABRAHAM

Tibout, Tunis; Thibout; Tibout, Tunes; Teunes

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1767.]

See ABRAHAM in other newspapers.

GIBB

Buer, Thomas

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1767.]

See GIBB in other newspapers.

DANIEL

Michie & Robertson; Dargan, Timothy

RAN AWAY about three years ago from Mr. Timothy Dargan's plantation in Amelia-township, a stout likely able fellow named DANIEL, about six feet high, of a yellow complexion, about 22 years old, has been in and about North-Carolina since he ran away, and was seen in Charlestown this week. Whoever delivers the said fellow to Mr. Timothy Dargan in Amelia-township, or to the warden of the work house, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS currency reward, and all reasonable charges paid, and the like sum to any person who will give information of his being harboured, to be paid, on conviction of the offenders by MICHIE & ROBERTSON.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 April 1767.]

ABRAHAM

Sommers, Humphry

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1767]. See ABRAHAM, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 16 February 1765. Additional Supplement.

PETER; barber

Burn, John, Hon.; Bothwell, John

RAN AWAY from my service a negro fellow (belonging to the Hon. John Burn, Esq.) named PETER, by trade a barber, well known in and about Charlestown; he had on when he went away a white fustian frock, blue jacket and black breeches, and carried with him several razors and dressing implements. Whoever delivers him to me or the warden of the work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward. JOHN BOTHWELL.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 May 1767.]

PETER

Sommers, Humphry

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 May 1767.]

See PETER and SAM, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 June 1767.

SAM

Sommers, Humphry

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 May 1767.]

See PETER and SAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 June 1767.

MOLL

Gibson, Robert; Webb, Mr.

RAN AWAY from Robert Gibson, about five weeks ago, a negro woman named Moll, this country born, had on when she went away a homespun jacket and petticoat: she is about five feet seven inches high, of a yellowish complexion. Any person who delivers her to the said Robert Gibson, or to the warden of the work-house, shall receive Five pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. N.B. It is supposed that she is harboured about Mr. Webb's plantation, on the great Savannah, on Santee river.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 May 1767.]

JOHN; b. West Indies; Jamaica; carpenter

Stuart, John; Moncrief, Mr.

RAN AWAY the 5th July instant, a negro man named JOHN, a carpenter by trade, wrought for some time past with Mr. Moncrief, is about 35 years old, sensible, and speaks very good English and French; had on when he went away, a broad striped check waistcoat and red breeches, but sometimes wears striped trowsers, is about five feet nine inches high, had a gold earring in one ear, wears his hair far down on his cheeks; was born in Jamaica and lived some years at Mobile [Alabama]. Whoever delivers the said negro to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me, shall have SEVEN POUNDS reward and all reasonable charges; and any white person giving information of his being harboured, or protected, so that the person guilty thereof may be convicted according to law, shall have TEN POUNDS reward. JOHN STUART.

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1767.]

BEN

Williamson, William

[South Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1767.]

See BEN in other newspapers.

KOULI KAN

Middleton, Henry

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 July 1767.]

See KOULI KAN. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 27 July 1767.

WANNY

Drayton, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 July 1767.]

See WANNY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 3 August 1767.

AMELIA

Motte, Christian; Mote

RAN AWAY the 27th day of June last, a likely young country born NEGRO WOMAN, about eighteen years of age, named AMELIA, had on when she went away, a white negro cloth coat and wrapper, and an iron hobble on her feet, is supposed to be about Ponpon. Whoever will take up said run-away and deliver her to me at Ponpon, in St. Paul's parish, shall receive a reward of FORTY SHILLINGS from CHRISTIAN MOTE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1767.]

ABRAHAM; mustee; fiddler; branded

Tamplet, Peter; Moncrief, Mrs.; Lingard, James

STRAYED the beginning of July, a bright bay natural pacing horse..... Whoever delivers the said horse to me on Goose-creek Neck, shall have FORTY SHILLINGS reward, and reasonable charges paid. Ran away about the same time, a likely MUSTEE FELLOW named ABRAHAM, formerly the property of Mrs. Moncrief, he is a very good Fidler; had on when he went away, irons on both feet, and a collar on his neck, has flower de luce [fleur de lis] on each shoulder, is branded IL. Whoever apprehends the said fellow, and delivers to me, or Mr. James Lingard, in Charlestown, shall have THREE POUNDS reward and reasonable charges paid by PETER TAMPLET.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1767.]

WILL

Fuller, Benjamin, estate of; Fuller, Thomas; Cattell, Catherine, Mrs.; Ainslie, John, Esq.; Macconnell, John

St. Andrew's parish, August 11. WHEREAS JONATHAN MACCONNEL, an Irish man, of a dark or brown complexion, wears a short brown wig, is about 6 feet high, and well made, did on Sunday night, 9th August instant, leave the plantation belonging to the estate of Benjamin Fuller, and carried off with him THREE NEGROES, viz. a negro man named WILL, stout and well made, very black, aged about 23 years, another negro man named JOHN, likely and pretty stout made, very black, aged about 19 or 20 years; and a boy about 14 or 15 years old, named JOE, not so black as those fellows; all of them born in this country, and speak very good English; and it being likewise imagined that he has carried off several other slaves, viz. a negro man of Mrs. Catharine Cattell's, a negro man belonging to John Ainslie, Esq. and also another man called CAIN, all of them being armed, it is supposed the said Macconnell will endeavour to make his escape with the said negroes out of the province, or at least to the back parts thereof; he also carried off with him a small bay STALLION, about 13 hands high, branded BF in one: ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend the said Jonathan MacConnell, and deliver him to the common gaol in Charlestown, to be paid on conviction; TWENTY POUNDS a head for Will and John, TEN POUNDS for the boy, and a handsome gratuity for the horse. THOMAS FULLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1767.]

JOHN

Fuller, Benjamin, estate of; Fuller, Thomas; Cattell, Catherine, Mrs.; Ainslie, John, Esq.; Macconnell, John
St. Andrew's parish, August 11. WHEREAS JONATHAN MACCONNEL, an Irish man, of a dark or brown complexion, wears a short brown wig, is about 6 feet high, and well made, did on Sunday night, 9th August instant, leave the plantation belonging to the estate of Benjamin Fuller, and carried off with him THREE NEGROES, viz. a negro man named WILL, stout and well made, very black, aged about 23 years, another negro man named JOHN, likely and pretty stout made, very black, aged about 19 or 20 years; and a boy about 14 or 15 years old, named JOE, not so black as those fellows; all of them born in this country, and speak very good English; and it being likewise imagined that he has carried off several other slaves, viz. a negro man of Mrs. Catharine Cattell's, a negro man belonging to John Ainslie, Esq. and also another man called CAIN, all of them being armed, it is supposed the said Macconnell will endeavour to make his escape with the said negroes out of the province, or at least to the back parts thereof; he also carried off with him a small bay STALLION, about 13 hands high, branded BF in one: ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend the said Jonathan MacConnell, and deliver him to the common gaol in Charlestown, to be paid on conviction; TWENTY POUNDS a head for Will and John, TEN POUNDS for the boy, and a handsome gratuity for the horse. THOMAS FULLER.
[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1767.]

JOE

Fuller, Benjamin, estate of; Fuller, Thomas; Cattell, Catherine, Mrs.; Ainslie, John, Esq.; Macconnell, John
St. Andrew's parish, August 11. WHEREAS JONATHAN MACCONNEL, an Irish man, of a dark or brown complexion, wears a short brown wig, is about 6 feet high, and well made, did on Sunday night, 9th August instant, leave the plantation belonging to the estate of Benjamin Fuller, and carried off with him THREE NEGROES, viz. a negro man named WILL, stout and well made, very black, aged about 23 years, another negro man named JOHN, likely and pretty stout made, very black, aged about 19 or 20 years; and a boy about 14 or 15 years old, named JOE, not so black as those fellows; all of them born in this country, and speak very good English; and it being likewise imagined that he has carried off several other slaves, viz. a negro man of Mrs. Catharine Cattell's, a negro man belonging to John Ainslie, Esq. and also another man called CAIN, all of them being armed, it is supposed the said Macconnell will endeavour to make his escape with the said negroes out of the province, or at least to the back parts thereof; he also carried off with him a small bay STALLION, about 13 hands high, branded BF in one: ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend the said Jonathan MacConnell, and deliver him to the common gaol in Charlestown, to be paid on conviction; TWENTY POUNDS a head for Will and John, TEN POUNDS for the boy, and a handsome gratuity for the horse. THOMAS FULLER.
[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1767.]

ANONYMOUS MAN ONE

Cattell, Catherine, Mrs.; Fuller, Benjamin, estate of; Macconnell, John
St. Andrew's parish, August 11. WHEREAS JONATHAN MACCONNEL, an Irish man, of a dark or brown complexion, wears a short brown wig, is about 6 feet high, and well made, did on Sunday night, 9th August instant, leave the plantation belonging to the estate of Benjamin Fuller, and carried off with him THREE NEGROES, viz. a negro man named WILL, stout and well made, very black, aged about 23 years, another negro man named JOHN, likely and pretty stout made, very black, aged about 19 or 20 years; and a boy about 14 or 15 years old, named JOE, not so black as those fellows; all of them born in this country, and speak very good English; and it being likewise imagined that he has carried off several other slaves, viz. a negro man of Mrs. Catharine Cattell's, a negro man belonging to John Ainslie, Esq. and also another man called CAIN, all of them being armed, it is supposed the said Macconnell will endeavour to make his escape with the said negroes out of the province, or at least to the back parts thereof; he also carried off with him a small bay STALLION, about 13 hands high, branded BF in one: ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend the said Jonathan MacConnell, and deliver him to the common gaol in Charlestown, to be paid on conviction; TWENTY POUNDS a head for Will and John, TEN POUNDS for the boy, and a handsome gratuity for the horse. THOMAS FULLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1767.]

ANONYMOUS MAN TWO

Ainslie, John, Esq.; Fuller, Benjamin, estate of; Macconnell, John

St. Andrew's parish, August 11. WHEREAS JONATHAN MACCONNEL, an Irish man, of a dark or brown complexion, wears a short brown wig, is about 6 feet high, and well made, did on Sunday night, 9th August instant, leave the plantation belonging to the estate of Benjamin Fuller, and carried off with him THREE NEGROES, viz. a negro man named WILL, stout and well made, very black, aged about 23 years, another negro man named JOHN, likely and pretty stout made, very black, aged about 19 or 20 years; and a boy about 14 or 15 years old, named JOE, not so black as those fellows; all of them born in this country, and speak very good English; and it being likewise imagined that he has carried off several other slaves, viz. a negro man of Mrs. Catharine Cattell's, a negro man belonging to John Ainslie, Esq. and also another man called CAIN, all of them being armed, it is supposed the said Macconnell will endeavour to make his escape with the said negroes out of the province, or at least to the back parts thereof; he also carried off with him a small bay STALLION, about 13 hands high, branded BF in one: ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend the said Jonathan MacConnell, and deliver him to the common gaol in Charlestown, to be paid on conviction; TWENTY POUNDS a head for Will and John, TEN POUNDS for the boy, and a handsome gratuity for the horse. THOMAS FULLER.
[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1767.]

CAIN

Fuller, Benjamin, estate of; Fuller, Thomas; Cattell, Catherine, Mrs.; Ainslie, John, Esq.

St. Andrew's parish, August 11. WHEREAS JONATHAN MACCONNEL, an Irish man, of a dark or brown complexion, wears a short brown wig, is about 6 feet high, and well made, did on Sunday night, 9th August instant, leave the plantation belonging to the estate of Benjamin Fuller, and carried off with him THREE NEGROES, viz. a negro man named WILL, stout and well made, very black, aged about 23 years, another negro man named JOHN, likely and pretty stout made, very black, aged about 19 or 20 years; and a boy about 14 or 15 years old, named JOE, not so black as those fellows; all of them born in this country, and speak very good English; and it being likewise imagined that he has carried off several other slaves, viz. a negro man of Mrs. Catharine Cattell's, a negro man belonging to John Ainslie, Esq. and also another man called CAIN, all of them being armed, it is supposed the said Macconnell will endeavour to make his escape with the said negroes out of the province, or at least to the back parts thereof; he also carried off with him a small bay STALLION, about 13 hands high, branded BF in one: ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend the said Jonathan MacConnell, and deliver him to the common gaol in Charlestown, to be paid on conviction; TWENTY POUNDS a head for Will and John, TEN POUNDS for the boy, and a handsome gratuity for the horse. THOMAS FULLER.
[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1767.]

DUBLIN

Hopton, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 August 1767.]

See DUBLIN. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 31 August 1767.

SAM; mustee

Huguenin, David; Hugulnin; Allison, Mr.; Savage, Thomas;

GEORGIA. RAN away the 11th of August inst. from David Hugulnin [sic; Huguenin], at Ogeechee, a mustee fellow named SAM, about 22 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, an artful cunning fellow, and very lusty, had on when he went away a blue coattee, with red cuffs, he is remarkably marked with the print of an horse's hoof on the forehead, having been marked by one when young, his mother lives at one Allison's on the road about 16 miles from Purrysburgh, but it is likely he may be in or about Charlestown, as he was sometime since taken up there. Any person that will deliver him to said Huguenin at Ogeechee, or to Thomas Savage in Charlestown, shall be intitled to a GUINEA Reward.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 August 1767.]

BERWICK

Pinckney, Roger

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1767.]

See BERWICK in other newspapers.

ABRAHAM

Chapman, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 October 1767.]

See ABRAHAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 19 October 1767.

JACK

Snelling, John

RAN AWAY, on Tuesday the 6th of October instant, a NEGRO BOY named JACK, about eighteen years old, had on when he went away, a short oznaburgs coat and breeches, oznaburgh shirt, a purple and white handkerchief round his head, has a scar under one of his eyes, and well known in town. Whoever apprehends the said Negro, will deliver him to the warden of the workhouse, or to me, shall receive a reward of TWO DOLLARS. And whoever will give information of his being being either harboured or entertained by a white person, they, upon conviction of the offender, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS, from JOHN SNELLING.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1767.]

BEN; mustee

Price, Hest & Head; Pinckney, Roger; Harvey, John

RUN AWAY from the subscribers, the 12th Oct. inst. a young mustee fellow named BEN; he is about five feet nine inches high and has remarkable bushy hair, he was born in this province, and had on when he left us, a white fustian coat and breeches, and a white shirt, he belonged to Mr. John Harvey, in whose family he lived several years, and lately to Roger Pinckney, Esq. Whoever will deliver him to the warden of the work-house in Charlestown, or give information so that he may be apprehended, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward, and whoever harbours the said fellow, may depend, on its being discovered, to be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. PRICE, HEST, & HEAD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1767.]

CAESAR

Dearington, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 November 1767.]

See CAESAR. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 9 November 1767.

FRANK; mulatto; fiddler

Gaillard, Samuel

RUN AWAY the 1st September last, a young MULATTO Fellow, named FRANK, about 22 years of age, near six feet high, speaks good English, and plays very well on the fiddle, had on when he went away, a white negro cloth coat, and a pair of white Russia drab breeches. He was caught about a month ago near Pine-tree-creek, and made his escape. Whoever will deliver him to the warden of the work-house, or to me near Murray's ferry, shall receive a reward of TWENTY-FIVE Pounds. SAMUEL GAILLARD. The above fellow carried away with him, a gun, and also a bay horse, about 13 1/2 hands high, branded on one thigh with a double cross ++ joined [one above the other vertically], canters very slow. Whoever will deliver said horse, shall receive FIVE pounds reward.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1767.]

WALLEY; waterman; boatman; literate

Donnom, James; Legare, Daniel, Jr.; Simmons, Ebenezer, Captain; Cattell, Robert

Twenty Pounds Reward. RAN away from my plantation at Saltcatcher, about four weeks ago, and came towards Charlestown; WALLEY, a stout likely young negro fellow, very sensible and plausible, this country born, reads English, and speaks it very plain, is pitted with the small pox a little, and commonly wears his hair pretty long down his cheeks; was lately the property of Mr. Daniel Legare, jun. and formerly of Captain Ebenezer Simmons of Charlestown, in whose family he lately had a mother, sisters, and a wife, belonging to Mr. Robert Cattell at Ashley-river, he is an excellent water and boatman. Whoever will deliver him to me at Ponpon, or to the warden of the Work-house, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward. JAMES DONNOM. N.B. Whoever harbours, employs, or carries him off, may be assured to suffer the utmost rigour of the law in that case.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 December 1767.]

CAPTAIN

Drayton, Stephen

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1768.]

See CAPTAIN, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 4 January 1768.

TOM; BIG TOM

Laurens, Henry; Brown, William; Smith, John

RAN away, a negro man named TOM, or big TOM, lately the property of Mr. William Brown planter near Wassamsaw or Cyprus, and purchased from the Provost-Marshall on Tuesday the 29th of December, at a public sale of negroes. The said negroe is supposed to have carried off a sorrel Horse, about 14 hands high, blazed down his forehead, branded 3S on the off shoulder and buttock. A reward of TWENTY DOLLARS and reasonable charges shall be paid for taking up and delivering the Negro at the Work house, or to me in Charlestown, and FIVE pounds for the horse delivered either to Mr. JOHN SMITH at Mepkin plantation, or to me as aforesaid. HENRY LAURENS. Jan. 6th, 1768.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 January 1768]

SALISBURY

Logan, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1768]

(Timothy). 1 February 1768.

See SALISBURY. South-Carolina Gazette

JEMMY

Roper, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1768]

See JEMMY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 18 January 1768.

JOE; DICK; fiddler

Robertson, Andrew

RUN AWAY, a Negro Man, named JOE, but calls himself DICK, or may take some other name, is about five feet six inches high, very black, a smooth face, one leg thicker than the other, and is about twenty-five years of age, he plays upon the fiddle, and sometimes affects to speak broad Scotch or Northumberland dialect; a plausible rascal, and has had the address to pass himself with several people as free. Whoever delivers him to the warden of the work-house shall have TEN POUNDS reward. ANDREW ROBERTSON. All masters of vessels and others, are hereby forbidden to harbour, entertain, or carry off the said Negro, at their peril.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 January 1768]

CATO

Lambton, Richard

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 February 1768]

See CATO, BULLOCK, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 15 February 1768.

BULLOCK

Lambton, Richard

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 February 1768]

See CATO, BULLOCK, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 15 February 1768.

NED

Lambton, Richard

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 February 1768]

See CATO, BULLOCK, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 15 February 1768.

JOE; mulatto*Blommart, John

Pansacola, February 4th, 1768. RUN AWAY in September last, a mulatto man named JOE, about 26 years of age, five feet seven inches high, much pitted with the small pox, speaks good English, is well known in Mobile, New-Orleans and New-York, and it is supposed will attempt to pass for a free man. TEN POUNDS reward will be given to any person delivering him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, besides reasonable charges. JOHN BLOMMART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 March 1768]

CATO; b. Africa; Guinea*Elliott, Barnard; Elliott, Samuel, Major

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Ashepoo last October, a negro fellow named CATO, about five feet four inches high, twenty-eight years old, of a very black complexion, with a very flat nose, large nostrils, a little knock-kneed. He is a Guinea Negro, but speaks pretty good English, and as he went away so early in the autumn, must be very bare of cloaths by this time. Also, an Ebbo [Ibo] fellow named SYPHAX, about twenty years old, little more than five feet high, well set, and walks parrot-toed; he went away from Tulisinny plantation some time in January, and took with him a suit of white negro cloth cloaths quite new: about the end of the same month he was carried by a white man in the habit of a sailor to Major Samuel Elliott's plantation on Godfrey's Savannah, but the overseer refusing to take the fellow and pay for apprehending him, the man carried him away (supposed by the overseer to take him to me) since which neither sailor or negro have been heard of. The white man was much about the height of the negro, but not so thick in body, and said he came from Virginia. Whoever will deliver either of the Negroes to the Warden of the Work-house, to either of the subscriber's overseers, or to himself shall have TEN POUNDS reward for each, exclusive of travelling charges, but whoever will apprehend the white man in possession of Syphax and deliver him to me, so that he may be made an example of, shall have FIFTY POUNDS reward. BERNARD [sic; Barnard] ELLIOTT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 25 March 1768]

SYPHAX; b. Africa; Ibo*Elliott, Barnard; Elliott, Samuel, Major

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Ashepoo last October, a negro fellow named CATO, about five feet four inches high, twenty-eight years old, of a very black complexion, with a very flat nose, large nostrils, a little knock-kneed. He is a Guinea Negro, but speaks pretty good English, and as he went away so early in the autumn, must be very bare of cloaths by this time. Also, an Ebbo [Ibo] fellow named SYPHAX, about twenty years old, little more than five feet high, well set, and walks parrot-toed, he went away from Tulisinny plantation some time in January, and took with him a suit of white negro cloth cloaths quite new: about the end of the same month he was carried by a white man in the habit of a sailor to Major Samuel Elliott's plantation on Godfrey's Savannah, but the overseer refusing to take the fellow and pay for apprehending him, the man carried him away (supposed by the overseer to take him to me) since which neither sailor or negro have been heard of. The white man was much about the height of the negro, but not so thick in body, and said he came from Virginia. Whoever will deliver either of the Negroes to the Warden of the Work-house, to either of the subscriber's overseers, or to himself shall have TEN POUNDS reward for each, exclusive of travelling charges, but whoever will apprehend the white man in possession of Syphax and deliver him to me, so that he may be made an example of, shall have FIFTY POUNDS reward. BERNARD [sic; Barnard] ELLIOTT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 25 March 1768]

BESS*Drayton, William; Chisholm, Mr.; Caisolme

RUN AWAY, a negro woman, well known in Charlestown, named BESS, formerly the property of Mr. Caisolme [sic; Chisholm?]. Any person who delivers her to me, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward; and the farther sum of TEN POUNDS on proving where and by whom she has been harboured. WILLIAM DRAYTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 April 1768]

SAMBO

Imrie, John; Dunnovan, James; Donovan; Stone, Mr.

Beaufort, April 16, 1766 [sic; 1768]. RUN away from the subscriber, the 12th instant, two Negroe Fellows; one named SAMBO, a tall stout fellow, speaks slow, has a large bunch on his navel; had on when he went away a blue jacket and a pair of white trowsers: he was sometime ago the property of Mr. Stone, block-maker in Charlestown, and lately belonged to Mr. James Dunnovan, in King-Street. The other is a short, well made fellow, speaks fast, had on when he went away, a green jacket and a pair of blue trowsers: it is supposed they are gone to Charlestown, as the fellow named Sambo is well acquainted there. Whoever will bring them to me at Beaufort, or deliver them to the warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward for each of them. JOHN IMRIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 April 1768]

ANONYMOUS MAN

Imrie, John; Dunnovan, James; Donovan; Stone, Mr.

Beaufort, April 16, 1766 [sic; 1768]. RUN away from the subscriber, the 12th instant, two Negroe Fellows; one named SAMBO, a tall stout fellow, speaks slow, has a large bunch on his navel; had on when he went away a blue jacket and a pair of white trowsers: he was sometime ago the property of Mr. Stone, block-maker in Charlestown, and lately belonged to Mr. James Dunnovan, in King-Street. The other is a short, well made fellow, speaks fast, had on when he went away, a green jacket and a pair of blue trowsers: it is supposed they are gone to Charlestown, as the fellow named Sambo is well acquainted there. Whoever will bring them to me at Beaufort, or deliver them to the warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward for each of them. JOHN IMRIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 April 1768]

JACK; b. Virginia; cooper; carpenter; mutilated

Mason, Charles

RUN AWAY, about the 22d of December, 1766, a likely NEGRO MAN named JACK, about five feet nine inches high, knock kneed, with remarkable large feet, a full face, and very black; is a good cooper, and can work at the carpenter's trade, has a piece taken off one of his ears, Virginia born, and speaks good English. FIFTY POUNDS currency will be paid to any person who apprehends the said fellow and brings him to me in Brunswick county, Virginia. CHARLES MASON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1768]

BOATSWAIN; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification

Postell, James; Middleton, Thomas, Col., estate of

RUN away from my plantation near Ashoapoo [Ashepoo], a negro fellow named BOATSWAIN, he is a Guinea fellow, with his country marks on his face, has been in the country six or seven years, and speaks tolerable good English, is full six feet high and very stout, formerly belonged to the estate of Col. Thomas Middleton and is supposed to be gone up to the southwards where he formerly lived. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow, and deliver him to my overseer on the said plantations or to the warden of the work-house, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS from JAMES POSTELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1768.]

SANCHO

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768.]

See SANCHO. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

DANIEL

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768.]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

MARK

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina

Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

PRIMUS

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

WINTER

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

JACOB

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

QUAW

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

AMOS

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

NED

Huger, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1768]

See DANIEL, MARK, PRIMUS, WINTER, JACOB, QUAW, AMOS, and NED. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 20 June 1768.

CYRUS

Shirley, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 June 1768]
Gazette (Timothy). 13 June 1768.

See CYRUS and BROMLEY. South-Carolina

See CYRUS and BROMLEY in other newspapers.

BROMLEY

Shirley, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 June 1768]
Gazette (Timothy). 13 June 1768.

See CYRUS and BROMLEY. South-Carolina

See CYRUS and BROMLEY in other newspapers.

MINGO; cooper

Laurens, Henry; Milner, Mrs.; Milner, Job (d)

RUN AWAY FROM on board the Schooner Wambaw, on the 5th instant, June, 1768, a Negro MAN of the blacker sort, aged about 26 years, short stature, and well made, the wool or hair of his temples growing low upon his cheeks, his name MINGO, and by trade a Cooper, worked many years in Charlestown, and is well known there and about Stono and Christ-church parish: he was just bought from Mrs. Milner, widow of the late Mr. Job Milner, and went away after fair promises of behaving well, without the least provocation. He usually wore a green jacket, blue cloth trowsers, and a handkerchief tied low on his forehead, and also a hat. Any person who will secure the said negro in the work-house, or deliver him to the subscriber, his present owner, shall have TWO PISTOLES paid as a REWARD, and reasonable charges besides. HENRY LAURENS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 June 1768]

ABRAHAM

Gibbes, Solomon

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1768]

See ABRAHAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 27 June 1768.

NEPTUNE; b. Africa

Bradley, Mr.; Wells, Robert

Charlestown, July 1st, 1768. RUN away from Mr. Bradley's plantation near Pensacola in WEST-FLORIDA, three New NEGRO MEN called Neptune, Bacchus, and Apollo, that could not speak English; and a stout seasoned negro fellow called Limerick, speaks good English, was bred a fisherman, and is very much marked on the back, &c. with whipping. Whoever will secure all or any of the said negroes in the workhouse shall be handsomely rewarded, besides being paid ever the law may allow, by applying to ROBERT WELLS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1768]

BACCHUS; b. Africa

Bradley, Mr.; Wells, Robert

Charlestown, July 1st, 1768. RUN away from Mr. Bradley's plantation near Pensacola in WEST-FLORIDA, three New NEGRO MEN called Neptune, Bacchus, and Apollo, that could not speak English; and a stout seasoned negro fellow called Limerick, speaks good English, was bred a fisherman, and is very much marked on the back, &c. with whipping. Whoever will secure all or any of the said negroes in the workhouse shall be handsomely rewarded, besides being paid ever the law may allow, by applying to ROBERT WELLS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1768]

APPOLLO; b. Africa

Bradley, Mr.; Wells, Robert

Charlestown, July 1st, 1768. RUN away from Mr. Bradley's plantation near Pensacola in WEST-FLORIDA, three New NEGRO MEN called Neptune, Bacchus, and Apollo, that could not speak English; and a stout seasoned negro fellow called Limerick, speaks good English, was bred a fisherman, and is very much marked on the back, &c. with whipping. Whoever will secure all or any of the said negroes in the workhouse shall be handsomely rewarded, besides being paid ever the law may allow, by applying to ROBERT WELLS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1768]

LIMERICK; fisherman

Bradley, Mr.; Wells, Robert

Charlestown, July 1st, 1768. RUN away from Mr. Bradley's plantation near Pensacola in WEST-FLORIDA, three New NEGRO MEN called Neptune, Bacchus, and Apollo, that could not speak English; and a stout seasoned negro fellow called Limerick, speaks good English, was bred a fisherman, and is very much marked on the back, &c. with whipping. Whoever will secure all or any of the said negroes in the workhouse shall be handsomely rewarded, besides being paid ever the law may allow, by applying to ROBERT WELLS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1768]

JACK; mulatto

Simpson, James

RAN away from Savannah in Georgia, and supposed now to be in or near Charlestown, a likely young mulatto fellow named JACK: he is a sensible fellow, has been in England, and may pretend to be free; all persons are therefore cautioned against carrying him off the province, or any way harbouring or protecting him. Whoever shall Apprehend him, and deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me, shall have FOUR DOLLARS reward. JAMES SIMPSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1768]

GEORGE; mulatto

Oliphant, David, Dr.

ABSENTED himself, on Thursday the 4th of August instant, a MULATTO Man, named GEORGE, well known in Charlestown, young, about six feet high, pale complexion, marked with the small-pox, sensible and speaks good English, has long curled hair, very black, which he sometimes wears tied. Whoever takes him up and delivers him to me or the warden of the Work-house shall have FIVE POUNDS reward, and whoever harbours or entertains him may depend on being prosecuted. DAVID OLIPHANT. November 25, 1769.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 August 1768]

PHILLIS; mustee*Rowand, Robert; de St. Julien, Susanna, Miss; Mayrant, John, Esq.

RAN away, a mustee wench named PHILLIS, well known in Charles-town and Santee, where it is supposed she now is, being formerly the property of John Mayrant, Esq; and purchased by me about eighteen months ago, of Miss Susanna de St. Julien. All persons are cautioned against harbouring or entertaining her. A reward of TWO DOLLARS with all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person who will take her up and deliver her in Charlestown to the warden of the Work-house, or ROBERT ROWAND. N.B. She carried her cloaths with her.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 January 1769]

SAM*Rose, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 December 1768]

See SAM. South-Carolina Gazette. 9 January 1769.

TOM*Drayton, Stephen

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 January 1769]

See TOM. South-Carolina Gazette. 16 February 1769.

See also, TOM in other newspapers.

JACK; YANKIE*M'Neill, Archibald; Fotheringham, Alexander; McNeill; Fotheringham

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 January 1769]

See JACK, alias YANKIE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 5 January 1769.

CUDJO; CUDJOE*Ivers, Thomas; Thomas Ivers & Co.; Price, Hest & Head

RUN away from the subscribers on Monday the 6th inst. a stout young Negro man, named CUDJO, about 5 feet 6 inches high: had on when he went away a green negro cloth waistcoat and breeches. He attempted, some time in December last, to make his escape off the province on board of a vessel, but was detected and brought to us by one of the pilots: Therefore, as we are suspicious of his attempting the like again, we do hereby forewarn all masters of vessels and others not to carry him off the province, as they or their securities may be assured of being prosecuted as far as the law directs. Any person delivering the said negro to us, Messrs. Price, Hest & Head, or to the warden of the work-house, shall receive TEN POUNDS Reward. THOMAS IVERS & Co. March 7, 1769. [sic]

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 March 1769]

BEN; b. Bermuda*Savage & Legare

RUN away on Sunday March 19th, from the Sloop Seafflower, then lying at the Market Wharf, a Bermuda Negro Fellow named BEN, black complexion, speaks good English, about five feet ten inches high, much pitted with the small pox. Whoever apprehends and delivers the said Negro to Messrs. SAVAGE & LEGARE in Charlestown, shall have TEN POUNDS reward. All Masters of Vessels are forbid carrying him off.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 March 1769]

ABRAHAM; butcher*Saxby, George; Atkins, William

Charlestown, March 31st, 1769. RUN away from the subscriber about the 10th of last month, a NEGRO MAN named ABRAHAM, formerly the property of Mr. William Atkins of John's-Island, well known in the market as butcher; he is supposed to be gone to John's or James's Island. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS; but whoever harbours him, may depend on being prosecuted, by GEORGE SAXBY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 April 1769]

BEN

Somerland, William

RUN away two NEGRO MEN country born, one named BEN, about five feet six inches high; the other HENRY, about five feet nine inches high. TWENTY POUNDS Reward with all reasonable charges will be paid for each of the said Negroes, delivered to me on Savannah River. WILLIAM SOMERLAND.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 April 1769]

HENRY

Somerland, William

RUN away two NEGRO MEN country born, one named BEN, about five feet six inches high; the other HENRY, about five feet nine inches high. TWENTY POUNDS Reward with all reasonable charges will be paid for each of the said Negroes, delivered to me on Savannah River. WILLIAM SOMERLAND.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 April 1769]

GUY

Izard, Ralph; Drayton, William

RUN away several months ago, from Mr. RALPH IZARD'S plantation at Round Savannah, two Negro Boys named GUY and LIMEHOUSE: who were purchased by him from WILLIAM DRAYTON, Esq. TEN POUNDS reward for each, and all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person who shall deliver the said Negroes to the Warden of the Work-house in Charleston.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 May 1769]

LIMEHOUSE

Izard, Ralph; Drayton, William

RUN away several months ago, from Mr. RALPH IZARD'S plantation at Round Savannah, two Negro Boys named GUY and LIMEHOUSE: who were purchased by him from WILLIAM DRAYTON, Esq. TEN POUNDS reward for each, and all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person who shall deliver the said Negroes to the Warden of the Work-house in Charleston.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 May 1769]

TONEY

Smith, Phillip

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 July 1769]

See TONEY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 July 1769.

TOM; b. Africa; Ibo

Price, William; Price, Hest & Head; Hall, Nathaniel; M'Queen, John

RUN away from PRICE, HEST & HEAD, about fifteen months ago, a young Ebo Negro Man named TOM about 5 feet 5 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, he formerly belonged, and was a waiting man to, Mr. Nathaniel Hall, Merchant, at Savannah in Georgia, and is supposed to have either gone into that province, or to one of the plantations of the estate of John M'Queen, Esq, he having a wife belonging to said estate. Whoever will deliver the said negro to the subscribers, or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward, and reasonable charges and whoever will give information of his being harboured, shall upon conviction, receive FIFTY POUNDS reward by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a Negro, but if the said Tom will return to the subscriber within one month from the date hereof, he shall have pardon for his past offence, with liberty to get another master. WILLIAM PRICE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1769]

BELLA

Cooke, Rebecca

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1769]

See BELLA in other newspapers.

JACOB

Lord, Andrew

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 November 1769.]

See JACOB. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 14 November 1769.

PATT; PAT; b. Africa; Guinea

Drayton, Stephen; Hood, Catherine; Middleton, Henry, Hon.

RUN away, a NEGRO WOMAN named PATT, of the Guinea Country, lately purchased of Mrs. Catherine Hood of this town; she has a husband belonging unto the Hon. Henry Middleton, Esq, who was seen with her the evening and day following her departure. FIVE POUNDS reward will be given for her being delivered to the Warden of the Workhouse, and TWENTY POUNDS upon information and conviction of the offenders for harbouring her.

STEPHEN DRAYTON.

Charlestown, Nov. 20.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 November 1769]

PETER

Philp, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 November 1769]

See PETER. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 30 November 1769.

ISHMAEL

Tebout, Tunes; Thibout, Tunis; Tibout, Teunis

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 January 1770]

See ISHMAEL in other newspapers.

MOLL; b. South Carolina; Hobcaw

Skottowe, Thomas

RUN away, a likely young Negro Woman named MOLL, well known in Charlestown, and at Hobcaw where she was bred, and is supposed to be harboured by some of her relations there or in town. TWO DOLLARS Reward will be given to any person who brings her to me or to the Wax-den of the Work-House, and whoever harbours or entertains her, after this publick Notice, will be prosecuted. THOMAS SKOTTOWE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 February 1770]

CYRUS

Simpson, James

RAN away a Negro Lad named CYRUS, well known in Charlestown. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house shall have FIVE POUNDS currency reward, besides all reasonable charges, and whoever harbours or conceals him, may depend on being prosecuted, by JAMES SIMPSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 February 1770]

ANTHONY

Motte, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 March 1770]

See ANTHONY and FRANK. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 29 March 1770.

FRANK

Motte, Isaac

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 March 1770]

See ANTHONY and FRANK. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 29 March 1770.

JACK

Garden, Alexander

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 March 1770]

See JACK in other newspapers.

TITUS

Ferguson, David, Captain; Peyre, Rene

RUN away from Capt. DAVID FERGUSON of the Brigantine Charming-Betsey, on Thursday the 22d of March instant, a black well set Negro Fellow named TITUS, aged twenty-two years, five feet five inches high; had on when he went away, a blue negro cloth jacket, pair of cloth breeches, a check shirt, shoes and stockings. He formerly belonged to the estate of Rene Peyre, Esq., of St. Stephen's Parish and is supposed to be gone that way. Whoever takes up the said Negro, and delivers him in Charlestown to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS, and all reasonable charges.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 March 1770]

BILLY; WHITE-HAND BILLY

Rowand, Robert; Elliott, Barnard

RUN away, a NEGRO MAN named BILLY, well known, and is generally called White hand Billy from a burn on his hand, is supposed to be about Mr. Barnard Elliott's Plantation where he has a wife. TWO DOLLARS reward will be given to whoever delivers him to me in Charlestown or to my overseer at Stono. ROBERT ROWAND.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1770]

PETER

Barkley, John; Chesnut, John

RUN away from the subscriber about the middle of February last a Negro Man named PETER, about five feet nine or ten inches high, slim built, very black skinned, speaks broken English; had on when he went away a white Negro cloth jacket and breeches, pretty good felt hat and an old wig. Whoever takes up said Negro, and delivers him to me at the Waxhaws, to JOHN CHESNUT at Pinetree, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall have TEN POUNDS reward; and any person making information and giving proof of his being harboured by a white person shall have Twenty Pounds, or if by a Negro Fifteen Pounds, paid by me. JOHN BARKLEY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1770]

JOHN; butcher

Harris, Charles; Strother, Charles

RUN away from the subscriber on the 12th of February last a Negro Boy named JOHN, had on when he went a pale white Jacket and oznaburg breeches, a scar under one eye, and is of a very frowning countenance, understands butchering, and was purchased from Mr. Charles Strother in Charlestown. Whoever takes up said Boy, and delivers him to me, or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward. CHARLES HARRIS. N.B.

He is supposed to keep between Charlestown and Dorchester.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 April 1770.]

YORK

Wayne, William

RUN away on Tuesday the 17th of April, instant, a Negro Boy named YORK about fifteen years of age, has a small impediment in his speech. Had on when he went away, a white negro cloth jacket and breeches. Whoever takes up said boy, and delivers him to me Up-the-Path, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward. WILLIAM WAYNE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 April 1770.]

BRAM

Heyward, Daniel

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 May 1770.]
(Timothy). 10 May 1770.

See BRAM and JUNE. South-Carolina Gazette

JUNE

Heyward, Daniel

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 May 1770.]
(Timothy). 10 May 1770.

See BRAM and JUNE. South-Carolina Gazette

ABNER; JACK; cooper*Guerard, Godin; Simpson, Rev.; Johnson, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber's Plantation, a Negro Fellow named ABNER, a Cooper by trade, this country born, near six feet high, sensible and artful, and probably may assume the name of JACK, which he has taken before, well known in Charlestown, where he is either supposed to be, having worked there many years at his trade, or harboured at the Saltcatchers [Salkehatchie] by his Mother at the Rev. Mr. Simpson's. Whoever will apprehend the said Fellow, and deliver him to Mr. JOHNSON at Combahee Ferry, or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive a Reward of TEN POUNDS; or if harboured by a White or a Black, upon conviction of the offender, THREE GUINEAS. GODIN GUERARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 May 1770]

TONY; Indian; speaks English & Spanish*Lyford, William

A SCHOONER STOLEN. RUN away with on June 13th at night, from Cockspur in the province of Georgia, 1 PILOT BOAT, the property of the subscriber, by two fellows named Tony and Jack, with perhaps some others not yet discovered. JACK is a Negro Man, speaks very good English, and can write indifferently well, was brought up at [illegible] in England and purchased from Capt. Addison of that port, is about five feet six inches high. TONY is a brown Indian Man, speaks good English and Spanish, and is likewise about five feet six inches high. THE BOAT [is described]. A REWARD of TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS STERLING besides all reasonable expence, will be paid for bringing back the said Negro, Indian and Boat, by WILLIAM LYFORD, Pilot at Tybert in the province of Georgia.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 June 1770.]

JACK; lived England; literate*Lyford, William; Addison, Captain

A SCHOONER STOLEN. RUN away with on June 13th at night, from Cockspur in the province of Georgia, 1 PILOT BOAT, the property of the subscriber, by two fellows named Tony and Jack, with perhaps some others not yet discovered. JACK is a Negro Man, speaks very good English, and can write indifferently well, was brought up at (?) in England and purchased from Capt. Addison of that port, is about five feet six inches high. TONY is a brown Indian Man, speaks good English and Spanish, and is likewise about five feet six inches high. THE BOAT [is described]. A REWARD of TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS STERLING besides all reasonable expence, will be paid for bringing back the said Negro, Indian and Boat, by WILLIAM LYFORD, Pilot at Tybert in the province of Georgia.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 June 1770.]

SIRRAH*Furman, Wood

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 September 1770.]

See SIRRAH, MOLLY, and GLASGOW. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 6 September 1770. Supplement.

MOLLY*Furman, Wood

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 September 1770.]

See SIRRAH, MOLLY, and GLASGOW. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 6 September 1770. Supplement.

GLASGOW*Furman, Wood

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 September 1770.]

See SIRRAH, MOLLY, and GLASGOW. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 6 September 1770. Supplement.

BRAVE-BOY*Rowand, Robert

RAN away in May last, from King-Creek Cowpen, a NEGRO MAN named BRAVE-BOY, he is a thick square made fellow, about five feet eight inches high. Whoever delivers him to the Manager of said Cowpen, so as he may be sent down, or delivers him at Stono to my Overseer, or me in town, shall have TEN POUNDS reward, and the customary charges; and as I am told he is harboured near the Cowpen, whoever will give such information as to convict the party harbouring him, shall have a further reward from ROBERT ROWAND.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 September 1770]

NED

Horry, Elias

RUN away a NEGRO MAN named NED, about five feet eight inches high, very black, and about forty years of age, well known at Santee and in Georgetown. FIFTY POUNDS reward will be given to whoever brings him to my plantation at Santee. ELIAS HORRY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 October 1770.]

JACK

Sellars, Graham & Co.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 October 1770]

See JACK. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 4 October 1770.

NERO; b. Africa; Angola

Williams, David; Williams, John

RUN away the 11th of August, 1769, from my plantation at the Cheraws, a NEW NEGRO MAN of the Angola Country, called NERO, who could speak no English, and probably may have forgot his name. He is a lusty, well-made fellow, supposed to be six feet high, 6 inches, very black complexion, about twenty-years of age, has large thick lips, and a scar on the left side of his head, two or three inches long. Said fellow went away with four others who have been since taken in North Carolina, and it is highly probable, from their confession and other circumstances, that he has been taken, carried out of the way and perhaps sold. Any person who shall deliver said Negro to Mr. JOHN WILLIAMS, near said plantation, to the Warden of the Work-house, or myself in Charlestown, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS Currency reward, and all Reasonable charges; but if he is harboured, carried off, or sold by a white person, I will give ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS like money, upon conviction of the offender. DAVID WILLIAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1770]

NOVEMBER

Dewese, Cornelius

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 November 1770]

See NOVEMBER and ABRAHAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 25 October 1770.

ABRAHAM

Dewese, Cornelius

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 November 1770]

See NOVEMBER and ABRAHAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 25 October 1770.

JAMEY; b. Africa; Angola

Fitts, John; Nichols, Mr., estate of; Linn, Valentine

RUN away from the subscriber at the Plantation of Mr. Nichols's estate on Stono, November 1st, 1770 a Negro Man named JAMEY, of the Angola country; he is about five feet five or six inches high, about twenty-two years old, has a limping walk, has a cut on his left hand, near his middle finger, so that he cannot straighten it; had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and breeches, with some blue between every seam, and particularly on the fore part of the jacket, a slip of blue in the shape of a serpent; he was seen at Stono on board Mr. Valentine Linn's boat, in company with one of his negroes. Whoever will deliver the said Negro to me, shall receive FIVE POUNDS currency, and whoever can prove his being harboured by a white Person shall be paid TWENTY POUNDS; or if by a Negro TEN POUNDS. All Masters of Vessels and others, are forwarned from carrying off the said Negro. JOHN FITTS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 December 1770]

DYE; mulatto

Fraser, Alexander; Grimke, Frederick

RUN away from the subscriber, a MULATTO WENCH named DYE, formerly the property of Mr. Frederick Grimke, and is supposed to be haboured in town. Whoever apprehends and delivers her to the Warden of the workhouse, shall receive THREE POUNDS reward. Any person giving information of her being haboured, if by a white person TWENTY POUNDS or if by a Negro FIVE POUNDS upon conviction of the offender. ALEXANDER FRASER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 December 1770]

MANWELL; MANUEL?

Hibben, Andrew; Middleton, Mr., estate of; Giles, Mr.

RUN away about three weeks ago, a Negro Fellow named MANWELL about five feet eight inches high, flat faced, his eyes much sunk in his head, speaks inwardly as if he had a cold, had on when he went away, a white negro cloth jacket without buttons, and trowsers of the same; he formerly belonged to the estate of Mr. Middleton near the Indian-land and is supposed to be gone that way, he is very knowing and artful. Whoever will apprehend and bring him to me in Christ Church Parish, or to Mr. GILES at the Ferry in Charlestown, shall receive TWO DOLLARS with reasonable charges from ANDREW HIBBEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 January 1771.]

JACK; translator ( Creek); Indian trade; speaks English & Creek

Stuart, John; Bernard, Edward; Barnard

RAN away on the 12th of January instant, from my plantation on Lady's-Island, a Negro Man named JACK, a short well set Fellow, with a large Beard, and wears Whiskers; had on when he went away, a white Negro Cloth Jacket and Breeches, and wore a Leather Cap, he is an artful, sensible Fellow and speaks the Creek Language tolerably well, he formerly belonged to Mr. Edward Bernard, by whom he used to be employed in the Creek Nation, and it is supposed he is gone towards Augusta, by the Indian Land Road. Whoever will apprehend and deliver the above-mentioned negro to my Overseer at Beaufort, or to me in Charlestown, shall receive FIVE POUNDS Reward, and all reasonable Charges. JOHN STUART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 January 1771.]

JEMMY; JAMES

Brewton, Miles

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 February 1771.]

See JEMMY or JAMES. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 28 February 1771.

GEORGE

Neyle, Sampson

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 March 1771]

See GEORGE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 12 March 1771.

JACK; blind in one eye

Guerard, Godin

RUN AWAY from the subscriber a NEGRO fellow named JACK, lately bought at Hext's sale about thirty five or thirty six years of age, of a yellow complexion, very short, bushy headed, and has but one eye; wore when he went away old white plains, and a large hat flapped, and carried with him a new duffil blanket. It is supposed he is about the Cheehaws, or may attempt to escape to Georgia. Whoever will apprehend the fellow and deliver him to my overseer in St. Bartholomew's parish, or the warden of the work house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of Five Pounds currency. GODIN GUERARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 March 1771.]

JOE

Stuart, John; Murray, Thomas

RUN away from my plantation at Four-Holes, three Negro MEN, viz. JOE about five feet, seven Inches high, thirty Years of Age, stutters, had on a Fearnought Jacket, and white Negro Cloth Trowsers; GEORGE about five feet, eight inches high, is about twenty-five Years old, speaks bad English, had on a white Negro Cloth [jacket?] and red Breeches; SANDY about eighteen Years old, five Feet, eight Inches high, speaks tolerable good English, had on Breeches and Jacket of white Negro Cloth. They all carried their Blankets with them, and were seen going towards the Edisto Road. Whoever takes them up, and delivers them to THOMAS MURRAY on Santee or to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in Charleston shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, and all reasonable Charges. JOHN STUART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

GEORGE

Stuart, John; Murray, Thomas

RUN away from my plantation at Four-Holes, three Negro MEN, viz. JOE about five feet, seven Inches high, thirty Years of Age, stutters, had on a Fearnought Jacket, and white Negro Cloth Trowsers; GEORGE about five feet, eight inches high, is about twenty-five Years old, speaks bad English, had on a white Negro Cloth [jacket?] and red Breeches; SANDY about eighteen Years old, five Feet, eight Inches high, speaks tolerable good English, had on Breeches and Jacket of white Negro Cloth. They all carried their Blankets with them, and were seen going towards the Edisto Road. Whoever takes them up, and delivers them to THOMAS MURRAY on Santee or to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in Charleston shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, and all reasonable Charges. JOHN STUART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

SANDY

Stuart, John; Murray, Thomas

RUN away from my plantation at Four-Holes, three Negro MEN, viz. JOE about five feet, seven Inches high, thirty Years of Age, stutters, had on a Fearnought Jacket, and white Negro Cloth Trowsers; GEORGE about five feet, eight inches high, is about twenty-five Years old, speaks bad English, had on a white Negro Cloth [jacket?] and red Breeches; SANDY about eighteen Years old, five Feet, eight Inches high, speaks tolerable good English, had on Breeches and Jacket of white Negro Cloth. They all carried their Blankets with them, and were seen going towards the Edisto Road. Whoever takes them up, and delivers them to THOMAS MURRAY on Santee or to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in Charleston shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, and all reasonable Charges. JOHN STUART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

HECTOR

Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See HECTOR and MAIDSTONE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 11 April 1771.

MAIDSTONE

Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See HECTOR and MAIDSTONE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 11 April 1771.

CUDJOE; CUDJO

Sinkler, Peter; Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See CUDJOE, JEMMY, LONG JEMMY, RYNAH, VENUS, and her Daughter DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 April 1771.

JEMMY

Sinkler, Peter; Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See CUDJOE, JEMMY, LONG JEMMY, RYNAH, VENUS, and her Daughter DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 April 1771.

JEMMY, LONG; LONG JEMMY

Sinkler, Peter; Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See CUDJOE, JEMMY, LONG JEMMY, RYNAH, VENUS, and her Daughter DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 April 1771.

RYNAH

Sinkler, Peter; Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See CUDJOE, JEMMY, LONG JEMMY, RYNAH, VENUS, and her Daughter DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 April 1771.

VENUS; daughter: Dye

Sinkler, Peter; Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See CUDJOE, JEMMY, LONG JEMMY, RYNAH, VENUS, and her Daughter DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 April 1771.

DYE; mother: Venus

Sinkler, Peter; Sinkler, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

See CUDJOE, JEMMY, LONG JEMMY, RYNAH, VENUS, and her Daughter DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 April 1771.

GEORGE; brother: Tom

Ladson, Thomas; Peters, Mr.; Evans, Stephen

RUN away about a fortnight ago, two NEGRO MEN named George and Tom, belonging to me; they are country born and brothers, and much about the same size, viz. five feet six inches high. George has wife at Mr. Peter's upon Toobodoo, where he may be haboured by the wench, and it is supposed both fellows are together, having runaway at the same time. TWENTY POUNDS reward will be given for each of them delivered to the Warden of the Work House, or to Mr. STEPHEN EVANS at my Plantation on John's Island. THOMAS LADSON. April 15th, 1771.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

TOM; brother: George

Ladson, Thomas; Peters, Mr.; Evans, Stephen

RUN away about a fortnight ago, two NEGRO MEN named George and Tom, belonging to me; they are country born and brothers, and much about the same size, viz. five feet six inches high. George has wife at Mr. Peter's upon Toobodoo, where he may be haboured by the wench, and it is supposed both fellows are together, having runaway at the same time. TWENTY POUNDS reward will be given for each of them delivered to the Warden of the Work House, or to Mr. STEPHEN EVANS at my Plantation on John's Island. THOMAS LADSON. April 15th, 1771.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1771]

KENT; patroon

Mitchell, John; Colleton, Sir John; Giles, John

RUN away, a Negro Fellow named KENT, formerly the property of Sir John Colleton, Bart.; well known in Charlestown, and at most of the publick landings in the province, being formerly employed as a patroon. TEN POUNDS currency reward will be paid to any person who takes up and delivers the said fellow to Mr. JOHN GILES, Merchant, in Charlestown, and TWENTY-FIVE POUND shall be paid to any person giving information of his being harboured by a white person or free mulatto, and TEN POUNDS if harbored by a negro, upon conviction of the offenders, by JOHN MITCHELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 April 1771]

ELIZABETH; cook

De Brahm, W. G [William Gerhard].; Bremar, Mrs.

ABSENTED herself the 16th of April from the subscriber, to prevent her being sold, a Negro COOK WENCH named Elizabeth, formerly the property of Mrs. Bremar; she is this country born, generally cleanly and well dressed; she is about the town frequently seen with a white man. Whoever will bring her to the house of the subscriber before the first day of May next ensuing, or after that date to the Work house, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward. Any person proving by whom said wench is harbored to the conviction of the offender, if a white person, shall have TWENTY POUNDS, and if a negro, TEN POUNDS reward. All commanders of vessels are warned by these [sic] not to harbour or carry off said wench, as she may delude them by forging an order or passport as from her master to go to St. Augustine, otherwise they will be answerable for the consequences. W. G. DE BRAHM.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 April 1771]

LUCY

Fraser, Alexander; Harvey, William

RUN away from the Subscriber, a stout, able fat NEGRO WENCH, named LUCY; this Country born, speaks good English; was formerly the Property of Mr. William Harvey. She has many Relations and Acquaintance about Town and at Wappoo, and it is probable she may be harboured by some of them. Whoever will deliver her to the Warden of the Work-House, or give Information of her being harbored, shall receive Three Pounds Reward. ALEXANDER FRASER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1771]

SARAH; mustee

Miller, Stephen

RUN away from my plantation a MUSTEE WENCH named SARAH, well known in town and country; she is very artful and sensible, when she went off, carried a negro boy with her named HECTOR, about thirteen years of age, who had then irons on. TWENTY POUNDS reward will be given to any person who delivers her to me, or the Warden of the Work-house, and Fifty Pounds to a white person, and Twenty to a negroe, who gives information by whom she is harboured, so that the offender may be brought to justice, being determined to prosecute such with the utmost rigour of the law. STEPHEN MILLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1771]

HECTOR

Miller, Stephen

RUN away from my plantation a MUSTEE WENCH named SARAH, well known in town and country; she is very artful and sensible, when she went off, carried a negro boy with her named HECTOR, about thirteen years of age, who had then irons on. TWENTY POUNDS reward will be given to any person who delivers her to me, or the Warden of the Work-house, and Fifty Pounds to a white person, and Twenty to a negroe, who gives information by whom she is harboured, so that the offender may be brought to justice, being determined to prosecute such with the utmost rigour of the law. STEPHEN MILLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1771]

DYE

Drayton, Stephen

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1771]

See DYE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 16 May 1771.

JOE; mulatto

Roper, William

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation, on Ashley River, in February last, a mulatto man named JOE, well known in and about Charlestown, where it is supposed he is harboured. Whoever will deliver him to the warden of the work-house in Charlestown, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward; or give information of his being harboured, on conviction of the offender, if a white person, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS, and TEN POUNDS, if by a free mulatto or negro, from WILLIAM ROPER. All masters of vessels are cautioned not to carry him off the province, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1771]

WILL

Witter, James; Witter, Benjamin; Dill, John; Macleer, William

RUN away the 27th day of June, a Negro Fellow named WILL, formerly the property of William Macleer on the Saltketcher, late the property of John Dill, but now of the subscriber; he is about five feet ten inches high, black complexion, with whiskers down his temples. Whoever will deliver the said Fellow to the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward from JAMES WITTER, Son of Benjamin.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 June 1771]

PRINCE

Ross, William; Wilkins, Paul; Drayton, John, Jr.

RUN away from the subscriber sometime in December last, a Negro Fellow named PRINCE, purchased last year at Mr. Paul Wilkins's vendue in Prince William's Parish; country born, remarkably in-kneed and about twenty three years of age. He is in company with several others belonging to Mr. John Drayton, jun. and others, who keep in the neighbourhood of Coosawhatchee and the Euhaws. Whoever will deliver the said Fellow to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIFTEEN POUNDS, and all reasonable charges from WILLIAM ROSS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 June 1771]

JOWLER; b. Africa; Mandingo?; Mandinka?; Gambia?

Gaillard, Tacitus; Brewton, [ Miles?]

St. Matthews, June 28th, 1771. MISSING from my plantation, early on Saturday morning the 22d of this month, a NEW NEGRO MAN, purchased from Mr. Brewton the 11th instant; he is of a middling size, pitted with the smallpox, of the Mandingo or Gambia country, his country name is Jowler, had on when he went away, a new check shirt and short osnaburg trowsers, made with a square piece in the seat. As I apprehend some person has conveyed him to the Back settlements, any person giving me information of the said negro being in the possession of any white person, so that he may be got again, on conviction of the offender, shall receive a reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency, and all reasonable charges paid by TACITUS GAILLARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 July 1771]

JOHN

Hinds, Patrick

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 July 1771]

See JOHN in other newspapers.

DARBY; QUACO; QUACKOE; b. Africa; Guinea

Matthews, Edmund; Hinds, Patrick; Pendarves, Joseph; Pendarvis

RUN away from the subscriber on Hilton Head in May last, a thin spare Negro Boy named DARBY, formerly called Quackoe, of the Guinea country, about sixteen years old, had on when he went away, a white negro cloth jacket and trowsers. Any person taking up the said negro, and will deliver him to Mr. PATRICK HINDS in Charlestown, Mr. JOSEPH PENDARVES on the River of May, or to me on Hilton Head, shall receive FIFTEEN POUNDS reward. EDMUND MATTHEWS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 July 1771]

LUCY

Myers, Mordecai

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 August 1771]

See LUCY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 1 November 1770.

JUPITER

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

SAMPSON

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

NERO

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

TOM

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

JOE

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

HOCKEY

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

GEORGE

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

BOB

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

BILLY (one)

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

DICK

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

BILLY (two); wife: Phillis

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

PHILLIS; husband: Billy (two)

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

JUBA; b. Africa; 1 son

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

See JUBEE and her sucking male infant. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772. JOHN AINSLIE.

ANONYMOUS BOY; mother: Juba

Ainslie, John

RUN away from Monck's Corner, on Thursday August 15th, as they were going up to my Plantation at Santee, the following ten NEGRO MEN, viz. Jupiter, Sampson, Nero, Tom, Joe, Hockey, George, Bob, Billy and Dick; also from my said Plantation at Santee, Billy and his Wife Phillis, and Juba with her Child. Whoever shall apprehend all or any of the said Negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Work-House, to any of my overseers, or to me, shall have FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, besides all reasonable Charges. They were all born in this Country, except Juba, are sensible and speak good English. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

See JUBEE and her sucking male infant. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772. JOHN AINSLIE.

PETER

Simpson, Patrick

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Edisto, a NEGRO MAN named Peter, of a yellow complexion, middle aged, about five feet seven inches high, had on a green pea jacket and check shirt, is a sensible, plausible fellow, and talks very proper English. Whoever will apprehend the said runaway, and deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me on Edisto, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges. All masters of vessels are desired to take care of carrying him off the province, as he may pretend he is free, and will probably want a passage to New-York or Philadelphia. PATRICK SIMPSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771]

JACK

Moses, Myer

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 September 1771]

See JACK. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 19 September 1771.

ADAM

Ward, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 October 1771.]

See ADAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 3 October 1771.

PRIMUS

Valk, Jacob

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 October 1771. Supplement.]

See PRIMUS. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 10 October 1771.

MOSES

Huger, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 October 1771.]

See MOSES. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 24 October 1771.

ANDREW

Radcliffe, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 October 1771.]

See ANDREW. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 28 November 1771. Supplement.

TITUS

Gibbon, William

Savannah, Georgia, October 24th, 1771. RUN AWAY a slim black fellow, this country born, named Titus, supposed to be gone towards Santee, as he was taken up there about three months past, he may endeavour to pass as free, being very artful. Whoever takes up the said fellow, and delivers him to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown or Savannah, or to me, shall be rewarded. WILLIAM GIBBON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 November 1771.]

JAMES; b. West Indies; speaks English & French; sailor

Bellinger, Edmund, Jr.

RUN away from on board the subscriber's schooner in Charlestown, sometime in August last, a NEGRO fellow, about twenty or twenty-one years of age, named James, of a black complexion, West India born, speaks good English and French. Whoever will deliver the said fellow to me at Ashepoo, or to the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall receive FOUR GUINEAS reward. EDMUND BELLINGER, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 December 1771.]

JOE*Grimke, John Paul

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1772. Supplement.]

See JOE. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 26 September 1771.

BETTY*Cape, Brian

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 January 1772.]

See BETTY. Continuation of the South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 25 January 1772.

JOE*Skottowe, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 February 1772.]

See JOE in other newspapers.

AMEY*Lowndes, Rawlins

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1772.]

See AMEY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 5 December 1771.

HANNIBAL; fisherman*Haig, George; Himeli, Mrs., estate of

RUN away, a NEGRO MAN a fisherman, named Hannibal, of a yellow complexion, has a remarkable scar on his upper lip like a scald, lately purchased of the estate of Mrs. Himeli, well known in Charlestown and at Cainhoy, at one or other of which places it is supposed he may be harboured. A reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be given for the discovery of his being harboured by a white person, and Twenty Pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offenders; and a further reward of Ten Pounds, with all reasonable charges, to any person that will deliver the said negro to the Warden of the Work-house, or GEORGE HAIG.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1772.]

TOBY; mustee; b. South Carolina; Goose Creek*Evance, Thomas; Evans

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Wambaw swamp, St. James, Santee, on Monday morning the 3d of February instant, TWO SLAVES, one a young mustee fellow named Toby, twenty-four years of age, born at Goose Creek, but has lived at my plantation fifteen years; he has a sheepish, down-cast look, had on white negro cloth, but took all his other cloaths with him, and may alter his dress. The other is a short negro wench, very black, named Betty, born in town, and was bought from Felix Long three years ago for a seamstress; she is well known in and about town, is very cunning and artful, and can tell a plausible story; she carried all her cloaths with her, some of them very good. Whoever delivers the above slaves, or either of them to my overseer on said plantation, or to the Warden of or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward; and I will give FIFTY POUNDS to a white person, and Twenty to a negro, who gives information by whom he or she is harboured, so that the offender may be brought to justice, being determined to prosecute such with the utmost rigour of the law.

THOMAS EVANCE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1772.]

BETTY; b. South Carolina; Charlestown; seamstress*Evance, Thomas; Evans; Long, Felix

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Wambaw swamp, St. James, Santee, on Monday morning the 3d of February instant, TWO SLAVES, one a young mustee fellow named Toby, twenty-four years of age, born at

Goose Creek, but has lived at my plantation fifteen years; he has a sheepish, down-cast look, had on white negro cloth, but took all his other cloaths with him, and may alter his dress. The other is a short negro wench, very black, named Betty, born in town, and was bought from Felix Long three years ago for a seamstress; she is well known in and about town, is very cunning and artful, and can tell a plausible story; she carried all her cloaths with her, some of them very good. Whoever delivers the above slaves, or either of them to my overseer on said plantation, or to the Warden of or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward; and I will give FIFTY POUNDS to a white person, and Twenty to a negro, who gives information by whom he or she is harboured, so that the offender may be brought to justice, being determined to prosecute such with the utmost rigour of the law. THOMAS EVANCE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1772]

SPRING

Ward, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 March 1772.]

See SPRING and MAY. Continuation of the South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 25 January 1772.

MAY

Ward, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 March 1772.]

See SPRING and MAY. Continuation of the South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 25 January 1772.

BANABA

Champneys, John

RUN away from the subscriber, about three weeks ago, a Negro Wench named BANABA, supposed to be harboured by some Jamaica negroes in Charlestown and about eight days ago, a Negro man named CAESAR. Whoever brings either of said Negroes to me shall receive Three Pounds for each. If harboured by a Negro Ten Pounds, if by a White Person Thirty Pounds, upon conviction of the offenders. JOHN CHAMPNEYS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 March 1772.]

See BANABA in other newspapers.

CAESAR

Champneys, John

RUN away from the subscriber, about three weeks ago, a Negro Wench named BANABA, supposed to be harboured by some Jamaica negroes in Charlestown and about eight days ago, a Negro man named CAESAR. Whoever brings either of said Negroes to me shall receive Three Pounds for each. If harboured by a Negro Ten Pounds, if by a White Person Thirty Pounds, upon conviction of the offenders. JOHN CHAMPNEYS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 March 1772]

ROBERT; BOB; mulatto; lived North Carolina; carpenter; cooper; hunter

Campbell, Farquhar; Farqhard

RUN away from the subscriber in North-Carolina, Cumberland County, on or about the 14th of December last, a MULATTO MAN named Bob, otherwise Robert, about five feet eight inches high, stout made, some parts of his face appear blacker than others, has a small speck about the bigness of a pin's head on his lower lip; he understands carpenter's and cooper's work, and is a remarkable good hunter. He had with him when he went away, a rifle gun, a small (?) bay horse, saddle and bridle. Whoever apprehends said fellow, and brings him to me in Cumberland County aforesaid, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS PROCLAMATION MONEY reward, besides all reasonable charges. It is supposed he has procured a pass for himself, and that he will pretend to be a free man, and it is suspected he is gone to the southward. FARQUHARD CAMPBELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 March 1772.]

BESS

Pinckney, Roger; Rutledge, John

RUN away from the Subscriber's Plantation in St. Andrew's on Sunday the 23d of February last a NEGRO WOMAN named Bess. She is a strong able bodied wench, of a yellowish complexion, her nose inclinable to the aquiline and about 30 years of age, she was decoyed away by a fellow named BERWICK who run away from Captain George Dick at Georgetown where he was sent to be sold. Berwick is a very remarkable negro, he formerly belonged to Cholmondely Dering, and has been crop'd and I believe branded; he is six feet high or thereabouts, of a black complexion, raw boned, and about forty five years of age. The above negroes were seen passing through Ponpon on Monday morning following, each on horseback with their cloaths, blankets, and pots; it is imagined they are either gone to the plantation of John Rutledge, Esq; who has the mother and brother of BESS, or to Georgia where they said they were going. Any person apprehending the above negroes and delivering them to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency for each, exclusive of the sum allowed by law for apprehending run away negroes. ROGER PINCKNEY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 March 1772]

BERWICK; branded; mutilated

Pinckney, Roger; Dick, George, Captain; Dering, Cholmondely; Dearing

RUN away from the Subscriber's Plantation in St. Andrew's on Sunday the 23d of February last a NEGRO WOMAN named Bess. She is a strong able bodied wench, of a yellowish complexion, her nose inclinable to the acquiline and about 30 years of age, she was decoyed away by a fellow named BERWICK who run away from Captain George Dick at Georgetown where he was sent to be sold. Berwick is a very remarkable negro, he formerly belonged to Cholmondely Dering, and has been crop'd and I believe branded; he is six feet high or thereabouts, of a black complexion, raw boned, and about forty five years of age. The above negroes were seen passing through Ponpon on Monday morning following, each on horseback with their cloaths, blankets, and pots; it is imagined they are either gone to the plantation of John Rutledge, Esq; who has the mother and brother of BESS, or to Georgia where they said they were going. Any person apprehending the above negroes and delivering them to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency for each, exclusive of the sum allowed by law for apprehending run away negroes. ROGER PINCKNEY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 March 1772]

See BERWICK in other newspapers.

RAMSGATE; son: George

Walter, Richard; Himeli, Mrs., estate of; Delahowe, Mrs.

RUN away from my plantation, the 16th of February last, TWO sensible NEGRO MEN named Ramsgate and George, they were lately the property of the estate of Mrs. Himeli; Ramsgate is an elderly fellow about fifty years old, and had on when he went away, a green waistcoat, white negro cloth great coat and blue trowsers; George is a son of the old fellow, he is stout, well made, about thirty years old, and about five feet ten inches high; he had on when he went away, a green robing, blue waistcoat and blue trowsers; George has a wife in Charlestown who belongs to Mrs. Delahowe, who I suppose harbours them in said town. I do hereby offer a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency and all reasonable charges, for each of them, to any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me in Dorchester; and also a further reward to any person that will give information by whom they are harboured, if by a negro TEN POUNDS, or if by a white person FIFTY POUNDS, to be paid on conviction of the offender. RICHARD WALTER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1772]

GEORGE; father: Ramsgate

Walter, Richard; Himeli, Mrs., estate of; Delahowe, Mrs.

RUN away from my plantation, the 16th of February last, TWO sensible NEGRO MEN named Ramsgate and George, they were lately the property of the estate of Mrs. Himeli; Ramsgate is an elderly fellow about fifty years old, and had on when he went away, a green waistcoat, white negro cloth great coat and blue trowsers; George is a son of the old fellow, he is stout, well made, about thirty years old, and about five feet ten inches high; he had on when he went away, a green robing, blue waistcoat and blue trowsers; George has a wife in Charlestown who belongs to Mrs. Delahowe, who I suppose harbours them in said town. I do hereby offer a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency and all reasonable charges, for each of them, to any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me in Dorchester; and also a further reward to any person that will give information by whom they are harboured, if by a negro TEN POUNDS, or if by a white person FIFTY POUNDS, to be paid on conviction of the offender. RICHARD WALTER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1772]

FRANK; mulatto; shoemaker

Nichols, Isaac, estate of; Fletcher, Henry; Perry, Josiah

RUN away, a MULATTO MAN by name FRANK, belonging to the estate of Isaac Nichols, a SHOEMAKER by trade, was at work with Mr. Henry Fletcher when he went away, carried several suits of cloaths with him, and his shoemaking tools, and is thought will make for the back parts of this province and pass for a free man; he is about five feet eight inches high, has a down look: TEN POUNDS currency will be paid by me to any person that will take up and deliver the said Mulatto man to me or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency will be paid by me to any person that will give information of the said Mulatto man being harboured by any white man, on conviction of the offender. JOSIAH PERRY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1772]

YORK

Wayne, Richard

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1772]

See YORK in other newspapers..

JACK

Fabian, Joseph

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

See JACK in other newspapers.

TOM

Ainslie, John

RUN away about the 20th of March, four NEGRO MEN, named Tom, Hocky, Frank and Jupiter, the two last had Irons upon their legs when they went off. Whoever takes them up and brings them to me or the warden of the workhouse, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges. About a twelve month ago, a negro woman named JUBEE, very short, her eyes remarkably large and set out, with her sucking male child, absented herself from my Santee plantation, and supposed to be taken up by a waggoner and carried into the back country. Whoever will give me such information that the said wench and child may be recovered and the person who carries them off punished, shall have TWENTY POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

See TOM, HOCKY, and JUPITER in other newspapers.

HOCKY

Ainslie, John

RUN away about the 20th of March, four NEGRO MEN, named Tom, Hocky, Frank and Jupiter, the two last had Irons upon their legs when they went off. Whoever takes them up and brings them to me or the warden of the workhouse, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges. About a twelve month ago, a negro woman named JUBEE, very short, her eyes remarkably large and set out, with her sucking male child, absented herself from my Santee plantation, and supposed to be taken up by a waggoner and carried into the back country. Whoever will give me such information that the said wench and child may be recovered and the person who carries them off punished, shall have TWENTY POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

See also, TOM, HOCKY, and JUPITER in other newspapers.

FRANK

Ainslie, John

RUN away about the 20th of March, four NEGRO MEN, named Tom, Hocky, Frank and Jupiter, the two last had Irons upon their legs when they went off. Whoever takes them up and brings them to me or the warden of the workhouse, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges. About a twelve month ago, a negro woman named JUBEE, very short, her eyes remarkably large and set out, with her sucking male child, absented herself from my Santee plantation, and supposed to be taken up by a waggoner and carried into the back country. Whoever will give me such information that the said wench and child may be recovered and the person who carries them off punished, shall have TWENTY POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

JUPITER

Ainslie, John

RUN away about the 20th of March, four NEGRO MEN, named Tom, Hocky, Frank and Jupiter, the two last had Irons upon their legs when they went off. Whoever takes them up and brings them to me or the warden of the workhouse, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges. About a twelve month ago, a negro woman named JUBEE, very short, her eyes remarkably large and set out, with her sucking male child, absented herself from my Santee plantation, and supposed to be taken up by a waggoner and carried into the back country. Whoever will give me such information that the said wench and child may be recovered and the person who carries them off punished, shall have TWENTY POUNDS reward, a all reasonable charges. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

See also, TOM, HOCKY, and JUPITER in other newspapers.

JUBEE; JUBA; b. Africa; 1 son

Ainslie, John

RUN away about the 20th of March, four NEGRO MEN, named Tom, Hocky, Frank and Jupiter, the two last had Irons upon their legs when they went off. Whoever takes them up and brings them to me or the warden of the workhouse, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges. About a twelve month ago, a negro woman named JUBEE, very short, her eyes remarkably large and set out, with her sucking male child, absented herself from my Santee plantation, and supposed to be taken up by a waggoner and carried into the back country. Whoever will give me such information that the said wench and child may be recovered and the person who carries them off punished, shall have TWENTY POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

See Juba with her child. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771.

ANONYMOUS MALE CHILD; mother: Juba, Jubee

Ainslie, John

RUN away about the 20th of March, four NEGRO MEN, named Tom, Hocky, Frank and Jupiter, the two last had Irons upon their legs when they went off. Whoever takes them up and brings them to me or the warden of the workhouse, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges. About a twelve month ago, a negro woman named JUBEE, very short, her eyes remarkably large and set out, with her sucking male child, absented herself from my Santee plantation, and supposed to be taken up by a waggoner and carried into the back country. Whoever will give me such information that the said wench and child may be recovered and the person who carries them off punished, shall have TWENTY POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges. JOHN AINSLIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772.]

See Juba with her child. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1771.

CAPTAIN; lived West Indies; Jamaica

Witter, James; Hughes, Hugh; Rivers, John

RUN away from the subscriber on James-Island, the 14th of March instant, a NEGRO MAN named Captain, late the property of Mr. Hugh Hughes from Jamaica, and sold at publick vendue in Charlestown; he had on a blue negro cloth jacket and trowsers, and carried with him a white negro cloth jacket and trowsers. TWO DOLLARS reward will be paid to any one what will deliver the said negro to me on James Island, or to Mr. JOHN RIVERS, jun. in town. I forewarn all masters of vessels from carrying off the said negro at their peril as I am determined to make an example of such. JAMES WITTER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772.]

CHLOE; CLOE

Swindershim, Nicholas; Miles, Jeremiah; Ladson, Zechariah

RUN away from Mr. Nicholas Swindershim on the 2d of January 1772, a NEGRO WENCH named Cloe, this country born, about thirty-five years of age; she had on when she went away, a blue wrapper and petticoat of the same; she was formerly the property of Mr. Andrew Stewart, who formerly lived at the Horse-Shoe. Whoever takes up the said negro wench, and brings her to me at Ashepoo, at Mr. Jeremiah Miles's plantation, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges; but if the said wench will come to me as she is my property now, all faults shall be forgiven her. ZECHARIAH LADSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1772]

POMPEY; mutilated*Kershaw, Eli; Ely Kershaw & Co.; Shackleford, William; Ancrum, William; Loock, Aaron

Cheraws, March 26, 1772. RAN away from the Subscribers Boat about a Month ago, near Georgetown, a lusty NEGRO MAN named POMPEY, speaks bad English, has lost the first joint of one of his Fore-fingers; he had on when he absented himself a white Negro Cloth Jacket, Breeches and Boots. Any Person that will apprehend the said Negro and deliver him to Mr. William Shackleford in Georgetown, to William Ancrum & Aaron Loock in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber, shall receive TEN POUNDS Reward and all reasonable Charges. ELY KERSHAW & CO.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1772]

JACOB; b. South Carolina; carpenter*Mathews, John; Matthews

RAN away from my Plantation at Ashepoo joining the Fish Pond Bridge, the two following NEGROES, viz.

JACOB, of a yellowish Complexion, about five Feet nine or ten Inches high; he is a Carpenter by Trade, and a Native of this Province. It is most probable he is somewhere about Jacksonborough, near which Place he has lived for ten or twelve years past, where he has a very general acquaintance, and was but lately removed from thence, The other is a tall stout black Fellow named MONDAY, about six Feet high, has been in the Province five or six Years, but of what Country originally is not known; he was lately the Property of Mr. John Miller of [illegible], by whom he was purchased a new Negro, and with whom he lived until about eighteen Months ago, when he was purchased at one of the Provost-Marshall's Sales, to which Part of the Country it is most natural to suppose he is returned. Whoever will apprehend either or both of the said Negroes and deliver them or either of them to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to my Overseer at Ashepoo, shall receive a Reward of TEN POUNDS for each of them. JOHN MATHEWS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1772]

MONDAY; b. Africa*Mathews, John; Matthews; Miller, John

RAN away from my Plantation at Ashepoo joining the Fish Pond Bridge, the two following NEGROES, viz. JACOB, of a yellowish Complexion, about five Feet nine or ten Inches high; he is a Carpenter by Trade, and a Native of this Province. It is most probable he is somewhere about Jacksonborough, near which Place he has lived for ten or twelve years past, where he has a very general acquaintance, and was but lately removed from thence, The other is a tall stout black Fellow named MONDAY, about six Feet high, has been in the Province five or six Years, but of what Country originally is not known; he was lately the Property of Mr. John Miller of by whom he was purchased a new Negro, and with whom he lived until about eighteen Months ago, when he was purchased at one of the Provost-Marshall's Sales, to which Part of the Country it is most natural to suppose he is returned. Whoever will apprehend either or both of the said Negroes and deliver them or either of them to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to my Overseer at Ashepoo, shall receive a Reward of TEN POUNDS for each of them. JOHN MATHEWS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1772]

JACK*Grant, Hector

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1772.]

See JACK in other newspapers.

FODEE*Savage, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772.]

See FODEE and MAMBEE, South-Carolina Gazette Extraordinary (Powell & Co.), 10 August 1772.

MAMBEE*Savage, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772.]

See FODEE and MAMBEE, South-Carolina Gazette Extraordinary (Powell & Co.), 10 August 1772.

JAMES; mulatto; sailor

Moncrieffe, Mr.; Bachop, Captain; Byrd, William, Col.; Levy, Joseph; Rose, Alexander

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD, For the following RUNAWAY, viz. JAMES, a likely, young MULATTO MAN, the Property of Mr. Moncrieffe, of St. Augustine, and arrived here lately with Capt. Bachop. He formerly belonged to Col. William Byrd of Virginia, was brought to (?) by Mr. Joseph Levy, and now pretends that he is free. He is artful and sensible, and will endeavour to ship himself as a Seaman; All Masters of Vessels are therefore hereby cautioned not to carry him off the Province. TWENTY POUNDS Reward will be given for apprehending and delivering him to me or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, besides all reasonable Charges; and a further Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, on Discovery of his being harboured or concealed by a white Person, to be paid on Conviction by ALEXANDER ROSE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772.]

SAM

Young, Benjamin

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772.]

See SAM and HENRY. South-Carolina Gazette (Powell, Hughes, & Co.). 4 June 1772.

HENRY

Young, Benjamin

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]

See SAM and HENRY. South-Carolina Gazette (Powell, Hughes, & Co.). 4 June 1772

ANONYMOUS MAN ONE; b. Africa; Gambia

Mitchell, John

RUN away from my waggon about the 18th of June, 1771, TWO NEW NEGRO MEN, of the GAMBIA country, cannot tell their master's name; they went away seven miles north of Lynch's Creek. FIVE POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person who delivers them to me at Meldrum near the Cheraws. FIFTY POUNDS reward for information by whom harboured, on proof thereof, if a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro or any other colour, free or bound. JOHN MITCHELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]

ANONYMOUS MAN TWO; b. Africa; Gambia

Mitchell, John

RUN away from my waggon about the 18th of June, 1771, TWO NEW NEGRO MEN, of the GAMBIA country, cannot tell their master's name; they went away seven miles north of Lynch's Creek. FIVE POUNDS reward, and all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person who delivers them to me at Meldrum near the Cheraws. FIFTY POUNDS reward for information by whom harboured, on proof thereof, if a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro or any other colour, free or bound. JOHN MITCHELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]

JULY

Tonge, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]

MALE CHILD, (CHARLES) in other newspapers; owner, William Flud.

See JULY, KATE, SOPHY, and a NEGRO

KATE

Tonge, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]

MALE CHILD, (CHARLES) in other newspapers; owner, William Flud.

See JULY, KATE, SOPHY, and a NEGRO

SOPHY

Tonge, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]

MALE CHILD, (CHARLES) in other newspapers; owner, William Flud.

See JULY, KATE, SOPHY, and a NEGRO

CHARLES

Tonge, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1772]
MALE CHILD, (CHARLES) in other newspapers; owner, William Flud.

See JULY, KATE, SOPHY, and a NEGRO

ELSEY; SALLY; mestizo; seamstress; cook; laundress; ironer

Postell, Andrew; M'Pherson, Isaac

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber in Prince William's Parish on the 14th of August last, a likely young sensible, stout made, this Country born MESTIZOE WOMAN named Elsey, but it is likely she may change her Name to some other, as she lately did in Charlestown by the name of Sally, and said she was free. She is a very good Seamstress, Cook, washer, and ironer. Any Person that will deliver her to me at my Plantation, or Mr. Isaac M'Pherson in St. Paul's, or to the warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a Reward of FIVE POUNDS and all reasonable Charges. All Masters of Vessels are forbid carrying her off the Province, and Persons in Town from hiring her as free, under the Pain of being prosecuted according to the utmost Rigour of the Law, by ANDREW POSTELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 September 1772]

BOB; waiting-man

Calcott, Wellins; Scott, John

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. ABSENTED from his Master's Service the 26th Day of September last, a YOUNG NEGRO FELLOW about twenty Years of Age, named BOB: he did belong to John Scott, Esq; Attorney at Law in Charlestown, and now to WELLINS CALCOTT, Esq; in Meeting-street, Charlestown. He is a likely Fellow, five Feet and about eight Inches high, and walks very upright: He had on when he went away a black Crape short Coat, a flowered Linen Waistcoat, Linen Breeches and Thread Stockings, and wore a round Hat or one with a Gold Button and Loop. As he went away for a small Fault, if he returns he may depend upon being forgiven; or, whoever shall apprehend and bring him Home to his said master in Meeting street, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS Reward and all reasonable Charges. Any Person harbouring or entertaining him will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity of the Law; and any one who will give Information of such as have harboured him, or do harbour or entertain him, shall be handsomely rewarded by his said Master. It is possible, if he is gone into the Country, he may pretend to be free; and as he is well qualified for it, may attempt at a Distance to hire himself as a Waiting-Man, the station in which he has always been employed; the Publick are therefore hereby cautioned against such a Deception and all Masters of Vessels are hereby warned not to carry off the said Negro at their Peril. He is supposed to be harboured in the Kitchens or back Buildings of some Gentleman in or near Charlestown as his acquaintance among Gentlemen's Waiting-Men is very general. Charlestown, October 3d, 1772.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 October 1772]

PRINCE

Price, Samuel

RUN away from the Subscriber living in Savannah in Georgia, TWO NEGROES, one named Prince, about six Feet high, talks plain English, but no Marks; the other named Joseph, a short Negro, has lost some of his fore teeth, brought up in James Island: FOURTEEN POUNDS Reward will be given to whoever takes them up, and delivers them to the Warden of the Work-house, or to SAMUEL PRICE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 October 1772]

JOSEPH; b. South Carolina; James Island

Price, Samuel

RUN away from the Subscriber living in Savannah in Georgia, TWO NEGROES, one named Prince, about six Feet high, talks plain English, but no Marks; the other named Joseph, a short Negro, has lost some of his fore teeth, brought up in James Island: FOURTEEN POUNDS Reward will be given to whoever takes them up, and delivers them to the Warden of the Work-house, or to SAMUEL PRICE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 October 1772]

DIBBEE; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Timine; Temne; Gold Coast; filed teeth; branded

Savage, John; Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, SIX NEW NEGRO MEN; one of them went off in February last, viz. Dibbee, a well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, of the Timine country, his ears bored and his teeth filed, seems about twenty-five years of age and very black. Three went off the 23rd of March last, viz. Sampson, a stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, remarkable smooth face and cheerful countenance; Primus, a stout square set fellow, very big mouth and thick lips, has his country marks on the calves of his legs, is about five feet six inches high; both these are very black, and seem about twenty-six years of age; Mambee, a likely young fellow, about twenty-three years of age, smooth faced and very black, about five feet four inches high, has a small cut in his forehead; these last three were also of the Gold Coast country. The last two went off about the 20th of April last, viz. Cuffie, a well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is blink eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, hath his country marks on his breast and a cut on his forehead, his teeth filed; Tom, a small fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced, and think his teeth are filed; these two are also very black, and about twenty-five years of age, and of the Gold Coast country. Dibbee, Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had each on an iron clog on one leg, and Primus, Cuffie and Mambee are all branded on the left cheek IS, and all six are branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though in some scarce visible; Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, and metal buttons; the other three had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and breeches, with tanned leather buttons. A Reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering all or any of the above-mentioned slaves to Mr. WILLIAM EDWARDS, Sadler in Charlestown, or to the subscriber and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. June 14th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 August 1773]

See MAMBEE in other newspapers.

SAMPSON; SAMSON; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Gold Coast; branded
Savage, John; Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, SIX NEW NEGRO MEN; one of them went off in February last, viz. Dibbee, a well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, of the Timine country, his ears bored and his teeth filed, seems about twenty-five years of age and very black. Three went off the 23rd of March last, viz. Sampson, a stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, remarkable smooth face and cheerful countenance; Primus, a stout square set fellow, very big mouth and thick lips, has his country marks on the calves of his legs, is about five feet six inches high; both these are very black, and seem about twenty-six years of age; Mambee, a likely young fellow, about twenty-three years of age, smooth faced and very black, about five feet four inches high, has a small cut in his forehead; these last three were also of the Gold Coast country. The last two went off about the 20th of April last, viz. Cuffie, a well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is blink eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, hath his country marks on his breast and a cut on his forehead, his teeth filed; Tom, a small fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced, and think his teeth are filed; these two are also very black, and about twenty-five years of age, and of the Gold Coast country. Dibbee, Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had each on an iron clog on one leg, and Primus, Cuffie and Mambee are all branded on the left cheek IS, and all six are branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though in some scarce visible; Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, and metal buttons; the other three had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and breeches, with tanned leather buttons. A Reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering all or any of the above-mentioned slaves to Mr. WILLIAM EDWARDS, Sadler in Charlestown, or to the subscriber and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. June 14th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 August 1773]

PRIMUS; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Gold Coast; branded; ritual scarification
Savage, John; Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, SIX NEW NEGRO MEN; one of them went off in February last, viz. Dibbee, a well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, of the Timine country, his ears bored and his teeth filed, seems about twenty-five years of age and very black. Three went off the 23rd of March last, viz. Sampson, a stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, remarkable smooth face and cheerful countenance; Primus, a stout square set fellow, very big mouth and thick lips, has his country marks on the calves of his legs, is about five feet six inches high; both these are very black, and seem about twenty-six years of age; Mambee, a likely young fellow, about twenty-three years of age, smooth faced and very black, about five feet four inches high, has a small cut in his forehead; these last three were also of the Gold Coast country. The last two went off about the 20th of April last, viz. Cuffie, a well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is blink eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, hath his country marks on his breast and a cut on his forehead, his teeth filed; Tom, a small fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced, and think his teeth are filed; these two are also very black, and about twenty-five years of age, and of the Gold Coast country. Dibbee, Primus, Cuffee and Mambee, had each on an iron clog on one leg, and Primus, Cuffie and Mambee are all branded on the left cheek IS, and all six are branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though in some scarce visible; Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, and metal buttons; the other three had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and breeches, with tanned leather buttons. A Reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering all or any of the above-mentioned slaves to Mr. WILLIAM EDWARDS, Sadler in Charlestown, or to the subscriber and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. June 14th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 August 1773]

MAMBEE; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Gold Coast; branded
Savage, John; Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, SIX NEW NEGRO MEN; one of them went off in February last, viz. Dibbee, a well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, of the Timine country, his ears bored and his teeth filed, seems about twenty-five years of age and very black. Three went off the 23rd of March last, viz. Sampson, a stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, remarkable smooth face and cheerful countenance; Primus, a stout square set fellow, very big mouth and thick lips, has his country marks on the calves of his legs, is about five feet six inches high; both these are very black, and seem about twenty-six years of age; Mambee, a likely young fellow, about twenty-three years of age, smooth faced and very black, about five feet four inches high, has a small cut in his forehead; these last three were also of the Gold Coast country. The last two went off about the 20th of April last, viz. Cuffie, a well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is blink eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, hath his country marks on his breast and a cut on his forehead, his teeth filed; Tom, a small fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced, and think his teeth are filed; these two are also very black, and about twenty-five years of age, and of the Gold Coast country. Dibbee, Primus, Cuffee and Mambee, had each on an iron clog on one leg, and Primus, Cuffie and Mambee are all branded on the left cheek IS, and all six are branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though in some scarce visible; Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, and metal buttons; the other three had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and breeches, with tanned leather buttons. A Reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering all or any of the above-mentioned slaves to Mr. WILLIAM EDWARDS, Sadler in Charlestown, or to the subscriber and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. June 14th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 August 1773]

See MAMBEE in other newspapers.

CUFFEE; CUFFIE; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Gold Coast; ritual scarification; filed teeth; branded
Savage, John; Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, SIX NEW NEGRO MEN; one of them went off in February last, viz. Dibbee, a well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, of the Timine country, his ears bored and his teeth filed, seems about twenty-five years of age and very black. Three went off the 23rd of March last, viz. Sampson, a stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, remarkable smooth face and cheerful countenance; Primus, a stout square set fellow, very big mouth and thick lips, has his country marks on the calves of his legs, is about five feet six inches high; both these are very black, and seem about twenty-six years of age; Mambee, a likely young fellow, about twenty-three years of age, smooth faced and very black, about five feet four inches high, has a small cut in his forehead; these last three were also of the Gold Coast country. The last two went off about the 20th of April last, viz. Cuffie, a well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is blink eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, hath his country marks on his breast and a cut on his forehead, his teeth filed; Tom, a small fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced, and think his teeth are filed; these two are also very black, and about twenty-five years of age, and of the Gold Coast country. Dibbee, Primus, Cuffee and Mambee, had each on an iron clog on one leg, and Primus, Cuffie and Mambee are all branded on the left cheek IS, and all six are branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though in some scarce visible; Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, and metal buttons; the other three had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and breeches, with tanned leather buttons. A Reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering all or any of the above-mentioned slaves to Mr. WILLIAM EDWARDS, Sadler in Charlestown, or to the subscriber and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. June 14th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 August 1773]

TOM; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Gold Coast; filed teeth; branded
Savage, John; Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, SIX NEW NEGRO MEN; one of them went off in February last, viz. Dibbee, a well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, of the Timine country, his ears bored and his teeth filed, seems about twenty-five years of age and very black. Three went off the 23rd of March last, viz. Sampson, a stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, remarkable smooth face and cheerful countenance; Primus, a stout square set fellow, very big mouth and thick lips, has his country marks on the calves of his legs, is about five feet six inches high; both these are very black, and seem about twenty-six years of age; Mambee, a likely young fellow, about twenty-three years of age, smooth faced and very black, about five feet four inches high, has a small cut in his forehead; these last three were also of the Gold Coast country. The last two went off about the 20th of April last, viz. Cuffie, a well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is blink eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, hath his country marks on his breast and a cut on his forehead, his teeth filed; Tom, a small fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced, and think his teeth are filed; these two are also very black, and about twenty-five years of age, and of the Gold Coast country. Dibbee, Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had each on an iron clog on one leg, and Primus, Cuffie and Mambee are all branded on the left cheek IS, and all six are branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though in some scarce visible; Primus, Cuffie and Mambee, had on white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, and metal buttons; the other three had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and breeches, with tanned leather buttons. A Reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering all or any of the above-mentioned slaves to Mr. WILLIAM EDWARDS, Sadler in Charlestown, or to the subscriber and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. June 14th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 August 1773]

SAM; b. Africa; Angola; filed teeth
Hyne, Edmund; Beresford, Richard (d)

RUN away from the subscriber in October last, a NEGRO MAN of the Angola country, named Sam, about five feet eight or nine inches high, his teeth filed, late the property of Richard Beresford, Esq; deceased. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow, and deliver him to the subscriber, or to the warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward. EDMUND HYRNE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773.]

SOMERSET
Laurens, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773.]

See SOMERSET, LIMUS, and MARK. South-Carolina Gazette (Powell & Co.). 27 September 1773.

LIMUS
Laurens, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

See SOMERSET, LIMUS, and MARK. South-Carolina Gazette (Powell & Co.). 27 September 1773.

MARK
Laurens, James

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

See SOMERSET, LIMUS, and MARK. South-Carolina Gazette (Powell & Co.). 27 September 1773.

JULY; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification
Dupont, Josiah; Channing, John; Brisbane, Mr.

RUN away from the plantation of JOHN CHANNING, Esq, near Savannah, about twelve months ago, THREE NEGRO MEN, viz. July, a black fellow, of the Guinea country, almost six feet high, with his country marks on his cheeks; Luke, a well-built Fellow, of the Fullah country, about five feet eight inches high, and of a yellow complexion; Will, a black fellow, of the Guinea country, about six feet high, with his country marks on his cheek, and a blemish in one eye. None of them can tell their master's name, and it is supposed they are harboured at Mr.

Brisbane's plantation on Wright's Neck, where they were once before taken. TWENTY SHILLINGS STERLING Reward will be given for each or any of them delivered to me on Argyle Island in Georgia, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOSIAH DUPONT. October 8th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

LUKE; b. Africa; Fullah

Dupont, Josiah; Channing, John; Brisbane, Mr.

RUN away from the plantation of JOHN CHANNING, Esq, near Savannah, about twelve months ago, THREE NEGRO MEN, viz. July, a black fellow, of the Guinea country, almost six feet high, with his country marks on his cheeks; Luke, a well-built Fellow of the Fullah country, about five feet eight inches high, and of a yellow complexion; Will, a black fellow, of the Guinea country, about six feet high, with his country marks on his cheek, and a blemish in one eye. None of them can tell their master's name, and it is supposed they are harboured at Mr. Brisbane's plantation on Wright's Neck, where they were once before taken. TWENTY SHILLINGS STERLING Reward will be given for each or any of them delivered to me on Argyle Island in Georgia, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOSIAH DUPONT. October 8th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

WILL; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification

Dupont, Josiah; Channing, John; Brisbane, Mr.

RUN away from the plantation of JOHN CHANNING, Esq, near Savannah, about twelve months ago, THREE NEGRO MEN, viz. July, a black fellow, of the Guinea country, almost six feet high, with his country marks on his cheeks; Luke, a well-built Fellow of the Fullah country, about five feet eight inches high, and of a yellow complexion; Will, a black fellow, of the Guinea country, about six feet high, with his country marks on his cheek, and a blemish in one eye. None of them can tell their master's name, and it is supposed they are harboured at Mr. Brisbane's plantation on Wright's Neck, where they were once before taken. TWENTY SHILLINGS STERLING Reward will be given for each or any of them delivered to me on Argyle Island in Georgia, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOSIAH DUPONT. October 8th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

CHARLES

Campbell, Colin; Izard, Ralph; Dupont, Josiah

RUN away from the plantation of COLLIN CAMPBELL, Esq; near Savannah, (three?) sensible country born NEGRO MEN, viz. Charles, a black fellow, about six feet high; Isaac, a black fellow, about five feet and a half high, with a long bushy head of hair; Scipio, of a yellow complexion, also with long hair, about six feet high. It is supposed they are about Mr. Izard's plantation at Indian Land, from whence they were removed. FORTY SHILLINGS STERLING Reward will be given for each of them delivered to me in Argyle Island, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown. JOSIAH DUPONT. October 8th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

ISAAC

Campbell, Colin; Izard, Ralph; Dupont, Josiah

RUN away from the plantation of COLLIN CAMPBELL, Esq; near Savannah, (three?) sensible country born NEGRO MEN, viz. Charles, a black fellow, about six feet high; Isaac, a black fellow, about five feet and a half high, with a long bushy head of hair; Scipio, of a yellow complexion, also with long hair, about six feet high. It is supposed they are about Mr. Izard's plantation at Indian Land, from whence they were removed. FORTY SHILLINGS STERLING Reward will be given for each of them delivered to me in Argyle Island, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown. JOSIAH DUPONT. October 8th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

SCIPIO

Campbell, Colin; Izard, Ralph; Dupont, Josiah

RUN away from the plantation of COLLIN CAMPBELL, Esq; near Savannah, (three?) sensible country born NEGRO MEN, viz. Charles, a black fellow, about six feet high; Isaac, a black fellow, about five feet and a half high, with a long busny head of hair; Scipio, of a yellow complexion, also with long hair, about six feet high. It is supposed they are about Mr. Izard's plantation at Indian Land, from whence they were removed. FORTY SHILLINGS STERLING Reward will be given for each of them delivered to me in Argyle Island, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown. JOSIAH DUPONT. October 8th, 1773.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 December 1773]

ANDREW

Valk, Jacob; Gaillard, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 January 1774]

See ANDREW and AFFEY, by John Gaillard. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 21 March 1771.

AFFEY

Valk, Jacob; Gaillard, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 January 1774]

See ANDREW and AFFEY, by John Gaillard. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 21 March 1771.

BEN

Cummings, Janet

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

See BEN. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 11 April 1771.

BETTY

Tidyman, Phillip

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

See BETTY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 14 March 1774.

SALISBURY

Smith, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

See SALISBURY in other newspapers.

ROBIN

Deas, David; Mayrant, Mr.; Yerworth, Mr.; Horry, Jonah

TEN POUNDS REWARD for EACH OF the Four following RUNAWAYS, viz. Robin, a well made Fellow about 35 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, country born, purchased at Mr. Mayrant's sale. Colin, a well set and very black fellow; smooth-faced, about 23 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height, his legs remarkably thick made, of the Guinea country; Robin and he are supposed to be harboured about Wambaw swamp, and have been out several months. Hector, of the Guiney country, square shouldered, black complexion, 5 feet 6 inches high, and about 37 years old, has a very sullen look; he belonged formerly to Mr. Yerworth, shipbuilder. Jemmy, a slim fellow, country born, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very black, with a down look, about 30 years of age. The last two have been absent from their duty since the first of October. Whoever takes up the said Runaways and delivers them to Mr. Jonah Horry at Washaw plantation, Santee, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have Ten Pounds Reward for each, besides the Mileage agreeable to law. DAVID DEAS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774.]

COLIN; b. Africa; Guinea

Deas, David; Mayrant, Mr.; Yerworth, Mr.; Horry, Jonah

TEN POUNDS REWARD for EACH OF the Four following RUNAWAYS, viz. Robin, a well made Fellow about 35 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, country born, purchased at Mr. Mayrant's sale. Colin, a well set and very black fellow; smooth-faced, about 23 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height, his legs remarkably thick made, of the Guinea country; Robin and he are supposed to be harboured about Wambaw swamp, and have been out several months. Hector, of the Guiney country, square shouldered, black complexion, 5 feet 6 inches high, and about 37 years old, has a very sullen look; he belonged formerly to Mr. Yerworth, shipbuilder. Jemmy, a slim fellow, country born, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very black, with a down look, about 30 years of age. The last two have been absent from their duty since the first of October. Whoever takes up the said Runaways and delivers them to Mr. Jonah Horry at Washaw plantation, Santee, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have Ten Pounds Reward for each, besides the Mileage agreeable to law. DAVID DEAS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774.]

HECTOR; b. Africa; Guinea*Deas, David; Mayrant, Mr.; Yerworth, Mr.; Horry, Jonah

TEN POUNDS REWARD for EACH OF the Four following RUNAWAYS, viz. Robin, a well made Fellow about 35 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, country born, purchased at Mr. Mayrant's sale. Colin, a well set and very black fellow; smooth-faced, about 23 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height, his legs remarkably thick made, of the Guinea country; Robin and he are supposed to be harboured about Wambaw swamp, and have been out several months. Hector, of the Guiney country, square shouldered, black complexion, 5 feet 6 inches high, and about 37 years old, has a very sullen look; he belonged formerly to Mr. Yerworth, shipbuilder. Jemmy, a slim fellow, country born, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very black, with a down look, about 30 years of age. The last two have been absent from their duty since the first of October.

Whoever takes up the said Runaways and delivers them to Mr. Jonah Horry at Washaw plantation, Santee, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have Ten Pounds Reward for each, besides the Mileage agreeable to law. DAVID DEAS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

JEMMY; b. N. America*Deas, David; Mayrant, Mr.; Yerworth, Mr.; Horry, Jonah

TEN POUNDS REWARD for EACH OF the Four following RUNAWAYS, viz. Robin, a well made Fellow about 35 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, country born, purchased at Mr. Mayrant's sale. Colin, a well set and very black fellow; smooth-faced, about 23 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height, his legs remarkably thick made, of the Guinea country; Robin and he are supposed to be harboured about Wambaw swamp, and have been out several months. Hector, of the Guiney country, square shouldered, black complexion, 5 feet 6 inches high, and about 37 years old, has a very sullen look; he belonged formerly to Mr. Yerworth, shipbuilder. Jemmy, a slim fellow, country born, about 5 feet 8 inches high, very black, with a down look, about 30 years of age. The last two have been absent from their duty since the first of October.

Whoever takes up the said Runaways and delivers them to Mr. Jonah Horry at Washaw plantation, Santee, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have Ten Pounds Reward for each, besides the Mileage agreeable to law. DAVID DEAS.

MARIANNE*Ladson, Thomas

John's Island, March 24th, 1774. RUN away from the subscriber twelve months past, a NEGRO WOMAN named Marianne: A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS will be given to any person that will deliver her to me, and FIFTY POUNDS STERLING to any white person that will deliver the said wench and give information upon oath of her being harboured by any white person; or FIFTY POUNDS additional to the first reward, if delivered and information given of being harboured by a Negro. Also, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be given on delivering a country-born NEGRO MAN named July, who is supposed to have the above wench and several more of my property with him; he has a very large scar on his thigh, which he received twenty years ago for his offences, was formerly the property of Mr. Lowrey of the same place, but now of the subscriber. THOMAS LADSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

JULY*Ladson, Thomas; Lowry, Mr.

John's Island, March 24th, 1774. RUN away from the subscriber twelve months past, a NEGRO WOMAN named Marianne: A reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS will be given to any person that will deliver her to me, and FIFTY POUNDS STERLING to any white person that will deliver the said wench and give information upon oath of her being harboured by any white person; or FIFTY POUNDS additional to the first reward, if delivered and information given of being harboured by a Negro. Also, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be given on delivering a country-born NEGRO MAN named July, who is supposed to have the above wench and several more of my property with him; he has a very large scar on his thigh, which he received twenty years ago for his offences, was formerly the property of Mr. Lowrey of the same place, but now of the subscriber. THOMAS LADSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

JOHNNIE; JOHNNY; mulatto

Wilson, John; Wilson, Algernon, (d)

Run away from the Subscriber, a MULATTO MAN named Johnnie, lately belonging to Mr. Algernoon Wilson, deceased, well known both in Town and Country; had on when he went away a blue Coat, Scarlet Jacket, blue Breeches, Shoes and Stockings. He is a very sensible, artful, sly Fellow. As he has carried off all his Cloaths, he probably may change his Dress and Name, pass as a Free man, and endeavour to get off the Province in some Vessel or other: All Masters of Vessels and others, are hereby cautioned against entertaining, harbouring, concealing or carrying off the Province the said Fellow, as they may depend on being prosecuted to the utmost Rigour of the Law. TEN POUNDS reward, and all reasonable Charges, will be paid, on Delivery of him to me on Stono, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown; and a further Reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency will be given, on Conviction of his being harboured by a white Person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a Negro, by JOHN WILSON. April 6th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774]

PRIMUS

Guerard, Godin

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 22 April 1774] (Timothy). 31 January 1774.

See PRIMUS. South-Carolina Gazette

BOB

Johnston, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 April 1774]

See BOB, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy), 18 April 1774; and in other newspapers.

AUGUST

Burrows, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 May 1774]

See AUGUST. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 12 September 1774. Postscript.

MINOS

Ogilvie, Charles

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1774]

See MINOS. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 30 May 1774.

BUCHARAH; BUCKRA?; b. Africa; Sofo; speaks Bambara

Savage, John; Savage, William

RUN away the 21st of April last, TWO NEGRO MEN that have been in the country two years, and speak English so as to be understood, viz. Bucharah, a slim made fellow about five feet six or seven inches high, has one remarkable small thigh and leg, occasioned by an old wound; is about thirty-three years of age, and very black; Cupid, his country name Yonge, a small, low, set fellow about five feet three inches high, has an odd cast with his eyes; about twenty-seven years of age; is branded on the left arm, above the elbow, BI, but very dull. They are both of a country which they call Sofo, and both speak the Bombra [Bambara] language and Cupid the Fulla language; both had on white negro cloth jacket and breeches, dyed a little yellowish, with metal buttons. A reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering them to Mr. William Savage, merchant in Charlestown, or to me in St. Matthew's parish; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency will be paid to the informer, if the said Negroes are discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender. JOHN SAVAGE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1774]

CUPID; YONGE; b. Africa; Sofo; speaks Bambara & Fulla; branded

Savage, John; Savage, William

RUN away the 21st of April last, TWO NEGRO MEN that have been in the country two years, and speak English so as to be understood, viz. Bucharah, a slim made fellow about five feet six or seven inches high, has one remarkable small thigh and leg, occasioned by an old wound; is about thirty-three years of age, and very black; Cupid, his country name Yonge, a small, low, set fellow about five feet three inches high, has an odd cast with his eyes; about twenty-seven years of age; is branded on the left arm, above the elbow, BI, but very dull. They are both of a country which they call Sofo, and both speak the Bombra language and Cupid the Fulla language; both had on white negro cloth jacket and breeches, dyed a little yellowish, with metal buttons. A reward of ONE GUINEA each will be paid on delivering them to Mr. William Savage, merchant in Charlestown, or to me in St. Matthew's parish; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency will be paid to the informer, if the said Negroes are discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender. JOHN SAVAGE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 June 1774.]

JOE

Harvey, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 June 1774]

See JOE, FLORA, and SAM. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 6 June 1774.

SARAH

Vardell, Elisabeth

ABSENTED herself from my Service about Six Months ago, a NEGRO WOMAN, named Sarah, well known in Charlestown, where she is supposed to be harboured: All Persons are hereby warned, not to hire the said Wench without a written Order from me; and any Person harbouring her will be prosecuted with the utmost Rigour of the Law. ELISABETH VARDELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 June 1774]

TAMSON

Harvey, Dorcas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 June 1774]

See TAMSON, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy), 11 September 1774, postscript; and in other newspapers.

NED

Stitt, William; Cantey, Joseph RUN away from my plantation on Black-river in August last, a NEGRO MAN named NED; he is about five feet eight inches high, thick and well set, country born, has a small cut on the right side of his chin, and is very artful, he was seen in company with a negro of Mr. Joseph Cantey's named Jacob, of a yellowish complexion, has a blemish in one of his eyes; they are supposed to be gone towards the Back Settlements. Whoever takes up and delivers said fellow to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Georgetown or Charlestown, shll receive a reward of FORTY POUNDS currency and all reasonable charges; also a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders. WILLIAM STITT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 June 1774]

JACOB

Cantey, Joseph RUN away from my plantation on Black-river in August last, a NEGRO MAN named NED; he is about five feet eight inches high, thick and well set, country born, has a small cut on the right side of his chin, and is very artful, he was seen in company with a negro of Mr. Joseph Cantey's named Jacob, of a yellowish complexion, has a blemish in one of his eyes; they are supposed to be gone towards the Back Settlements. Whoever takes up and delivers said fellow to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Georgetown or Charlestown, shll receive a reward of FORTY POUNDS currency and all reasonable charges; also a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders. WILLIAM STITT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 June 1774]

JULY

Ladson, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1774]

See JULY and CUPID. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 11 July 1774.

CUPID

Ladson, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1774]

See JULY and CUPID. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 11 July 1774.

JACK

Ogilvie, George; Holman, Thomas

RUN away a NEGRO MAN named JACK, a stout well made fellow, near six feet high, and appears to be about six or eight and twenty years of age; he belonged to the late Thomas Holman, and was purchased at his sale; had on when he went away, a blue negro cloth jacket and breeches, and a check shirt. Whoever delivers him at the Work-house in Charlestown or the Goal in Georgetown, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward, with reasonable charges, and whoever harbours him will be prosecuted, by GEORGE OGILVIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 July 1774]

JAMES*Owner's name not given

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1774]

See JAMES. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 11 July 1774, by the Warden.

CATO*Remington, John

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday July 9th, a NEGRO BOY named CATO, well known in Charlestown and up the Path; he had on when he deserted an osnaburg shirt and short trowsers, no hat or cap; he was seen running up the Path last Saturday. All masters of vessels are hereby cautioned not to carry him off, and THREE POUNDS reward to deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house or JOHN REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 July 1774]

GEORGE*Ladson, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1774]

See GEORGE in other newspapers.

ANDREW*Valk, Jacob

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1774]

See ANDREW in other newspapers..

BEN*Reynolds, Benjamin

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 August 1774]

See BEN in other newspapers.

PRIMUS*Johnson, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 26 August 1774]

See PRIMUS, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 17 October 1774.

PUNCH; b. West Indies; Jamaica*Milligen, George; Milligan; Gullen, Captain

September 2, 1774.

[RUN AWAY] Wednesday August 9th, a YOUNG NEGRO MAN named PUNCH, [formerly?] the property of Capt. Gullen; he was born in Jamaica, speaks bad English, is about five feet seven or eight inches high, and about 18 or 20 years of age; he was dressed, when he went away, in an old coarse blue cloth coat with a red cape, blue breeches and a check shirt; he may be distinguished by particular notch about the middle of his left ear, which he says he was born with. I will give TEN POUNDS to any person that delivers him to me or to the Warden of the Work-house.

GEORGE MILLIGEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 September 1774.]

CUDJOE; CUDJO*Cassels, James; Man, Mrs.

RUN away from Mrs. Man's Plantation on Black River, a NEGRO MAN, named Cudjoe; he is about twenty-five years of age, very black, and stutters remarkably. TWENTY POUNDS, besides travelling charges, will be paid to any person who will bring him to the said plantation or to the Work-house in Charlestown, or the Gaol in Georgetown. JAMES CASSELS. August 22nd, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 September 1774.]

PRIMUS

Morgan, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 September 1774.]
See PRIMUS. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 26 September 1774.

SUE; daughter: Judie; other children

Horry, Thomas; Saxby, Mr.; St. Julien, Miss

RUN away in July last, a MULATTO WOMAN named SUE, well known in town, formerly Mr. Saxby's and lately Miss St. Julien's. She carried with her one of her Children named Judie, a girl about three years old, and is supposed to be harboured in town or in John's Island. I will give TWENTY POUNDS to whoever takes up the said Wench and delivers her to me or the Warden of the Work-house. THOMAS HORRY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 September 1774]
See SUE in other newspapers.

JUDIE; JUDY; mother: SUE

Horry, Thomas; Saxby, Mr.; St. Julien, Miss

RUN away in July last, a MULATTO WOMAN named SUE, well known in town, formerly Mr. Saxby's and lately Miss St. Julien's. She carried with her one of her Children named Judie, a girl about three years old, and is supposed to be harboured in town or in John's Island. I will give TWENTY POUNDS to whoever takes up the said Wench and delivers her to me or the Warden of the Work-house. THOMAS HORRY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 September 1774.]
See SUE in other newspapers.

CAESAR

Darrell, Joseph

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1774.]
See CAESAR. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 19 September 1774.

EDMUND

Price, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 October 1774.]
See EDMUND. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 3 October 1774.

TITUS

Atkins, Charles; Farr, Thomas

RUN away a NEGRO MAN named TITUS, short and strong made, the whites of his eyes inclining to be red; he has a down look, speaks bad English, but is nevertheless an artful fellow, and if not well examined, may impose on people with two or three Tickets I have at several times given him to go to Mr. Thomas Farr's plantation at Stono, to which place he probably may now be gone. He has also other tickets from me to go at nights to Mr. Farr's house in town, where he hath a wife. He had on when he went away, a light drab short coat with brass buttons, a pair of white breeches, and a red and white handkerchief tied about his head. Whoever will bring him to me, shall have TEN POUNDS reward: On proof of his being harboured by a white person, I will give THIRTY POUNDS, and FIFTEEN POUNDS if harboured by a negro, being determined to prosecute such offender with the utmost rigour. CHARLES ATKINS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 October 1774]

TOM; barber

Sommers, Humphrey; Creighton, Joseph

RUN away a NEGRO MAN named TOM, by trade a barber, formerly the property of Mr. Joseph Creighton, and well known in town, where he is supposed to be harboured. MISSED about the time the said Negro ran away, and supposed to be stolen by him, a SILVER TABLE SPOON, having a Bull's Head engraved as a crest on the handle, the Hall mark of sterling plate, and the maker's name J.M. I will give TWO DOLLARS to whoever will deliver the said Negro to the Warden of the Work-house or to me in Charlestown, and ONE DOLLAR for the Silver Spoon.

HUMPHREY SOMMERS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 October 1774]

HOMIDY; b. Africa; Guinea

Parker, George

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Goosecreek about two months ago, TWO likely NEW NEGRO MEN named HOMIDY and POLYDORE or SAVEY: Homidy a Guinea negro, about 28 years old, near five feet nine inches high, short hair, a flat nose, ears bored, his legs very hairy, has a scar on the great toe of his right foot occasioned from the bite of a snake: Polydore, or whose country name is Savey, a Congo negro, 25 years old, about five feet four inches high, long hair, the fore teeth of his upper jaw filed, flat nose; both very black, and had when they went away white negro cloth jackets and short trowsers with black horn buttons; carried with them their blankets, pots and an axe, and may keep together as both came here in (?) ship about eighteen months ago. TEN POUNDS currency for each, with lawful charges, will be paid to any person who will deliver them to me, or the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, at any of the Country Gaols, or to my Overseer at Goosecreek; and I do hereby offer a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency to any person that will give information of their being harboured by a white person, and TWENTY FIVE POUNDS if by a negro, on conviction of the offender. GEORGE PARKER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 October 1774]

SAVEY;POLYDORE; b. Africa; Congo; filed teeth

Parker, George

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Goosecreek about two months ago, TWO likely NEW NEGRO MEN named HOMIDY and POLYDORE or SAVEY: Homidy a Guinea negro, about 28 years old, near five feet nine inches high, short hair, a flat nose, ears bored, his legs very hairy, has a scar on the great toe of his right foot occasioned from the bite of a snake: Polydore, or whose country name is Savey, a Congo negro, 25 years old, about five feet four inches high, long hair, the fore teeth of his upper jaw filed, flat nose; both very black, and had when they went away white negro cloth jackets and short trowsers with black horn buttons; carried with them their blankets, pots and an axe, and may keep together as both came here in (?) ship about eighteen months ago. TEN POUNDS currency for each, with lawful charges, will be paid to any person who will deliver them to me, or the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, at any of the Country Gaols, or to my Overseer at Goosecreek; and I do hereby offer a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS currency to any person that will give information of their being harboured by a white person, and TWENTY FIVE POUNDS if by a negro, on conviction of the offender. GEORGE PARKER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 October 1774]

BRUTUS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 October 1774]

See BRUTUS and BELINDA. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 31 October 1774.

BELINDA

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 October 1774]

See BRUTUS and BELINDA. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 31 October 1774.

CYRUS; mustee

Edwards, Sarah; Perry, Edward; Ferguson, Thomas; Sommers, John

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber in Charlestown sometime in August last, a MUSTEE MAN named CYRUS, this country born, about forty years of age but appears some years younger, well made and speaks very good English, and as he has several near relations belonging to Thomas Ferguson, Esq; it is very probable he may be harboured on one of Mr. Ferguson's plantations at Spoon Savannah. Whoever takes up the said fellow and delivers him to Mr. Edward Perry at Horse Savannah, Mr. John Sommers at Stono, or to the subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges. SARAH EDWARDS. N.B. The said fellow has a black complexion and his hair not so bushy as negroes in general have it.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 November 1774]

JEMMY

Legare, Solomon

RUN away the 20th of October 1774, a young NEGRO MAN named Jemmy, about twenty years of age, very artful and sensible, is well known in Charlestown; it is supposed he is concealed or harboured either in town or at Stono. I offer a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency and all lawful charges, to any person delivering him to the Warden of the Work House in Charlestown: I offer a further reward of TWENTY FIVE POUNDS currency, to any person that will inform me of his being harboured by a white person, or if by a negro TEN POUNDS, on conviction of the offender or offenders. SOLOMON LEGARE, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

CATO; b. Africa; Guinea; branded*Strobhar, John

RUN away from the subscriber on the 25th day of July last, FIVE NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. CATO, a lusty well made fellow, of a very black complexion, about six feet high and about twenty-five years old, has some grey hairs on his head; CUDJOE about six feet high and made in proportion, with his country marks down his cheeks, and of a good countenance, about twenty years of age; JUNE about thirty years of age and about five feet ten inches high, and marked with the pock pits in his face, has a trembling in his head when he is still so as one may perceive it; SEPTEMBER about twenty-five years of age and marked with pock pits in his face, a slim fellow, about five feet six inches high, he has also lost the first joint of the third finger in one of his hands; MAYSON about twenty-five years of age, about five feet three inches high, of a small visage and yellowish hair; they are all of the Guinea country. Which said negroes were last heard of betwixt Ninety-six and Santee-river, they are all branded on the breast S, had on when they went off each of them an old suit of white negro cloth; some of them may have a blue robing. Whoever takes up them or any of them, and delivers him or them to me at my plantation near Purrysburgh, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS currency per head, and all reasonable charges; or if delivered to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at the goal [gaol] in Beaufort, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS per head and all reasonable charges from JOHN STROBHAR.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

CUDJOE; CUDJO; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification; branded*Strobhar, John

RUN away from the subscriber on the 25th day of July last, FIVE NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. CATO, a lusty well made fellow, of a very black complexion, about six feet high and about twenty-five years old, has some grey hairs on his head; CUDJOE about six feet high and made in proportion, with his country marks down his cheeks, and of a good countenance, about twenty years of age; JUNE about thirty years of age and about five feet ten inches high, and marked with the pock pits in his face, has a trembling in his head when he is still so as one may perceive it; SEPTEMBER about twenty-five years of age and marked with pock pits in his face, a slim fellow, about five feet six inches high, he has also lost the first joint of the third finger in one of his hands; MAYSON about twenty-five years of age, about five feet three inches high, of a small visage and yellowish hair; they are all of the Guinea country. Which said negroes were last heard of betwixt Ninety-six and Santee-river, they are all branded on the breast S, had on when they went off each of them an old suit of white negro cloth; some of them may have a blue robing. Whoever takes up them or any of them, and delivers him or them to me at my plantation near Purrysburgh, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS currency per head, and all reasonable charges; or if delivered to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at the goal [gaol] in Beaufort, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS per head and all reasonable charges from JOHN STROBHAR.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

JUNE (male); b. Africa; Guinea*Strobhar, John

RUN away from the subscriber on the 25th day of July last, FIVE NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. CATO, a lusty well made fellow, of a very black complexion, about six feet high and about twenty-five years old, has some grey hairs on his head; CUDJOE about six feet high and made in proportion, with his country marks down his cheeks, and of a good countenance, about twenty years of age; JUNE about thirty years of age and about five feet ten inches high, and marked with the pock pits in his face, has a trembling in his head when he is still so as one may perceive it; SEPTEMBER about twenty-five years of age and marked with pock pits in his face, a slim fellow, about five feet six inches high, he has also lost the first joint of the third finger in one of his hands; MAYSON about twenty-five years of age, about five feet three inches high, of a small visage and yellowish hair; they are all of the Guinea country.

Which said negroes were last heard of betwixt Ninety-six and Santee-river, they are all branded on the breast S, had on when they went off each of them an old suit of white negro cloth; some of them may have a blue robing. Whoever takes up them or any of them, and delivers him or them to me at my plantation near Purrysburgh, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS currency per head, and all reasonable charges; or if delivered to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at the goal [gaol] in Beaufort, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS per head and all reasonable charges from JOHN STROBHAR.

SEPTEMBER; b. Africa; Guinea; mutilated; branded

Strobhar, John

RUN away from the subscriber on the 25th day of July last, FIVE NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. CATO, a lusty well made fellow, of a very black complexion, about six feet high and about twenty-five years old, has some grey hairs on his head; CUDJOE about six feet high and made in proportion, with his country marks down his cheeks, and of a good countenance, about twenty years of age; JUNE about thirty years of age and about five feet ten inches high, and marked with the pock pits in his face, has a trembling in his head when he is still so as one may perceive it; SEPTEMBER about twenty-five years of age and marked with pock pits in his face, a slim fellow, about five feet six inches high, he has also lost the first joint of the third finger in one of his hands; MAYSON about twenty-five years of age, about five feet three inches high, of a small visage and yellowish hair; they are all of the Guinea country. Which said negroes were last heard of betwixt Ninety-six and Santee-river, they are all branded on the breast S, had on when they went off each of them an old suit of white negro cloth; some of them may have a blue robing. Whoever takes up them or any of them, and delivers him or them to me at my plantation near Purrysburgh, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS currency per head, and all reasonable charges; or if delivered to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at the goal [gaol] in Beaufort, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS per head and all reasonable charges from JOHN STROBHAR.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

MASON; MAYSON; b. Africa; Guinea; branded

Strobhar, John

RUN away from the subscriber on the 25th day of July last, FIVE NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. CATO, a lusty well made fellow, of a very black complexion, about six feet high and about twenty-five years old, has some grey hairs on his head; CUDJOE about six feet high and made in proportion, with his country marks down his cheeks, and of a good countenance, about twenty years of age; JUNE about thirty years of age and about five feet ten inches high, and marked with the pock pits in his face, has a trembling in his head when he is still so as one may perceive it; SEPTEMBER about twenty-five years of age and marked with pock pits in his face, a slim fellow, about five feet six inches high, he has also lost the first joint of the third finger in one of his hands; MAYSON about twenty-five years of age, about five feet three inches high, of a small visage and yellowish hair; they are all of the Guinea country. Which said negroes were last heard of betwixt Ninety-six and Santee-river, they are all branded on the breast S, had on when they went off each of them an old suit of white negro cloth; some of them may have a blue robing. Whoever takes up them or any of them, and delivers him or them to me at my plantation near Purrysburgh, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS currency per head, and all reasonable charges; or if delivered to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at the goal [gaol] in Beaufort, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS per head and all reasonable charges from JOHN STROBHAR.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

SHELALY; SHILLELAGH; BOBODANDY; b. Africa; Sierra Leone; Kiskey; Kissi; filed teeth; 2 navels

Robert, Elias; Lawton, Joseph

THREE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. RUN away or stolen from the subscribers, the following NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. SHELALY a tall, well made fellow, of the Kiskey country, whose country name is Bobodandy, speaks little or no English, but can tell his own name if he will, has a small beard, his great toes turn out pretty much and has, as it were, two navels one under the other, a remarkable rough skin; one of his upper teeth is filed about half way, and the next to it broke above the gums by filing. He went off some time in April last, and is suspected to be stolen; had on when he went away an old wrapper of green plains and trowsers of white plains. TITUS a black Guinea negro, thick lips, walks as if he was lame, has his country marks on his left arm, speaks little or no English, bushy head, and is about five feet four or five inches high, had on a white plains jacket and breeches and a blue under jacket, also a blanket and a small iron pot, calls himself sometimes Farrah, went away sometime in July last. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negroes at the Work-house in Charlestown or any of the gaols in this province, or to the subscribers near Black Swamp, in St. Peter's Parish, shall have a reward of FIFTY POUNDS for each negro and all reasonable charges; and if any person will prove that the former was stolen, shall have a further reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS on conviction of the thief; and if the latter can be proved to be stolen, a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS shall be paid on conviction of the thief, by ELIAS ROBERT, JOSEPH LAWTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

TITUS; FARRAH; b. Africa; Guinea; Muslim?; ritual scarification

Robert, Elias; Lawton, Joseph

THREE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. RUN away or stolen from the subscribers, the following NEW NEGRO MEN, viz. SHELALY a tall, well made fellow, of the Kissey country, whose country name is Bobodandy, speaks little or no English, but can tell his own name if he will, has a small beard, his great toes turn out pretty much and has, as it were, two navels one under the other, a remarkable rough skin; one of his upper teeth is filed about half way, and the next to it broke above the gums by filing. He went off some time in April last, and is suspected to be stolen; had on when he went away an old wrapper of green plains and trowsers of white plains. TITUS a black Guinea negro, thick lips, walks as if he was lame, has his country marks on his left arm, speaks little of no English, bushy head, and is about five feet four or five inches high, had on a white plains jacket and breeches and a blue under jacket, also a blanket and a small iron pot, calls himself sometimes Farrah, went away sometime in July last. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negroes at the Work-house in Charlestown or any of the gaols in this province, or to the subscribers near Black Swamp, in St. Peter's Parish, shall have a reward of FIFTY POUNDS for each negro and all reasonable charges; and if any person will prove that the former was stolen, shall have a further reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS on conviction of the thief; and if the latter can be proved to be stolen, a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS shall be paid on conviction of the thief, by ELIAS ROBERT, JOSEPH LAWTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1774]

BOB

Johnston, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 25 November 1774]

See BOB, South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 5 December 1774; and in other newspapers.

PORUS

DuBose, Daniel; Motte, Mrs.

RUN away from the subscriber in October last a likely NEGRO MAN named PORUS, speaks good English, about 25 years old, five feet five inches high, thin visage, black skin and wore a gold earring in one ear; he is suspected to be harboured at Mrs. Motte's plantation in Christ Church Parish, as he has a relation there. Whoever will apprehend and deliver said fellow to the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown or to the subscriber, shall receive TEN POUNDS currency and all reasonable charges paid. DANIEL DUBOSE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 25 November 1774]

SAMPSON; SAMSON; b. Africa; Guinea; branded

Savage, John; Savage, William, Major; Farrar, Benjamin

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, the five under mentioned NEW NEGROES, viz.

SAMPSON a stout well made fellow, about five feet nine inches high, smooth face and a cheerful countenance; CUFFEY a low well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is black-eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, has his country marks on his breast and a cut in his forehead, his teeth filed; TOM a likely little fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced; they all three are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age and all branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though scarce visible, and Cuffey is branded on the left cheek IS, all of the Guinea country, and speak but little English, went off in March and April 1773. BUCKRAM a stout likely well made fellow, about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar on his back near the back bone; FORTOMAH a tall stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, small legs, long visage and down look, when spoken to; these two are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age, both of the Bombia country, spoke but little English, went away in April last, had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and one pair of breeches; Fortomah had on leather breeches. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS each for the three first mentioned, and TEN POUNDS each for the two last mentioned, will be paid on delivering them to Major William Savage in Charlestown, Benjamin Farrar, Esq; at the (?) or to the subscriber; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. November 28th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 December 1774]

CUFFEY; CUFFIE; CUFFEE; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification; filed teeth; branded

Savage, John; Savage, William, Major; Farrar, Benjamin

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, the five under mentioned NEW NEGROES, viz.

SAMPSON a stout well made fellow, about five feet nine inches high, smooth face and a cheerful countenance;

CUFFEY a low well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is black-eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, has his country marks on his breast and a cut in his forehead, his teeth filed; TOM a likely little fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced; they all three are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age and all branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though scarce visible, and Cuffey is branded on the left cheek IS, all of the Guinea country, and speak but little English, went off in March and April 1773. BUCKRAM a stout likely well made fellow, about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar on his back near the back bone; FORTOMAH a tall stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, small legs, long visage and down look, when spoken to; these two are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age, both of the Bombia country, spoke but little English, went away in April last, had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and one pair of breeches; Fortomah had on leather breeches. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS each for the three first mentioned, and TEN POUNDS each for the two last mentioned, will be paid on delivering them to Major William Savage in Charlestown, Benjamin Farrar, Esq; at the (?) or to the subscriber; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. November 28th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 December 1774]

TOM; b. Africa; Guinea; branded

Savage, John; Savage, William, Major; Farrar, Benjamin

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, the five under mentioned NEW NEGROES, viz.

SAMPSON a stout well made fellow, about five feet nine inches high, smooth face and a cheerful countenance;

CUFFEY a low well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is black-eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, has his country marks on his breast and a cut in his forehead, his teeth filed; TOM a likely little fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced; they all three are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age and all branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though scarce visible, and Cuffey is branded on the left cheek IS, all of the Guinea country, and speak but little English, went off in March and April 1773. BUCKRAM a stout likely well made fellow, about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar on his back near the back bone; FORTOMAH a tall stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, small legs, long visage and down look, when spoken to; these two are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age, both of the Bombia country, spoke but little English, went away in April last, had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and one pair of breeches; Fortomah had on leather breeches. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS each for the three first mentioned, and TEN POUNDS each for the two last mentioned, will be paid on delivering them to Major William Savage in Charlestown, Benjamin Farrar, Esq; at the (?) or to the subscriber; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. November 28th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 December 1774]

BUCKRAM; b. Africa; "Bombia"; Bambara?

Savage, John; Savage, William, Major; Farrar, Benjamin

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, the five under mentioned NEW NEGROES, viz.

SAMPSON a stout well made fellow, about five feet nine inches high, smooth face and a cheerful countenance;

CUFFEY a low well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is black-eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, has his country marks on his breast and a cut in his forehead, his teeth filed; TOM a likely little fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced; they all three are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age and all branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though scarce visible, and Cuffey is branded on the left cheek IS, all of the Guinea country, and speak but little English, went off in March and April 1773. BUCKRAM a stout likely well made fellow, about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar on his back near the back bone; FORTOMAH a tall stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, small legs, long visage and down look, when spoken to; these two are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age, both of the Bombia country, spoke but little English, went away in April last, had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and one pair of breeches; Fortomah had on leather breeches. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS each for the three first mentioned, and TEN POUNDS each for the two last mentioned, will be paid on delivering them to Major William Savage in Charlestown, Benjamin Farrar, Esq; at the (?) or to the subscriber; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. November 28th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 December 1774]

FORTOMAH; b. Africa; ‘Bombia’; Bambara?

Savage, John; Savage, William, Major; Farrar, Benjamin

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Matthew's Parish, the five under mentioned NEW NEGROES, viz. SAMPSON a stout well made fellow, about five feet nine inches high, smooth face and a cheerful countenance; CUFFEY a low well set fellow, about five feet three inches high, is black-eyed, by which means he pulls up one side of his face, has his country marks on his breast and a cut in his forehead, his teeth filed; TOM a likely little fellow, about five feet three inches high, full faced; they all three are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age and all branded on the left arm above the elbow BI, though scarce visible, and Cuffey is branded on the left cheek IS, all of the Guinea country, and speak but little English, went off in March and April 1773. BUCKRAM a stout likely well made fellow, about five feet eight inches high, has a large scar on his back near the back bone; FORTOMAH a tall stout fellow, about five feet ten inches high, small legs, long visage and down look, when spoken to; these two are very black, each about twenty-seven years of age, both of the Bombia country, spoke but little English, went away in April last, had on white negro cloth wrappers, jackets and one pair of breeches; Fortomah had on leather breeches. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS each for the three first mentioned, and TEN POUNDS each for the two last mentioned, will be paid on delivering them to Major William Savage in Charlestown, Benjamin Farrar, Esq; at the (?) or to the subscriber; and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS if discovered to be harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, by JOHN SAVAGE. November 28th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 December 1774]

JENNY

Weatherley, Isaac; Matthews, George

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD. RUN away sometime in June last, a young NEGRO WOMAN named JENNY, about eighteen years of age, of a yellow complexion and speaks very good English, is well known in St. Helena and John's Island. Whoever will take up and deliver the said Wench to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, the keepers of any of the gaols in the province, Mr. George Matthewes merchant in Charlestown, or to me on St. Helena, shall have a reward of Eighteen Dollars and all reasonable charges. ISAAC WEATHERLEY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 December 1774]

QUACO; carpenter

Odingsells, Charles

RUN away from the subscriber in Georgia about the middle of September last, TWO NEGRO MEN, carpenters by trade, viz. Quaco about five feet six inches high, and Solomon about five feet ten inches high; had on when they went away, blue negro cloth jackets and breeches; they were seen on their way to Charlestown where they both have wives. Whoever will deliver said negroes, or either of them, to Mr. John Fullerton in Charlestown, or to me in Georgia, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS for each. This is likewise to forbid all persons to harbour said negroes, and whoever is guilty thereof will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. CHARLES ODINGSSELLS. December 19th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, SC. 23 December 1774.]

SOLOMON; carpenter

Odingsells, Charles

RUN away from the subscriber in Georgia about the middle of September last, TWO NEGRO MEN, carpenters by trade, viz. Quaco about five feet six inches high, and Solomon about five feet ten inches high; had on when they went away, blue negro cloth jackets and breeches; they were seen on their way to Charlestown where they both have wives. Whoever will deliver said negroes, or either of them, to Mr. John Fullerton in Charlestown, or to me in Georgia, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS for each. This is likewise to forbid all persons to harbour said negroes, and whoever is guilty thereof will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. CHARLES ODINGSSELLS. December 19th, 1774.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 December 1774.]

MIMBA*Stephenson, Peter; Snelling, John; Townsend, Paul

RUN away from my plantation in St. Matthew's Parish on Saturday December 3rd, a NEGRO GIRL named Mimba, country born, about 18 years of age, short, well made, and when she went away was remarkably fat; she is very black, and when she laughs shews a dimple in each cheek; had on a blue negro cloth jacket and striped linen coat, but as she took other cloaths along with her it is probable she may change her dress; she is very artful and can tell a plausible story, by which means she escaped being taken up when she ran away some time ago; she was formerly the property of Mr. John Snelling, and is well known in Charlestown where she has many relations and a numerous acquaintance. Whoever apprehends the said wench and delivers her to Mr. Paul Townsend or the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, or to me, shall receive 2 Dollars reward and all reasonable charges; whoever will give information of her being harboured by a white person shall receive Ten Pounds, and if by a negro Five Pounds, on conviction of the offender. PETER STEVENSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 December 1774]

STEPHEN; b. South Carolina*Hall, Nathaniel; Hall, George Abbot; Cuthbert, James, Dr., (d); Cuthbert, George, estate of

Savannah, in Georgia, December 5th, 1774. TWENTY POUNDS STERLING REWARD. RUN away some time in September last from the subscriber's plantation on Savannah-river, a NEGRO MAN named Stephen, formerly the property of Dr. James Cuthbert deceased; he is a stout, likely, young fellow, born in Carolina, about five feet eight or nine inches high, very artful and sensible, much upon the olive cast and might almost pass for a mulatto. He has lately been seen at the estate of George Cuthbert's and at Mrs. Cuthbert's plantation on Savannah-river, where it is supposed he keeps; he carried off with him a suit of scarlet (?) turned up with blue, with sundry other cloaths. Any person delivering said runaway to my Overseer at Morton-hall, to the Warden of the Work-house in Savannah, or to Mr. George-Abbott Hall in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS sterling; and if harboured by a white person, which there is great reason to suppose, upon conviction thereof, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS sterling will be paid to the informer by NATHANIEL HALL. All masters of vessels and others are cautioned against taking said fellow out of the province.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 December 1774]

ABNER; cooper*Guerard, Godin; Brewton, Mr.

True Blue, Prince William's Parish, Dec. 29, 1774. RUN away from the subscriber, the FOUR following NEGROES, viz. Abner, July, Daniel and Priam. Abner is about six feet high, thirty seven years old, country-born, by trade a cooper, well known about Combahee-river and elsewhere, supposed to be harboured by Mr. Brewton's negroes at his plantation upon said river; July is a lad about twenty years old, squat built, a mustee, late the property of Alexander Hext deceased, supposed to be harboured up the Path near Charlestown at Mr. Burrows's place: David and Priam are both new negroes; the first is about five feet seven inches high, of cross, surly countenance, the other is about five feet four inches high, of a yellowish complexion and pleasant look, each of them had on a shirt of osnaburghs without sleeves, and short gowns and trowsers made up of white plains. Whoever apprehends the above runaways and delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency for each, or give information of their being harboured., if by a white person ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency, but if by a negro TWENTY FIVE POUNDS like money, to be paid on conviction of the offender. GODIN GUERARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1775]

See ABNER in other newspapers..

JULY; mustee*Guerard, Godin; Hext, Alexander (d); Burrows, Mr.

True Blue, Prince William's Parish, Dec. 29, 1774. RUN away from the subscriber, the FOUR following NEGROES, viz. Abner, July, Daniel and Priam. Abner is about six feet high, thirty seven years old, country-born, by trade a cooper, well known about Combahee-river and elsewhere, supposed to be harboured by Mr. Brewton's negroes at his plantation upon said river; July is a lad about twenty years old, squat built, a mustee, late the property of Alexander Hext deceased, supposed to be harboured up the Path near Charlestown at Mr. Burrows's place: David and Priam are both new negroes; the first is about five feet seven inches high, of cross, surly countenance, the other is about five feet four inches high, of a yellowish complexion and pleasant look, each of them had on a shirt of osnaburghs without sleeves, and short gowns and trowsers made up of white plains. Whoever apprehends the above runaways and delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency for each, or give information of their being harboured., if by a white person ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency, but if by a negro TWENTY FIVE POUNDS like money, to be paid on conviction of the offender. GODIN GUERARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1775]

DANIEL; DAVID; b. Africa*Guerard, Godin

True Blue, Prince William's Parish, Dec. 29, 1774. RUN away from the subscriber, the FOUR following NEGROES, viz. Abner, July, Daniel [sic] and Priam. Abner is about six feet high, thirty seven years old, country-born, by trade a cooper, well known about Combahee-river and elsewhere, supposed to be harboured by Mr. Brewton's negroes at his plantation upon said river; July is a lad about twenty years old, squat built, a mustee, late the property of Alexander Hext deceased, supposed to be harboured up the Path near Charlestown at Mr. Burrows's place: David [sic] and Priam are both new negroes; the first is about five feet seven inches high, of cross, surly countenance, the other is about five feet four inches high, of a yellowish complexion and pleasant look, each of them had on a shirt of osnaburghs without sleeves, and short gowns and trowsers made up of white plains. Whoever apprehends the above runaways and delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency for each, or give information of their being harboured., if by a white person ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency, but if by a negro TWENTY FIVE POUNDS like money, to be paid on conviction of the offender. GODIN GUERARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1775]

PRIAM; b. Africa*Guerard, Godin

True Blue, Prince William's Parish, Dec. 29, 1774. RUN away from the subscriber, the FOUR following NEGROES, viz. Abner, July, Daniel and Priam. Abner is about six feet high, thirty seven years old, country-born, by trade a cooper, well known about Combahee-river and elsewhere, supposed to be harboured by Mr. Brewton's negroes at his plantation upon said river; July is a lad about twenty years old, squat built, a mustee, late the property of Alexander Hext deceased, supposed to be harboured up the Path near Charlestown at Mr. Burrows's place: David and Priam are both new negroes; the first is about five feet seven inches high, of cross, surly countenance, the other is about five feet four inches high, of a yellowish complexion and pleasant look, each of them had on a shirt of osnaburghs without sleeves, and short gowns and trowsers made up of white plains. Whoever apprehends the above runaways and delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency for each, or give information of their being harboured., if by a white person ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency, but if by a negro TWENTY FIVE POUNDS like money, to be paid on conviction of the offender. GODIN GUERARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1775]

FAREWELL

Perroneau, Arthur, estate of; Lambton, Richard; Perroneau, Henry

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD will be paid by the subscriber to any person who will take up and deliver to the Warden of the work house, a runaway Negro Man named FAREWELL, belonging to the Estate of Mr. Arthur Peronneau deceased; he is a tall fellow, well known about the town, and did formerly belong to Richard Lambton, Esq. HENRY PERONNEAU.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1775]

MONTROSE

Atkinson, Joseph

RUN away from his master, in Charlestown, an artful NEGROE FELLOW, named Montrose, belonging to Mr. Atkinson, and well known in town. Whoever apprehends the said negro fellow, and delivers him to the warden of the Work house, in Charlestown, shall receive FIVE POUNDS currency reward, or will give information of his being harboured in town or country, shall, on conviction, receive TEN POUNDS currency, by applying to JOSEPH ATKINSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 January 1775]

JEMMY

Allston, Josias

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 January 1775]

See JEMMY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 12 September 1775. Supplement.

DUBLIN; b. Africa

Weatherly, Joseph; Johnston, Mr.

Ogeechee in Georgia, January 19, 1775. TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. WENT away from the Governour's plantations at Ogeechee about the 18th of November last, FOUR NEW NEGRO MEN and A WOMAN; the men named as follows, viz. Dublin, a very likely fellow, about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, of a black complexion, and when purchased, which was in August last, he spoke a little English: North, about 40, a strong well made fellow, 6 feet high, has a large beard and black complexion: Limus, a short fellow, little more than 5 feet high, of a yellowish colour, and about 22 years old: and London, a likely fellow, about 24 years old, of a thin visage and yellow cast, and about 5 feet 8 inches high, and has a scar on his head. These people went away with the wench in a small paddling canoe, and put her ashore somewhere near White Bluff, where she was taken up by one Mr. Johnston, and on examining her since she says the other negroes told her they intended to go to look for their own country, and that the boat was not big enough to carry her with them. The canoe is branded in three or four places XX, and as it is probable they might keep along shore, and be taken up either to the southward or northward of Savannah, I do therefore offer the above reward, over and above what is allowed by law, and also all other reasonable charges, which will be paid to any person delivering them at Ogeechee, to the Warden of the Workhouse in Savannah or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or Five Pounds for each of them that may be taken up and delivered. JOSEPH WEATHERLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 January 1775]

NORTH; b. Africa

Weatherly, Joseph; Johnston, Mr.

Ogeechee in Georgia, January 19, 1775. TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. WENT away from the Governour's plantations at Ogeechee about the 18th of November last, FOUR NEW NEGRO MEN and A WOMAN; the men named as follows, viz. Dublin, a very likely fellow, about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, of a black complexion, and when purchased, which was in August last, he spoke a little English: North, about 40, a strong well made fellow, 6 feet high, has a large beard and black complexion: Limus, a short fellow, little more than 5 feet high, of a yellowish colour, and about 22 years old: and London, a likely fellow, about 24 years old, of a thin visage and yellow cast, and about 5 feet 8 inches high, and has a scar on his head. These people went away with the wench in a small paddling canoe, and put her ashore somewhere near White Bluff, where she was taken up by one Mr. Johnston, and on examining her since she says the other negroes told her they intended to go to look for their own country, and that the boat was not big enough to carry her with them. The canoe is branded in three or four places XX, and as it is probable they might keep along shore, and be taken up either to the southward or northward of Savannah, I do therefore offer the above reward, over and above what is allowed by law, and also all other reasonable charges, which will be paid to any person delivering them at Ogeechee, to the Warden of the Workhouse in Savannah or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or Five Pounds for each of them that may be taken up and delivered. JOSEPH WEATHERLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 January 1775]

LIMUS

Weatherly, Joseph; Johnston, Mr.

Ogeechee in Georgia, January 19, 1775. TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. WENT away from the Governour's plantations at Ogeechee about the 18th of November last, FOUR NEW NEGRO MEN and A WOMAN; the men named as follows, viz. Dublin, a very likely fellow, about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, of a black complexion, and when purchased, which was in August last, he spoke a little English: North, about 40, a strong well made fellow, 6 feet high, has a large beard and black complexion: Limus, a short fellow, little more than 5 feet high, of a yellowish colour, and about 22 years old: and London, a likely fellow, about 24 years old, of a thin visage and yellow cast, and about 5 feet 8 inches high, and has a scar on his head. These people went away with the wench in a small paddling canoe, and put her ashore somewhere near White Bluff, where she was taken up by one Mr. Johnston, and on examining her since she says the other negroes told her they intended to go to look for their own country, and that the boat was not big enough to carry her with them. The canoe is branded in three or four places XX, and as it is probable they might keep along shore, and be taken up either to the southward or northward of Savannah, I do therefore offer the above reward, over and above what is allowed by law, and also all other reasonable charges, which will be paid to any person delivering them at Ogeechee, to the Warden of the Workhouse in Savannah or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or Five Pounds for each of them that may be taken up and delivered. JOSEPH WEATHERLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 January 1775]

LONDON

Weatherly, Joseph; Johnston, Mr.

Ogeechee in Georgia, January 19, 1775. TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. WENT away from the Governour's plantations at Ogeechee about the 18th of November last, FOUR NEW NEGRO MEN and A WOMAN; the men named as follows, viz. Dublin, a very likely fellow, about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, of a black complexion, and when purchased, which was in August last, he spoke a little English: North, about 40, a strong well made fellow, 6 feet high, has a large beard and black complexion: Limus, a short fellow, little more than 5 feet high, of a yellowish colour, and about 22 years old: and London, a likely fellow, about 24 years old, of a thin visage and yellow cast, and about 5 feet 8 inches high, and has a scar on his head. These people went away with the wench in a small paddling canoe, and put her ashore somewhere near White Bluff, where she was taken up by one Mr. Johnston, and on examining her since she says the other negroes told her they intended to go to look for their own country, and that the boat was not big enough to carry her with them. The canoe is branded in three or four places XX, and as it is probable they might keep along shore, and be taken up either to the southward or northward of Savannah, I do therefore offer the above reward, over and above what is allowed by law, and also all other reasonable charges, which will be paid to any person delivering them at Ogeechee, to the Warden of the Workhouse in Savannah or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or Five Pounds for each of them that may be taken up and delivered. JOSEPH WEATHERLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 January 1775]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; b. Africa

Weatherly, Joseph; Johnston, Mr.

Ogeechee in Georgia, January 19, 1775. TWENTY POUNDS REWARD.

WENT away from the Governour's plantations at Ogeechee about the 18th of November last, FOUR NEW NEGRO MEN and A WOMAN; the men named as follows, viz. Dublin, a very likely fellow, about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, of a black complexion, and when purchased, which was in August last, he spoke a little English: North, about 40, a strong well made fellow, 6 feet high, has a large beard and black complexion: Limus, a short fellow, little more than 5 feet high, of a yellowish colour, and about 22 years old: and London, a likely fellow, about 24 years old, of a thin visage and yellow cast, and about 5 feet 8 inches high, and has a scar on his head. These people went away with the wench in a small paddling canoe, and put her ashore somewhere near White Bluff, where she was taken up by one Mr. Johnston, and on examining her since she says the other negroes told her they intended to go to look for their own country, and that the boat was not big enough to carry her with them. The canoe is branded in three or four places XX, and as it is probable they might keep along shore, and be taken up either to the southward or northward of Savannah, I do therefore offer the above reward, over and above what is allowed by law, and also all other reasonable charges, which will be paid to any person delivering them at Ogeechee, to the Warden of the Workhouse in Savannah or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or Five Pounds for each of them that may be taken up and delivered. JOSEPH WEATHERLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 January 1775]

BILLY; b. Africa; Guinea

Austin, David; Forbes, John

RUN away the 20th of May last from John Forbe, Esqr's plantation in St. John's Parish, Georgia, TWO NEGRO MEN named BILLY & QUAMINA, of the Guinea country, and speak good English: Billy is lusty and well made, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, of a black complexion, has lost some of his upper teeth, and had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and trowsers of the same; Quamina is stout and well made, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, very black, has his country marks on his face, had on when he went away a jacket, trowsers and robing of white negra cloth. Whoever takes up said negroes and delivers them to me at the above plantation or to the Warden of the work-house in Savannah, shall receive a reward of FIVE GUINEAS, besides what the law allows, and TWENTY GUINEAS to the informer, upon conviction of their being harboured by an person. DAVID AUSTIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 February 1775].

QUAMINA; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification

Austin, David

RUN away the 20th of May last from John Forbe, Esqr's plantation in St. John's Parish, Georgia, TWO NEGRO MEN named BILLY & QUAMINA, of the Guinea country, and speak good English: Billy is lusty and well made, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, of a black complexion, has lost some of his upper teeth, and had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and trowsers of the same; Quamina is stout and well made, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, very black, has his country marks on his face, had on when he went away a jacket, trowsers and robing of white negra cloth. Whoever takes up said negroes and delivers them to me at the above plantation or to the Warden of the work-house in Savannah, shall receive a reward of FIVE GUINEAS, besides what the law allows, and TWENTY GUINEAS to the informer, upon conviction of their being harboured by an person. DAVID AUSTIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 February 1775].

JACOB; LITTLE-CARPENTER

Adams, Nathaniel

TEN POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber about the beginning of January, 1775, a NEGRO MAN by name Jacob, though often called by the name of Little-Carpenter, a remarkable short fellow, about four feet six or eight inches high, and about thirty years of age, rather big-bellied and has a large navel; had on when he went away, a pair of blue cloth breeches and a white woollen jacket, but carried with him several other cloaths: he has some relations or acquaintances in Charlestown, and is supposed to be harboured by them. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Work house or to me on Edisto-Island, shall receive a reward of Ten Pounds for discovering his being harboured, to be paid on conviction of the offender. NATHANIEL ADAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 February 1775]

TOM; tanner

Chanler, Elizabeth; Chandler RUN away the 27th of January last, TWO NEGRO MEN, viz. TOM an elderly fellow, by trade a tanner, about five feet six inches high, had on when he went away an old blue jacket and trowsers, a red under jacket, and a silk handkerchief tied about his head; the other named EDINBURGH, a young likely fellow, about five feet eight inches high, had on two blue jackets and a pair of trowsers almost new; they carried with them a basket full of cakes, with a white cloth marked SG, and a piece of blue negro cloth. Whoever will deliver said negroes to me in Charlestown or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges, from ELIZABETH CHANLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 February 1775]

See TOM in other newspapers.

EDINBURG

Chanler, Elizabeth; Chandler RUN away the 27th of January last, TWO NEGRO MEN, viz. TOM an elderly fellow, by trade a tanner, about five feet six inches high, had on when he went away an old blue jacket and trowsers, a red under jacket, and a silk handkerchief tied about his head; the other named EDINBURGH, a young likely fellow, about five feet eight inches high, had on two blue jackets and a pair of trowsers almost new; they carried with them a basket full of cakes, with a white cloth marked SG, and a piece of blue negro cloth. Whoever will deliver said negroes to me in Charlestown or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges, from ELIZABETH CHANLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 February 1775]

MARCH; b. Africa

Ladson, Thomas; Carson, Dr.; Mathewes, Edith, Mrs.; Matthews

RUN away some months ago, a NEGRO MAN named MARCH, about five feet four inches high, speaks very broken English though he has been many years in the province, and says he belongs to Dr. Carson in Wadmelaw Island, but is supposed to be harboured at the plantation of Mrs. Edith Mathewes in John's Island, where he frequently used to visit a countryman of his. A reward of TEN POUNDS will be given to any person that will deliver the said negro to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in John's Island. THOMAS LADSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 February 1775]

JUNE (male)

Gourdin, Peter, estate of; Gaillard, Theodore, Jr.; Little, Aaron; Couturier, Philip RUN away some time in August last a NEGRO MAN belonging to the Estate of Peter Gourdin, named JUNE, but, being sensible and artful, may alter it and pass for a free negro; he is a tall, slim made fellow, much knock-kneed, of a yellow complexion, about 25 years of age. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS will be paid for his delivery to Mr. Aaron Little at the Congarees, to Mr. Philip Couturier at Mr. Gourdin's plantation in St. John's parish, or at the Workhouse in Charlestown. THEODORE GAILLARD, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

ANONYMOUS MAN; b. Africa; looks mustee

Wilson, Alexander; Macqueen, John; M'Queen

RUN away from the plantation of John Macqueen, Esq; at Horse-Savannah, A NEW NEGRO MAN, speaks a little English, of a yellowish complexion looks like a mustee, about thirty years old, five feet eight inches high, had on when he went away a blue negro cloth jacket with a piece of white cloth sewed in the collar, a red jacket and blue breeches. TEN POUNDS reward will be given to any person who will deliver the said negro to me at the above plantation, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, besides all reasonable charges. ALEXANDER WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

LUCY

Myers, Mordecai

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

See LUCY in other newspapers.

JULY

Flud, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

See JULY and KATE with three children SOPHIA, CHARLES and A GIRL about 18 months old. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 March 1775.

KATE

Flud, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

See JULY and KATE with three children SOPHIA, CHARLES and A GIRL about 18 months old. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 March 1775.

SOPHIA; father: July; mother: Kate; brother: Charles; sister: infant girl

Flud, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

See JULY and KATE with three children SOPHIA, CHARLES and A GIRL about 18 months old. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 March 1775.

CHARLES; father: July; mother: Kate; sister: Sophia; sister: infant girl

Flud, William

Flud, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

See JULY and KATE with three children SOPHIA, CHARLES and A GIRL about 18 months old. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 March 1775.

ANONYMOUS GIRL; infant; father: July; mother: Kate; sister: Sophia; brother: Charles

Flud, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 24 February 1775]

See JULY and KATE with three children SOPHIA, CHARLES and A GIRL about 18 months old. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 March 1775.

TENA

Roberts, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 March 1775]

See TENA. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 27 March 1775.

JACKO

Harper, Donald

RUN away on Monday the 13th of March instant, TWO NEGRO BOYS named Jacko and Isaac, both of yellowish complexion. Jacko is about four feet high, had on a blue negro cloth jacket and trowsers; Isaac had on a brown robing mended in the backs and blue negro cloth breeches, is remarkable for an excrescence near the little finger of each hand, much like another finger. If they are taken up in the country Ten Pounds reward will be given, and if in town Two Dollars, to whoever delivers them to the Warden of the Work-house or DONALD HARPER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 March 1775]

ISAAC; six fingers on each hand

Harper, Donald

RUN away on Monday the 13th of March instant, TWO NEGRO BOYS named Jacko and Isaac, both of yellowish complexion. Jacko is about four feet high, had on a blue negro cloth jacket and trowsers; Isaac had on a brown robing mended in the backs and blue negro cloth breeches, is remarkable for an excrescence near the little finger of each hand, much like another finger. If they are taken up in the country Ten Pounds reward will be given, and if in town Two Dollars, to whoever delivers them to the Warden of the Work-house or DONALD HARPER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 March 1775]

GUY

Wade, Richard; Lamboll, Thomas, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber, TWO NEGROES, viz. A Man named Guy, lately the property of Thomas Lamboll, Esq; supposed to be harboured by some of his acquaintances upon James Island, where he came from: A Wench named Phillis, lately the property of Thomas Adams of Wasmesaw [Wassamsaw?], and supposed to be gone there to her husband. I will give a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be informed of their being harbored by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro, to be paid upon conviction. RICHARD WADE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 March 1775]

PHILLIS

Wade, Richard; Adams, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber, TWO NEGROES, viz. A Man named Guy, lately the property of Thomas Lamboll, Esq; suppose to be harbored by some of his acquaintances upon James Island, where he came from: A Wench named Phillis, lately the property of Thomas Adams of Wasmesaw [Wassamsaw?], and supposed to be gone there to her husband. I will give a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be informed of their being harbored by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro, to be paid upon conviction. RICHARD WADE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 March 1775]

SAMSON; SAMPSON

Lambright, William

RUN away from my plantation in Prince William's Parish about the beginning of January last, a NEGRO MAN named SAMSON, about forty years old, full six feet high, country born, speaks good English, squints very much, has a very down look, and is of a yellowish complexion. Whoever takes up the said Negro and delivers him to the Warden of the Workhouse, at any of the Country Gaols, or to me in Prince William's Parish, shall have TWENTY POUNDS currency reward, besides all reasonable charges. I will give a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS like money on proof of his being harbored by a white person, and TWENTY FIVE POUNDS if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender. WILLIAM LAMBRIGHT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 April 1775]

MAY

Werner, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 April 1775]

See MAY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 13 March 1775.

CHARLES

Mitchell, John; Oats & Russel; Russell

RUN AWAY from one of my plantations on Thompson's Creek, a NEGRO MAN named CHARLES, lately bought from Messrs. Oats & Russel, one named JULY, and another named ANDREW, lately the Property of Mr. Walter in Dorchester. Any Person who delivers said Negroes to me at Meldrum, near the Cheraws, shall receive FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, and all lawful Charges. JOHN MITCHELL. May 2d, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]

JULY

Mitchell, John; Walter, Mr.

RUN AWAY from one of my plantations on Thompson's Creek, a NEGRO MAN named CHARLES, lately bought from Messrs. Oats & Russel, one named JULY, and another named ANDREW, lately the Property of Mr. Walter in Dorchester. Any Person who delivers said Negroes to me at Meldrum, near the Cheraws, shall receive FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, and all lawful Charges. JOHN MITCHELL. May 2d, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]

ANDREW

Mitchell, John; Walter, Mr.

RUN AWAY from one of my plantations on Thompson's Creek, a NEGRO MAN named CHARLES, lately bought from Messrs. Oats & Russel, one named JULY, and another named ANDREW, lately the Property of Mr. Walter in Dorchester. Any Person who delivers said Negroes to me at Meldrum, near the Cheraws, shall receive FIVE POUNDS Reward for each, and all lawful Charges. JOHN MITCHELL. May 2d, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]

NANNY

Croft, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]
See NANNY. South-Carolina Gazette (Timothy). 7 September 1775.

CUFFIE; CUFFEE; cooper

Manderson, John

RUN Away from the subscriber, a NEGRO MAN named CUFFIE, of a yellow complexion, about five feet eight inches high, speaks good English, and is a cooper by trade, had on a wrapper of white plains, he has a permit to pass from Georgetown, with one blanket and three iron squares, to Spott Mill near Cheraws Courthouse, but the ticket is now out of date. Any person that will deliver the above runaway to the gaoler of Georgetown or Cheraws, or secure him in any other gaol in the province, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS, and all charges paid by me, living at Spott Mill near Cheraws Courthouse. JOHN MANDERSON. April 21, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]

JOHN; b. West Indies

Savage, Nathan

RUN away from the subscriber about the 15th of March last, a NEGRO MAN named JOHN, born in the West-Indies, and speaks good English, is about five feet eight inches high, had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and leather breeches, is supposed to have gone to Charlestown to get on board some Vessel bound to some of the islands; he is about 28 years old. This is to forewarn all masters of vessels or other persons whatever from carrying such a negro off the province, on penalty of having the law Put in force against them. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency will be given to any person that will deliver the said negro to me in Prince Frederick's Parish, or to the gaoler in Georgetown; or TEN POUNDS to any person that will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. NATHAN SAVAGE. May 1st, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]

CUDJOE; CUDJO

Dickson, David

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]
See CUDJOE in other newspapers.

SAM

Hyrne, Edmund

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 May 1775]
See SAM in other newspapers.

JACK; sailor; wife: Kate

Bolton, James; Leger, Peter; Fenwicke, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber the 2d of April last, a NEGRO MAN named Jack, well known in both in town and country, as he has now gone in my boat about twenty years; he is squat and well set, about five feet five inches high, about 37 years old, very black, has the shin-bone of his right leg bigger than the left, occasioned by a small fracture; he can very well tell artful and plausible stories to avoid being caught, he is supposed to be lurking about the Horseshoe, where he has a wife named Kate at Mr. Peter Leger's plantation, at Mr. Fenwicke's Island, or about Charlestown, where he has many acquaintance, especially those in the coasting schooners, or at all these places alternately. Whoever apprehends the said fellow and brings him to me at Ashpoo, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS and reasonable charges, without any deduction being made if it should so happen that he is wounded in taking of him. JAMES BOLTON. N.B. All persons are forwarned from harbouring the said fellow, as they may depend on being prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 May 1775]

KATE; husband: Jack

Leger, Peter

RUN away from the subscriber the 2d of April last, a NEGRO MAN named Jack, well known in both in town and country, as he has now gone in my boat about twenty years; he is squat and well set, about five feet five inches high, about 37 years old, very black, has the shin-bone of his right leg bigger than the left. # occasioned by a small fracture; he can very well tell artful and plausible stories to avoid being caught, he is supposed to be lurking about the Horseshoe, where he has a wife named Kate at Mr. Peter Leger's plantation, at Mr. Fenwicke's Island, or about Charlestown, where he has many acquaintance, especially those in the coasting schooners, or at all these places alternately. Whoever apprehends the said fellow and brings him to me at Ashepoo, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS and reasonable charges, without any deduction being made if it should so happen that he is wounded in taking of him. JAMES BOLTON. N.B. All persons are forwarned from harbouring the said fellow, as they may depend on being prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 May 1775]

GUY

Wade, Richard; Lamboll, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber, THREE NEGROES, viz. A Man named Guy, lately the property of Thomas Lamboll, Esq; supposed to be harboured by some of his acquaintances upon James Island, where he came from: A Wench named Phillis, lately the property of Thomas Adams of Wasmessaw [Wassamsaw?], and supposed to be gone there to her husband: A Man named Ti (?), late the property of John-Sandford Dart, Esq. I will give a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be informed of their being harboured by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro, to be paid upon conviction. I will likewise give a reward of TEN DOLLARS for each of the said negroes delivered to the Warden of the work-house in Charlestown. RICHARD WADE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 May 1775]

PHILLIS

Wade, Richard; Adams, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber, THREE NEGROES, viz. A Man named Guy, lately the property of Thomas Lamboll, Esq; supposed to be harboured by some of his acquaintances upon James Island, where he came from: A Wench named Phillis, lately the property of Thomas Adams of Wasmessaw [Wassamsaw?], and supposed to be gone there to her husband: A Man named Ti (?), late the property of John-Sandford Dart, Esq. I will give a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be informed of their being harboured by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro, to be paid upon conviction. I will likewise give a reward of TEN DOLLARS for each of the said negroes delivered to the Warden of the work-house in Charlestown. RICHARD WADE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 May 1775]

ANONYMOUS MAN; TI?

Wade, Richard; Dart, John Sandford

RUN away from the subscriber, THREE NEGROES, viz. A Man named Guy, lately the property of Thomas Lamboll, Esq; supposed to be harboured by some of his acquaintances upon James Island, where he came from: A Wench named Phillis, lately the property of Thomas Adams of Wasmessaw [Wassamsaw?], and supposed to be gone there to her husband: A Man named Ti (?), late the property of John-Sandford Dart, Esq. I will give a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be informed of their being harboured by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS if by a negro, to be paid upon conviction. I will likewise give a reward of TEN DOLLARS for each of the said negroes delivered to the Warden of the work-house in Charlestown. RICHARD WADE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 May 1775]

JEMMY; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Hayes, James, gaoler

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. RUN away about the first of January last, TWO NEGRO MEN, viz. A fellow named Jemmy, but often changes his name; he is about five feet seven inches high, and about twenty-seven years old, smart, active and well made; round, full face, has lost one of his fore teeth, which causes him to stutter very much in talking; has his country marks on his arms, shoulder, neck and belly; had an iron clog on one of his legs when he went off. The other is named Boson, but will probably change it, he is a slim made fellow, about five feet ten inches high, and about thirty years old, down look, and a little on the yellow cast, talks a little English; they both had on old white negro cloth jackets and trowsers with brass buttons, and caps made of slips of white and green plains; it is thought they are gone up in the back country. Whoever secures the said Slaves and delivers them to the keeper of the gaol of Long-Bluff in said District, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges; and if they should be harboured by any white person, the above reward of One Hundred Pounds will be paid, on conviction of the offender, by JAMES HAYS, Gaoler.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 June 1775]

BOSUN; BOATSWAIN; b. Africa

Hayes, James, gaoler

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. RUN away about the first of January last, TWO NEGRO MEN, viz. A fellow named Jemmy, but often changes his name; he is about five feet seven inches high, and about twenty-seven years old, smart, active and well made; round, full face, has lost one of his fore teeth, which causes him to stutter very much in talking; has his country marks on his arms, shoulder, neck and belly; had an iron clog on one of his legs when he went off. The other is named Boson, but will probably change it, he is a slim made fellow, about five feet ten inches high, and about thirty years old, down look, and a little on the yellow cast, talks a little English; they both had on old white negro cloth jackets and trowsers with brass buttons, and caps made of slips of white and green plains; it is thought they are gone up in the back country. Whoever secures the said Slaves and delivers them to the keeper of the gaol of Long-Bluff in said District, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges; and if they should be harboured by any white person, the above reward of One Hundred Pounds will be paid, on conviction of the offender, by JAMES HAYS, Gaoler. Long Bluff, Peedee, May 10th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 June 1775]

CLITUS; DICK; b. West Indies; Jamaica

Hasford, Samuel; Heriot, Tucker & Co.

RUN away from the subscriber near Georgetown, a NEGRO FELLOW named CLITUS, but answers to the name of Dick, about five feet six inches high, born in Jamaica, speaks good English, and is very artful; had on, when he went away, a blue negro cloth jacket and green trowsers. I hereby offer a reward of TEN POUNDS currency, and all reasonable charges, to any person that will apprehend and deliver him to the workhouse in Charlestown, or to Messrs. HERIOT, TUCKER & Co. in Georgetown: And I hereby offer a further reward of THIRTY POUNDS to any person that will inform me of his being harboured by a white person; or if by a negro, TEN POUNDS to be paid on conviction. SAMUEL HASFORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 June 1775]

CUFFEE; CUFFIE

Cape, Brian; Wade, Richard

Charlestown, June 15th, 1775. RUN away from me a few days ago, a NEGRO MAN named Cuffee, well known in town, being formerly the property of Mr. Richard Wade. Whoever apprehends and delivers him to me, or the Warden of the Workhouse, shall be intitled to a Reward of FIVE POUNDS currency. If he returns of his own accord, his offence shall be forgiven. BRIAN CAPE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 June 1775]

JEMMY; mustee

Simpson, Rev.; Donnom, James; Carsan, James

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN Away from the Rev. Simpson's plantation at Saltketchers, after beating his driver, on Thursday the first of June, Jemmy, a MUSTEE FELLOW, the property of Mr. Simpson; he is artful, plausible and sensible, and very mild and soft spoken, unless when in Liquor, which he is fond of, middle aged and middle sized, sharp visaged, not flat nosed, which shews the Indian blood more than the negro, walks a little stooping, and is supposed to be gone to Charlestown. whoever apprehends and delivers him to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or at said Plantation, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS from JAMES CARSAN, or JAMES DONNOM.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 June 1775]

BRAVE-BOY

Rowand, Robert

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 June 1775]

See BRAVE BOY in other newspapers.

BILLY; WHITE-HAND BILLY*Rowand, Robert[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 June 1775]*

See WHITE HAND BILLY in other newspapers.

JOE; b. Africa; ritual scarification*Sleigh, Hugh, (d); Beatty, Francis

RAN Away, in April 1773, from the late Hugh Sleigh, deceased, a stout new NEGRO MAN, named JOE, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has a remarkable large beard, with his country marks down each side of his cheeks. He had on when he went away, a white negro cloth jacket and breeches, and a robing that buttoned on the side.

THIRTY POUNDS currency, and all reasonable charges, will be allowed on delivery of the said negro to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me on the Round O. FRANCIS BEATTY.

*[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 June 1775]JACK*Hort, William; Ferguson, Thomas, Esq.

RAN Away, the beginning of April last, a NEGRO FELLOW named JACK, about 5 feet 5 inches high, broad round shoulders and well set; has several scars on his shins, and a cut on the right side of his face near the upper lip; he has a surly countenance and is very artful; he is country born, and appears to be about 22 Years of age. He took away with him a variety of cloaths, particularly a suit of Russia drab, a suit of blue grey Yorkshire cloth, and a negro cloth great coat, all of which had on white metal buttons. Since his elopement he has been frequently seen in Charlestown, where he has a numerous acquaintance and is well known. He has for a wife a wench of Thomas Ferguson, Esq's, and probably may be found among some of her relations, or in the neighbourhood of Stono. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency, with all reasonable charges, will be paid on delivering him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, and a further reward of THIRTY POUNDS to any that will give information of his being harboured or taken off the province by a negro or mulatto, and FIFTY POUNDS if by a white person, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders. WILLIAM HORT.

*[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 June 1775]DOOR*Tweed, William; Linn, David, estate of

RUN Away from the subscriber, a NEGRO FELLOW, named DOOR, who lately belonged to the estate of David Linn at Hobcaw; he is a tall, well made fellow, of a yellowish complexion, pock-pitted, and has a little snuffle in his speech; he is well known at Hobcaw, where he has oftentimes been seen lately. TWENTY POUNDS reward will be given to any person who will deliver him to me or the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown. THIRTY POUNDS reward if he is harboured by a negro, and FIFTY if by a white person, to be paid on conviction of the offender. He is a sensible fellow, and speaks tolerable good English. WILLIAM TWEED.

*[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 4 August 1775]ABRAM; mestizo; market-man*Hambleton, William; Ladson, Mary, Mrs.; North, John

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Cheehaw, on the 12th instant, a stout well made FELLOW named ABRAM, of the mestizo breed, near six feet two inches high, country born, his dress unknown, formerly the property of Mrs. Mary Ladson on Ashley river, where he has many relations, is well known in Charlestown, where he has attended market, he has a wife on the Plantation late John North's, on the Great Swamp, where there is great reason to suspect he is harboured, as there is no white man on the plantation. EIGHT DOLLARS reward will be paid to any person that will deliver him to me at Cheehaw, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, with all reasonable charges; and FIFTY POUNDS on conviction of his being harboured by a white person, and TWENTY FIVE POUNDS, if by a negro. WILLIAM HAMBLETON. July 12th, 1775.

*[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 4 August 1775]KITT; BILLY; branded*Wayne, Richard; Clayton, Isham

RUN Away from the Subscriber, about three months ago, a NEGRO FELLOW named Kitt, he is branded on each breast, and each arm, with RW, the R reversed; the said fellow has been seen sundry times near Mr. Isham

Clayton's on Edisto River; and, as I am informed, called himself Billy. I will give ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency reward to any person that will prove the said fellow is harboured by a white person, and TWENTY POUNDS on proof of his being harboured by a free negro, mulatto or slave, to be paid on conviction of the offender, and whoever delivers the said negro fellow to me, on the Horse Shoe, shall have a reward of TEN POUNDS currency for their trouble, and all reasonable charges. RICHARD WAYNE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 September 1775]

JOHN; mulatto; carpenter

Hinds, Patrick

RUN away from the Subscriber, THREE NEGRO MEN; the first, his name is JOHN, he is a mulatto, about forty years of age, about five feet six inches high, a sensible fellow, a carpenter by trade, had on when he went away a gray and an osnaburgs coat with round brass buttons, good stockings and shoes, with round silver plated buckles; it is thought he is gone to his old range to Indian-Land or Combahee; The second, his name is SAM, a mustee, with a large bushy head of hair and a large belly, about five feet six inches high, about thirty years of age, had on when he went away a check shirt osnaburg petticoat trowsers, a shoemaker by trade, he formerly belonged-to Hollybush & Scotty and to Mr. John Weston: The third, his name is OLIVE, a yellow fellow, about twenty-one years of age, five feet six inches high, thick and punchy, very large feet, a shoemaker by trade, had on when he went away a blue jacket and breeches. Whoever takes up any of them shall have TEN POUNDS reward, besides all reasonable expences. PATRICK HINDS. September 25th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 September 1775]

See JOHN in other newspapers.

SAM; mustee; shoemaker

Hinds, Patrick; Weston, John; Hollybush & Scotty; Hollibush

RUN away from the Subscriber, THREE NEGRO MEN; the first, his name is JOHN, he is a mulatto, about forty years of age, about five feet six inches high, a sensible fellow, a carpenter by trade, had on when he went away a gray and an osnaburgs coat with round brass buttons, good stockings and shoes, with round silver plated buckles; it is thought he is gone to his old range to Indian-Land or Combahee; The second, his name is SAM, a mustee, with a large bushy head of hair and a large belly, about five feet six inches high, about thirty years of age, had on when he went away a check shirt osnaburg petticoat trowsers, a shoemaker by trade, he formerly belonged-to Hollybush & Scotty and to Mr. John Weston: The third, his name is OLIVE, a yellow fellow, about twenty-one years of age, five feet six inches high, thick and punchy, very large feet, a shoemaker by trade, had on when he went away a blue jacket and breeches. Whoever takes up any of them shall have TEN POUNDS reward, besides all reasonable expences. PATRICK HINDS. September 25th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 September 1775]

See SAM in other newspapers.

OLIVE (male); shoemaker

Hinds, Patrick

RUN away from the Subscriber, THREE NEGRO MEN; the first, his name is JOHN, he is a mulatto, about forty years of age, about five feet six inches high, a sensible fellow, a carpenter by trade, had on when he went away a gray and an osnaburgs coat with round brass buttons, good stockings and shoes, with round silver plated buckles; it is thought he is gone to his old range to Indian-Land or Combahee; The second, his name is SAM, a mustee, with a large bushy head of hair and a large belly, about five feet six inches high, about thirty years of age, had on when he went away a check shirt osnaburg petticoat trowsers, a shoemaker by trade, he formerly belonged-to Hollybush & Scotty and to Mr. John Weston: The third, his name is OLIVE, a yellow fellow, about twenty-one years of age, five feet six inches high, thick and punchy, very large feet, a shoemaker by trade, had on when he went away a blue jacket and breeches. Whoever takes up any of them shall have TEN POUNDS reward, besides all reasonable expences. PATRICK HINDS. September 25th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 September 1775]

JACK

M'Kimmy, William

Charlestown, October 6th, 1775. RUN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday last, a NEGRO FELLOW, named JACK, he is about 25 years of age, five feet nine inches high, speaks tolerable good English, is very artful and may endeavour to pass for a free negro; he may be very well known by the thumb of his right hand, as it has been disjointed and bruised, and since lies into his hand, he is very black complexioned. Whoever apprehends and delivers the said fellow to me in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency, and all reasonable charges paid, by WILLIAM M'KIMMY. N. B. All Masters of Vessels are forewarned from carrying off the province or employing the said negro, as they shall be answerable for the same according to law. Any person giving information of his being harboured or employed by any white person, shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS currency, on conviction of the offender.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 October 1775.]

PHILIP; b. East India

King, Isaac; Tufts, Captain; Mackenzie, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber, an EAST-INDIA BLACK BOY, named PHILIP, about nineteen years of age, pitted with the small-pox, has long black hair, and wore a brown cloth coat and waistcoat, with leather or fustian breeches: He was seen near Dorchester last Saturday, pretended his master's name was Mackenzie, and that he was going to a vessel at North-Edisto.

Whoever brings him to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to me, at Capt. Tuft's in Broad-street, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges. ISAAC KING.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 October 1775.]

HARRY

Howly, Richard

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Ashley river, on the eighth day of October instant, a NEGRO FELLOW, named HARRY, aged about twenty two years, five feet seven inches high; had on when he went off a check shirt, white stuff breeches and a black cloath waistcoat, with a baize great coat. Also, a WENCH, named LETTY, who was (enticed?) away, as is supposed, by the above mentioned fellow. The said wench is tall and well made and had different dresses; she carried away with her a Negro Child two years old. The fellow came to the plantation at night, and rode off with horses, since his departure. Whoever apprehends the said fellow or wench, and will lodge them with the Warden of the Workhouse, shall be intituled to a reward of TWENTY POUNDS; and if any person can give sufficient proof of their being harboured by a white person, the party shall receive Fifty Pounds reward, or if by a negro, Twenty Pounds. RICHARD HOWLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 October 1775.]

LETTY; 1 child

Howly, Richard

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Ashley river, on the eighth day of October instant, a NEGRO FELLOW, named HARRY, aged about twenty two years, five feet seven inches high; had on when he went off a check shirt, white stuff breeches and a black cloath waistcoat, with a baize great coat. Also, a WENCH, named LETTY, who was [enticed?] away, as is supposed, by the above mentioned fellow. The said wench is tall and well made and had different dresses; she carried away with her a Negro Child two years old. The fellow came to the plantation at night, and rode off with horses, since his departure. Whoever apprehends the said fellow or wench, and will lodge them with the Warden of the Workhouse, shall be intituled to a reward of TWENTY POUNDS; and if any person can give sufficient proof of their being harboured by a white person, the party shall receive Fifty Pounds reward, or if by a negro, Twenty Pounds. RICHARD HOWLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 October 1775.]

ANONYMOUS CHILD; mother: Letty

Howly, Richard

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Ashley river, on the eighth day of October instant, a NEGRO FELLOW, named HARRY, aged about twenty two years, five feet seven inches high; had on when he went off a check shirt, white stuff breeches and a black cloath waistcoat, with a baize great coat. Also, a WENCH, named LETTY, who was [enticed?] away, as is supposed, by the above mentioned fellow. The said wench is tall and well made and had different dresses; she carried away with her a Negro Child two years old. The fellow came to the plantation at night, and rode off with horses, since his departure. Whoever apprehends the said fellow or wench, and will lodge them with the Warden of the Workhouse, shall be intituled to a reward of TWENTY POUNDS; and if any person can give sufficient proof of their being harboured by a white person, the party shall receive Fifty Pounds reward, or if by a negro, Twenty Pounds. RICHARD HOWLY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 October 1775.]

HANNAH

Cape, Brian

Cainhoy, November 29th, 1775. RUN Away from me about a fortnight ago, a Negro Wench named Hannah, well known in town and country. Whoever delivers her to me, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have Five Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. BRIAN CAPE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

SHADWELL; schooner patroon; pilot

Walter, John Alleyne

RUN away on Saturday the 21st instant, from the subscriber's schooner, then lying near Lamboll's bridge, a NEGRO FELLOW, named SHADWELL. He is about five foot eight inches, stout and squat, speaks remarkable good English, has been a long time a patroon of a schooner, and is well acquainted with all the rivers and inlets to the southward of Charlestown. Whoever will apprehend and deliver the said fellow to the Warden of the Workhouse, or the subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward, with all reasonable charges. JOHN ALLEYNE WALTER. Oct. 27.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

JASPER

Stoutenburg, William; Manigault, Peter, Esq. (d)

RUN Away from the subscriber, in July last, a Negro Man named JASPER; he is a well set Fellow, about five feet high, stammers in his speech, and was lately the property of Peter Manigault, Esq; deceased. Whoever apprehends and delivers him to the subscriber, at his plantation in Prince William's parish, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, shall receive Ten Pounds reward. WILLIAM STOUTENBURGH.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

ABRAHAM; bricklayer; his murder solicited

Maxwell, William; Chambers, Lionel, Dr.; Tatnell, Josiah, Esq.; Mulryne, John, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Fellow named ABRAHAM, by trade a bricklayer, did formerly belong to John Mulryne, Esq; afterwards belonged to Josiah Tatnell, Esq; both of Georgia, and lastly to Dr. Lionel Chambers, of whom I purchased him; also a Negro fellow, named TOBY, remarkable for having one of his great Toes cut off. They are both artful and plausible, and will endeavour to impose upon people. TWENTY POUNDS will be given for each of their heads. Whoever harbours them may depend upon being prosecuted according to law. WILLIAM MAXWELL. October 27th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

See ABRAHAM in other newspapers.

TOBY; mutilated; his murder solicited

Maxwell, William

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Fellow named ABRAHAM, by trade a bricklayer, did formerly belong to John Mulryne, Esq; afterwards belonged to Josiah Tatnell, Esq; both of Georgia, and lastly to Dr. Lionel Chambers, of whom I purchased him; also a Negro fellow, named TOBY, remarkable for having one of his great Toes cut off. They are both artful and plausible, and will endeavour to impose upon people. TWENTY POUNDS will be given for each of their heads. Whoever harbours them may depend upon being prosecuted according to law. WILLIAM MAXWELL. October 27th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

PETER

Harrison, John; Stevens, Daniel

Parsonage, Ponpon, October 26th, 1775. RUN Away from the subscriber, the 20th instant, a likely, tall, thin, young Negro Man named PETER, lately bought of Mr. Daniel Stevens in Charlestown; he took with him a short docked Bay Horse, black mane and tail, with a star on his forehead, about fifteen hands high, in indifferent order, with a saddle and bridle. When he went away, he had on a light coloured surtout coat and osnaburg trousers.. Whoever delivers him or the horse to me, at the Parsonage, shall be handsomely rewarded. JOHN HARRISON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

JEMMY; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Rowe, Samuel

RUN Away from the subscriber, at Orangeburgh, on the 10th instant, a thick well made Negro Man named JEMMY, near thirty-five years of age, has his country marks on his cheeks, and has lost two of his fore teeth; had on when he went away, a blue broad cloth coat with red lining, an osnaburg shirt, and blue breeches; took away with him another suit of blue cloaths; speaks good English. If any person will apprehend the said negro, and bring him to me, if within thirty miles, shall receive a reward of Five Pounds current money; if above thirty miles a handsome reward will be given. I will also give a reward to any person that will inform me of his being harboured by any white person or negro, on conviction of the offender; and I do forewarn all persons from harbouring the said negro, as I am determined to prosecute the offender to the utmost rigour of the law. SAMUEL ROWE. November 18th, 1775.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

LONDON; ANTIGUA; b. Africa; ritual scarification; barber; hairdresser

Hutchings, Noy Willey; Wragg, Mr.

TEN POUNDS REWARD. ABSENTED himself from the subscriber, the 21st of September last, a NEGRO LAD named LONDON, but may assume the name of ANTIGUA, upwards of five feet high, his country marks on his breast, can shave and dress hair very well; had on, when he went away, a blue whitney jacket with sleeves, an under jacket and breeches of brown fustian, much worn, and check shirt, was seen on Wednesday, the 25th instant, on board a vessel at Wragg's wharf, unloading wood, and on being taxed with running away, made down in the cabbin. Ten Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person delivering the said negro to me in Charlestown; and Twenty Pounds to whoever will inform me of his being harboured, concealed or employed by a white person, and Ten Pounds, if by a negro, on conviction of the offender. NOY WILLEY HUTCHINGS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1775.]

DICK

Glegg, John; Cogdell, John

RUN Away from the subscriber, a young Negro Man, called DICK, about five feet some inches high, and is a little pock pitted; he had on when he went away, a spotted swanskin jacket, with black buttons, and an osnaburg shirt and trowsers. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow, and deliver him to me in Georgetown, or to Mr. John Cogdell in Charlestown, shall receive reward of Ten Pounds currency, and all reasonable charges paid. JOHN GLEGG

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 December 1775.]

BESS

Gordon, Thomas Knox; Cross, John

Charlestown, December (?), 1775. RUN away from the subscriber on Sunday the 10th instant a Negro wench named Bess, aged about 30 years, strong and well made, and of a very black complexion. She took away a reddish brick coloured callimancoe gown, almost new, and one of blue and white striped linnen. She was bought by the subscriber about two years ago, from Mr. John Cross, then of Charlestown, but now living near the Four Holes. Whoever will apprehend the said Wench and restore her to the subscriber at his house in Charlestown, shall be reasonably rewarded. THOMAS KNOX GORDON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 December 1775.]

SAM; b. South Carolina

Scott, Jonathan

RUN away from the subscriber, some time past, Two Negro Men Slaves, named SAM and PHILANDER; Sam is a yellow fellow about 30 years of age, near 6 feet high: Philander is a black short well set fellow, about 35 years old, both born in my kitchen, and well known in town and country; I hear they are skulking about Sullivan's Island. A reward of Ten Pounds will be paid for each, on delivery in the Workhouse, or if they come home of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. JONATHAN SCOTT.

PHILANDER; b. South Carolina
Scott, Jonathan

RUN away from the subscriber, some time past, Two Negro Men Slaves, named SAM and PHILANDER; Sam is a yellow fellow about 30 years of age, near 6 feet high: Philander is a black short well set fellow, about 35 years old, both born in my kitchen, and well known in town and country; I hear they are skulking about Sullivan's Island. A reward of Ten Pounds will be paid for each, on delivery in the Workhouse, or if they come home of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. JONATHAN SCOTT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 January 1776]

SAMPSON; b. Africa; ritual scarification; wife: Elsy; Elsey
Remington, Margaret; Cattell, Benjamin

RUN Away, on the 19th of December, the following Negroes, viz. a Negro Fellow named Sampson, about five feet eight inches high, had on a new large blue great coat, and his country marks in his face; his wife Elsy, about six feet high, had on a callico and blue negro cloth gown, and white flannel jacket, this country born, and has a mother at Mr. Benjamin Cattell's plantation; also a Negro Wench named Phillis, had on a red and white callico gown, a black quilted coat, and her country marks on her face, well known in town and country, as they sold oysters upwards of ten years in town, supposed to be harboured by her mother. A reward of Five Pounds for each, on delivering them to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown; a reward of Twenty Pounds if harboured by a white person, and Ten Pounds if by a negro, on conviction of the same. MARGARET REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 January 1776]

ELSY; ELSEY; ELSIE; husband: Sampson; oyster-seller
Remington, Margaret; Cattell, Benjamin

RUN Away, on the 19th of December, the following Negroes, viz. a Negro Fellow named Sampson, about five feet eight inches high, had on a new large blue great coat, and his country marks in his face; his wife Elsy, about six feet high, had on a callico and blue negro cloth gown, and white flannel jacket, this country born, and has a mother at Mr. Benjamin Cattell's plantation; also a Negro Wench named Phillis, had on a red and white callico gown, a black quilted coat, and her country marks on her face, well known in town and country, as they sold oysters upwards of ten years in town, supposed to be harboured by her mother. A reward of Five Pounds for each, on delivering them to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown; a reward of Twenty Pounds if harboured by a white person, and Ten Pounds if by a negro, on conviction of the same. MARGARET REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 January 1776]

See ELSY or ELSEY in other newspapers.

PHILLIS; b. Africa; ritual scarification; oyster-seller
Remington, Margaret; Cattell, Benjamin

RUN Away, on the 19th of December, the following Negroes, viz. a Negro Fellow named Sampson, about five feet eight inches high, had on a new large blue great coat, and his country marks in his face; his wife Elsy, about six feet high, had on a callico and blue negro cloth gown, and white flannel jacket, this country born, and has a mother at Mr. Benjamin Cattell's plantation; also a Negro Wench named Phillis, had on a red and white callico gown, a black quilted coat, and her country marks on her face, well known in town and country, as they sold oysters upwards of ten years in town, supposed to be harboured by her mother. A reward of Five Pounds for each, on delivering them to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown; a reward of Twenty Pounds if harboured by a white person, and Ten Pounds if by a negro, on conviction of the same. MARGARET REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 January 1776.]

See PHILLIS in other newspapers.

GEORGE; coasting sailor
Bacot, William; Harper, Thomas; Edwards, William

RUN Away from the Subscriber, a Negro Fellow named George, well known in town and country, being used to the coasting business for these many years past, wears his beard very long, supposed to be about thirty-five or forty years of age. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse, in Charlestown, to Mr. Thomas Harper, Jeweller, in Broad-street, or to Mr. William Edwards, in St. Thomas's parish, shall have Five Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. WILLIAM BACOT. N.B. He has been seen several times in town.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 February 1776]

CHLOE; CLOE; mustee

Chicken, William

RUN Away, a Mustee Wench named Cloe, belonging to the Subscriber at Santee, her hair cut short, and has lost some of her foreteeth, supposed to be about thirty-five or forty years of age. Whoever will deliver her to the Warden of the Work-house, in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber at Santee, shall have Five Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. WILLIAM CHICKEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 February 1776]

ANDREW

M'Call, John, Captain; Carne, Mr.

RUN Away from Crowfield, a young Negro Man named Andrew, about five feet six inches high, had on when he went away, white negro cloth coat and breeches, is shrewd and sensible. Whoever apprehends the said negro, and delivers him to Mr. Carne at Capt. John M'Call's, Crowfield, or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall be handsomely rewarded; and all who harbour or entertain the said negro will be dealt with according to law.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 February 1776]

JEMMY

Hagget, Mr., estate of ; Carne, Mr.; Weston, Plowden; Cattell, William; Hasford, Mr.

RUN Away from the Subscriber's Plantation on Waccamaw-Neck, three Negro Men, named JEMMY, BUNGY, and PORT-ROYAL; JEMMY is of a yellowish complexion, very straight and strong, and about six feet high; BUNGY a short black fellow, well made and strong, both country born, and very sensible, had on and carried with them, when they went away a deal of cloaths, amongst which was a new suit of blue, with striped flannel robings and white boots. These fellows are a part of Mr. Haggett's estate, and bought from Mr. Carne, and are probably out at Crowfield, or William Cattell, Esqr's, plantation on Ashley-river, where Bungy has, or had a wife. They were lately at Wandoo [sic; Wando]. PORTROYAL a black fellow of a middle size, and stout, has been out several months, had on when he went away, an iron on each leg, and is branded on each breast PW, he is a cunning fellow, has absented himself several times before, and when taken last was on the borders of North-Carolina, where he probably may be. TWENTY POUNDS reward is offered for each of the above fellows, upon their being delivered to Mr. Hasford, at Waccamaw, to the Warden of the work house in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber. If they return of their own accord they shall be forgiven. All Persons whatsoever are cautioned against harbouring the above Negroes, as they shall answer it at their Peril. PLOWDEN WESTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 February 1776]

BUNGY

Hagget, Mr., estate of ; Carne, Mr.; Weston, Plowden; Cattell, William; Hasford, Mr.

RUN Away from the Subscriber's Plantation on Waccamaw-Neck, three Negro Men, named JEMMY, BUNGY, and PORT-ROYAL; JEMMY is of a yellowish complexion, very straight and strong, and about six feet high; BUNGY a short black fellow, well made and strong, both country born, and very sensible, had on and carried with them, when they went away a deal of cloaths, amongst which was a new suit of blue, with striped flannel robings and white boots. These fellows are a part of Mr. Haggett's estate, and bought from Mr. Carne, and are probably out at Crowfield, or William Cattell, Esqr's, plantation on Ashley-river, where Bungy has, or had a wife. They were lately at Wandoo [sic; Wando]. PORTROYAL a black fellow of a middle size, and stout, has been out several months, had on when he went away, an iron on each leg, and is branded on each breast PW, he is a cunning fellow, has absented himself several times before, and when taken last was on the borders of North-Carolina, where he probably may be. TWENTY POUNDS reward is offered for each of the above fellows, upon their being delivered to Mr. Hasford, at Waccamaw, to the Warden of the work house in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber. If they return of their own accord they shall be forgiven. All Persons whatsoever are cautioned against harbouring the above Negroes, as they shall answer it at their Peril. PLOWDEN WESTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 February 1776]

PORTROYAL; branded*Hagget, Mr., estate of ; Carne, Mr.; Weston, Plowden; Cattell, William; Hasford, Mr.

RUN Away from the Subscriber's Plantation on Waccamaw-Neck, three Negro Men, named JEMMY, BUNGY, and PORT-ROYAL; JEMMY is of a yellowish complexion, very straight and strong, and about six feet high; BUNGY a short black fellow, well made and strong, both country born, and very sensible, had on and carried with them, when they went away a deal of cloaths, amongst which was a new suit of blue, withs triped flannel robings and white boots. These fellows are a part of Mr. Haggett's estate, and bought from Mr. Carne, and are probably out at Crowfield, or William Cattell, Esqr's, plantation on Ashley-river, where Bungy has, or had a wife. They were lately at Wandoo [sic; Wando]. PORTROYAL a black fellow of a middle size, and stout, has been out several months, had on when he went away, an iron on each leg, and is branded on each breast PW, he is a cunning fellow, has absented himself several times before, and when taken last was on the borders of North-Carolina, where he probably may be. TWENTY POUNDS reward is offered for each of the above fellows, upon their being delivered to Mr. Hasford, at Waccamaw, to the Warden of the work house in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber. If they return of their own accord they shall be forgiven. All Persons whatsoever are cautioned against harbouring the above Negroes, as they shall answer it at their Peril.

PLOWDEN WESTON.[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 February 1776]DINAH*Calwell; Henry; Coachman, Benjamin, Jr.; Singleton, Rebecca, Mrs.

RUN away from the subscriber the 20th of October last a Negro Wench named DINAH, formerly the property of Mrs. Rebecca Singleton of Goosecreek, and lately purchased of Mr. Benjamin Coachman, jun.; had on when she went away, a white Negro Cloth Jacket and Coat, a stout Wench, lost two of her upper Fore-teeth. One Hundred Pounds Reward will be given to any Person that will give information of her being harboured by a White Persons and Twenty Pounds if by a Negro, on conviction of the same, also a Reward of Ten Pounds to any Person that will deliver her to the Warden of the Work-House in Charlestown. HENRY CALWELL.

*[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 March 1776]AMELIA*Stoutenburg, William

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Wench named Amelia, who is sufficiently well known in Charlestown, where I have great reason to suspect she is harboured. Ten Pounds Reward will be paid on her being delivered to the Warden of the Workhouse, or the Subscriber, who is determined to prosecute every Person who may be convicted of harbouring her, with the greatest Rigour. WILLIAM STOUTENBURGH.

*[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 March 1776.]PRINCE*Radcliffe, Thomas[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 March 1776.]*

See PRINCE in other newspapers.

JACOB*Radcliffe, Thomas[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 March 1776]*

See JACOB in other newspapers.

SAM*Sommers, Humphrey[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 March 1776]*

See SAM in other newspapers.

ELIJAH; b. Virginia*Burnley, John; LePoole, Peter

FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD, FOR taking up a Negro Fellow named ELIJAH, who absented himself from me the 27th of last February; he is a very likely fellow, of a yellowish complexion, and might be taken for a dark mulatto, is about six feet one inch high, is about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, has lost some of his upper fore teeth, is very sensible, speaks very good English, was born in Virginia, from whence he has been a short time, and may attempt to return there; as to his apparel, cannot describe it, as he is often changing it. Whoever takes up the said Fellow and delivers him to Mr. Peter Le Poole, Merchant in Charlestown, or secures him in any publick gaol, so that I get him, shall receive the above mentioned reward, with all reasonable charges, or if information can be given of his being harboured or employed by any white or black person, which I have reason to suspect he is in Charlestown, TWENTY POUNDS will be paid on conviction. JOHN BURNLEY. March 6th, 1776.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 April 1776]

POMPEY; ship's-carpenter

Imrie, John; Fenwicke, Mr.

RUN Away from the subscriber a Negro Fellow, named POMPEY, a ship carpenter by trade, stout and well made, had on when he went away a fearnought coat and a Dutch hat. I was on my way to St. Helena to have some livestock (removed?) that has been (pastured?) there for these four years last past, it was on Mr. Fenwicke's Island that he made his escape. Whoever will take said fellow, and deliver him to the warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, shall have Two Dollars reward, and all reasonable Expences, from JOHN IMRIE. I also hereby forewarn any captain or master of any ship or vessel not to carry off, or encourage, the said negro fellow, as he is very cunning, and can tell a fine story; he is country born, and speaks good English.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1776]

LETITIA; b. South Carolina

Williams, Robert, Jr.; Jackson, George

RAN Away, lately, from the Subscriber's plantation, on Charlestown Neck, a Negro Wench, named Letitia, who is about 18 years of age, middle sized, with a scar in one cheek; and then had on a purple and white striped camblet gown, and brown worsted petticoat, and formerly belonged to George Jackson, in Ponpon, where she has several relations, and a numerous acquaintance, among whom it is suspected, she is harboured. The above negro was born in this Province, is very intelligent, and well known in Charlestown. Any person apprehending and delivering the said negro to the Warden of the Work house, or to the keeper of any of the country gaols, shall be entitled to a reward of Ten Pounds, besides all lawful charges; and those who carry her over ferries, or conceal her, may depend on the severest prosecution. ROBERT WILLIAMS, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1776]

BRISTOL

Walter, John Alleyne

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1776]

See BRISTOL in other newspapers; owner, JOHN ALLEN [sic] WALTER.

JUNE (male); market-man; ferryman

Simons, Benjamin; Witter, James

RUN away about the first of April last, a stout, well made Negro Man named JUNE, formerly belonging to James Witter of James Island, and used to attend the Market, but was employed in the Ferryboat from Scott's Ferry in Town; he has been seen in Town, where he is harboured, and on James Island. Ten Pounds Reward will be paid to whoever will apprehend and deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse. BENJAMIN SIMONS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1776]

BELLA

Ladson, Thomas

RUN away from the Subscriber, three months ago, a Negro Wench named Bella, of a yellowish complexion, country born, and has a remarkable scar on her nose, by which she may be easily known. Ten Pounds currency will be given to any person that will deliver her to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, or to me in John's Island. THOMAS LADSON. N.B. The said Wench, about two years ago absented herself from my service, and took in washing in Charlestown, of which she is very capable and passes as a free person. I will give a further reward of Fifty Pounds to any that will give information of her being harboured by a white person and Twenty Pounds if by a negro. April 15, 1776.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1776]

JENNY; 1 child

Hort, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 May 1776]

See JENNY and HER CHILD in other newspapers.

ANONYMOUS CHILD; mother: Jenny

Hort, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 May 1776]

See JENNY and HER CHILD in other newspapers.

CUFFEE; CUFFY; CUFFIE

Macarty, Corm[ac?]; Harvey, John

RUN away, about a Month ago, a Negro Fellow called Cuffee, had on white negro cloth jacket and breeches, country born, near six feet high, pitted with the small pox, formerly belonged to Mr. John Harvey, well known in Charlestown, where it is said he has a mother living: Ten Pounds currency, besides reasonable charges, will be given to any person that delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me on St. Helena, or to any place that I may get him again. CORM. MACARTY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

GAMBE; b. Africa; field-hand

Shrewsbury, Stephen; Poyas, John Ernest

RUN away on the 14th of May inst. a Negro Fellow, named Gambe, about 5 feet 9 inches high, speaks bad English, has been used to work in the field, and formerly belonged to Mr. John Ernest Poyas; he is well known in town and neighbourhood. Five Pounds Reward will be given to any person who will apprehend and deliver him at my plantation near the Quarter-house, to STEPHEN SHREWSBURY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

TENA; TENAH; TINAH

Roberts, William; King, James; Maxwell, William

RUN away from the Subscriber, since the month of June last, a Negro Wench, named TENA, formerly the property of Mr. James King, of a black complexion, and likely, well known in and near Charlestown, can tell a very plausible story; she was taken away from my plantation by Toby, a fellow belonging to Mr. William Maxwell, and has since been seen in Christ Church Parish, and near Mr. Maxwell's plantations to the Southward; Twenty Pounds reward, with reasonable charges will be given for the delivery of her to the Warden of the Workhouse, and One Hundred Pounds, on conviction of her being harboured by a white person, and Twenty Five Pounds, if by a negro. Also, about eight weeks ago, a Negro Fellow named PETER, formerly the property of Mr. Joseph Hutchins, and late of Capt. Jeremiah Dickinson; remarkably thick lipped, has one of his upper foreteeth out, and is very artful: It is imagined he is harboured by some of his acquaintances at Mr. Hutchins's, or about town. A reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid to any person who will give information of his being harboured by a white person, and Twenty five Pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offenders, also Twenty Pounds will be paid on the delivery of him to the Warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, besides reasonable charges. WILLIAM ROBERTS.

N.B. If either of them will return home of their own accord, they will be forgiven, and will have leave to look for a master where they shall choose.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

TOBY

Maxwell, William; Roberts, William

RUN away from the Subscriber, since the month of June last, a Negro Wench, named TENA, formerly the property of Mr. James King, of a black complexion, and likely, well known in and near Charlestown, can tell a very plausible story; she was taken away from my plantation by Toby, a fellow belonging to Mr. William Maxwell, and has since been seen in Christ Church Parish, and near Mr. Maxwell's plantations to the Southward; Twenty Pounds reward, with reasonable charges will be given for the delivery of her to the Warden of the Workhouse, and One Hundred Pounds, on conviction of her being harboured by a white person, and Twenty Five Pounds, if by a negro. Also, about eight weeks ago, a Negro Fellow named PETER, formerly the property of Mr. Joseph Hutchins, and late of Capt. Jeremiah Dickinson; remarkably thick lipped, has one of his upper foreteeth out, and is very artful: It is imagined he is harboured by some of his acquaintances at Mr. Hutchins's, or about town. A reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid to any person who will give information of his being harboured by a white person, and Twenty five Pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offenders, also Twenty Pounds will be paid on the delivery of him to the Warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, besides reasonable charges. WILLIAM ROBERTS. N.B. If either of them will return home of their own accord, they will be forgiven, and will have leave to look for a master where they shall choose.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

PETER

Roberts, William; Dickinson, Jeremiah, Captain; Hutchins, Joseph

RUN away from the Subscriber, since the month of June last, a Negro Wench, named TENA, formerly the property of Mr. James King, of a black complexion, and likely, well known in and near Charlestown, can tell a very plausible story; she was taken away from my plantation by Toby, a fellow belonging to Mr. William Maxwell, and has since been seen in Christ Church Parish, and near Mr. Maxwell's plantations to the Southward; Twenty Pounds reward, with reasonable charges will be given for the delivery of her to the Warden of the Workhouse, and One Hundred Pounds, on conviction of her being harboured by a white person, and Twenty Five Pounds, if by a negro. Also, about eight weeks ago, a Negro Fellow named PETER, formerly the property of Mr. Joseph Hutchins, and late of Capt. Jeremiah Dickinson; remarkably thick lipped, has one of his upper foreteeth out, and is very artful: It is imagined he is harboured by some of his acquaintances at Mr. Hutchins's, or about town. A reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid to any person who will give information of his being harboured by a white person, and Twenty five Pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offenders, also Twenty Pounds will be paid on the delivery of him to the Warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, besides reasonable charges. WILLIAM ROBERTS.

N.B. If either of them will return home of their own accord, they will be forgiven, and will have leave to look for a master where they shall choose.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

ANTHONY; b. South Carolina; James Island

Roch, Alexander; Prioleau, Samuel, Sr.; Horn, Alexander

RUN away from the Subscriber, the 3d day of January last, three Negro Fellows, viz. ANTHONY, BRISTOL and JACK; ANTHONY is about 25 years of age, was born on James-Island, and has a mother in Charlestown, is well known in both places; he was late the property of Mr. Samuel Prioleau, sen. BRISTOL is a short, squat made fellow, with a large bushy beard, broad face and stout made, about 35 years old; he used to work with Messrs. Bordeaux & Co. in Charlestown, is a porter, and is well known about town, he is of the Guinea country; JACK,

Jamaica born, a young fellow, about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high straight and well made, had a cut in one of his legs, was bought a short time before, in the gaol of Charlestown, of Alexander Rose, Esq; and was sent up here to my care, to be transmitted to his master, William Henry Mills, Esq; at the Cheraws. Twenty Pounds reward, is offered for each of the above fellows, on delivery of them to me, to Mr. ALEXANDER HORN, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown: If they return of their own accord they shall be forgiven. All persons whatsoever are cautioned against harbouring the above slaves, as they shall answer at their peril. ALEXANDER ROCH. Georgetown, May 18th.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

BRISTOL; b. Africa; Guinea; porter

Roch, Alexander; Bordeaux & Co.; Horn, Alexander

RUN away from the Subscriber, the 3d day of January last, three Negro Fellows, viz. ANTHONY, BRISTOL and JACK; ANTHONY is about 25 years of age, was born on James-Island, and has a mother in Charlestown, is well known in both places; he was late the property of Mr. Samuel Prioleau, sen. BRISTOL is a short, squat made fellow, with a large bushy beard, broad face and stout made, about 35 years old; he used to work with Messrs. Bordeaux & Co. in Charlestown, is a porter, and is well known about town, he is of the Guinea country; JACK,

Jamaica born, a young fellow, about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high straight and well made, had a cut in one of his legs, was bought a short time before, in the gaol of Charlestown, of Alexander Rose, Esq; and was sent up here to my care, to be transmitted to his master, William Henry Mills, Esq; at the Cheraws. Twenty Pounds reward, is offered for each of the above fellows, on delivery of them to me, to Mr. ALEXANDER HORN, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown: If they return of their own accord they shall be forgiven. All persons whatsoever are cautioned against harbouring the above slaves, as they shall answer at their peril. ALEXANDER ROCH. Georgetown, May 18th.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

JACK; b. West Indies; Jamaica

Mills, William Henry; Roch, Alexander; Rose, Alexander; Horn, Alexander

RUN away from the Subscriber, the 3d day of January last, three Negro Fellows, viz. ANTHONY, BRISTOL and JACK; ANTHONY is about 25 years of age, was born on James-Island, and has a mother in Charlestown, is well known in both places; he was late the property of Mr. Samuel Prioleau, sen. BRISTOL is a short, squat made fellow, with a large bushy beard, broad face and stout made, about 35 years old; he used to work with Mess. Bordeaux & Co. in Charlestown, is a porter, and is well known about town, he is of the Guinea country; JACK,

Jamaica born, a young fellow, about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high straight and well made, had a cut in one of his legs, was bought a short time before, in the gaol of Charlestown, of Alexander Rose, Esq; and was sent up here to my care, to be transmitted to his master, William Henry Mills, Esq; at the Cheraws. Twenty Pounds reward, is offered for each of the above fellows, on delivery of them to me, to Mr. ALEXANDER HORN, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown: If they return of their own accord they shall be forgiven. All persons whatsoever are cautioned against harbouring the above slaves, as they shall answer at their peril. ALEXANDER ROCH. Georgetown, May 18th.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 May 1776]

JOSHUA; JOSH; tanner

Fitzpatrick, Edmond; Stewart, James, estate of; Hopton, Mr.

RUN Away from the subscriber sometime ago, a Negro Fellow named JOSHUA, or JOSH, a short squat thin made fellow, belonging to the estate of James Stewart, tanner, deceased, about 28 or 30 years of age, has been working in Mr. Hopton's tan-yard at Ansonborough, for several years. Whoever will deliver him to me, at Mr. Hopton's tan-yard in Ansonborough, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive Five Pounds reward, besides all reasonable expences. And any Person informing of his being harboured by a white man shall receive a further Reward of Twenty Pounds, if by a negro of Ten Pounds. EDMOND FITZPATRICK. August 12th, 1776.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 August 1776.]

ELIJAH; b. Virginia; blacksmith

LePoole, Peter

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber in June last, a very likely Negro Fellow named ELIJAH, of a yellow complexion, is Virginia born, and speaks with the accent of that country; he is about five feet ten or eleven inches high, and about 22 or 23 Years of age, by trade a Blacksmith, an excellent workman at that business. He had on when he went away a scarlet camblet waistcoat, buckskin breeches almost new, an osnaburg shirt and a leather jockey cap. It is supposed, as he is an artful sensible fellow, that he will endeavor to pass for a free man, but all persons are hereby forbid to harbour him on any pretence whatsoever, as any person so offending may depend on the severest prosecution. The above reward of Fifty Pounds currency will be given to any person that will apprehend and deliver the said fellow to the subscriber, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, besides all reasonable charges, provided he is taken out of this province. If the said fellow is harbored by any white person a further reward of one Hundred Pounds, and if by a negro of Fifty Pounds, will be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders. PETER LEPOOLE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 August 1776]

PENELOPE; NIPPE; son: Jacob; daughter: Doll

Harrison, John; Liddle, John, estate of

RUN away from the Subscriber, at Jacksonburgh, a Negro Wench named Penelope, alias Nippe, with her children, named Jacob and Doll; they were purchased from the Estate of John Liddle, deceased, at the Round O: Penelope is a short, well made, yellow complexioned wench, with some freckles on her face, her son Jacob is about 8 years old, black complexion; her daughter Doll is about 6, both tolerable well grown: They were seen two miles on this side the Saw Mills. Whoever will secure them in any of the country gaols, shall receive

Fifty Pounds currency reward. Also runaway, a Negro Man named Hannibal, well set, rather short, aged about 24, of a yellow complexion, and of the [illegible] country, purchased from the same Estate. Whoever will secure him in any of the country gaols shall receive Five Pounds currency reward from JOHN HARRISON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1776]

JACOB; mother: Penelope; Nippe; sister: Doll

Harrison, John; Liddle, John, estate of

RUN away from the Subscriber, at Jacksonburgh, a Negro Wench named Penelope, alias Nippe, with her children, named Jacob and Doll; they were purchased from the Estate of John Liddle, deceased, at the Round O: Penelope is a short, well made, yellow complexioned wench, with some freckles on her face, her son Jacob is about 8 years old, black complexion; her daughter Doll is about 6, both tolerable well grown: They were seen two miles on this side the Saw Mills. Whoever will secure them in any of the country gaols, shall receive Fifty Pounds currency reward. Also runaway, a Negro Man named Hannibal, well set, rather short, aged about 24, of a yellow complexion, and of the (?) country, purchased from the same Estate. Whoever will secure him in any of the country gaols shall receive Five Pounds currency reward from JOHN HARRISON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1776]

DOLL; mother: Penelope; Nippe; brother: Jacob

Harrison, John; Liddle, John, estate of

RUN away from the Subscriber, at Jacksonburgh, a Negro Wench named Penelope, alias Nippe, with her children, named Jacob and Doll; they were purchased from the Estate of John Liddle, deceased, at the Round O: Penelope is a short, well made, yellow complexioned wench, with some freckles on her face, her son Jacob is about 8 years old, black complexion; her daughter Doll is about 6, both tolerable well grown: They were seen two miles on this side the Saw Mills. Whoever will secure them in any of the country gaols, shall receive Fifty Pounds currency reward. Also runaway, a Negro Man named Hannibal, well set, rather short, aged about 24, of a yellow complexion, and of the (?) country, purchased from the same Estate. Whoever will secure him in any of the country gaols shall receive Five Pounds currency reward from JOHN HARRISON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1776.]

HANNIBAL; b. Africa

Harrison, John; Liddle, John, estate of

RUN away from the Subscriber, at Jacksonburgh, a Negro Wench named Penelope, alias Nippe, with her children, named Jacob and Doll; they were purchased from the Estate of John Liddle, deceased, at the Round O: Penelope is a short, well made, yellow complexioned wench, with some freckles on her face, her son Jacob is about 8 years old, black complexion; her daughter Doll is about 6, both tolerable well grown: They were seen two miles on this side the Saw Mills. Whoever will secure them in any of the country gaols, shall receive Fifty Pounds currency reward. Also runaway, a Negro Man named Hannibal, well set, rather short, aged about 24, of a yellow complexion, and of the (?) country, purchased from the same Estate. Whoever will secure him in any of the country gaols shall receive Five Pounds currency reward from JOHN HARRISON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1776.]

TOM; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Begbie & Menson

RUN Away from the subscribers, a Negro Fellow, named Tom, has his country marks on his face, [he] is about five feet eight inches high. Whoever delivers him to us at Hobcaw, or the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, shall be rewarded for their Trouble. BEGBIE & MENSON

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1776.]

JACOB

Barksdale, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

See JACOB in other newspapers..

FRIDAY; b. Africa; ritual scarification?

Brickin, James

RUN away from the subscriber on Monday September 9, a Negro Fellow named Friday, between 30 and 40 Years old, of a sulky look, marked or cut like R upon his upper lip, about 5 feet 10 inches high, does not speak English. Whoever brings the said Negro Fellow to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to me in Bedon's Alley, shall receive Ten Pounds currency, and all reasonable charges, from JAMES BRICKIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

TOM; b. Pennsylvania?; lived Philadelphia; waiting-boy

Radcliffe, Thomas, Jr.

RUN away from the subscriber about the latter end of June last, a Negro Boy named TOM, about 14 or 15 years of age, of a yellowish complexion and pitted with the smallpox, has a short chubbed nose, and has lost two or three of his fore teeth. He is well made, and speaks very good English, is very sharp and handy, and was brought up to house work in Philadelphia, and from his past tricks it is imagined he will change his name and pass for one that has been out on hire, &c. He had on when he went away a negro cloth robing or jacket without skirts and breeches of the same. It is supposed he keeps about Sullivan's Island, the Fort or some of the out camps, and will endeavour to get employed as a waiting boy, as he has often of late been seen at the first place, and taken once, but made his escape. This is therefore to offer a reward of FIVE POUNDS and all reasonable charges to any person that will apprehend the said boy and deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse or the subscriber in Charlestown, and if any person will inform of his being harboured by a white person shall receive Twenty Pounds, or if by a black Ten Pounds, on conviction of the offender or offenders. THOMAS RADCLIFFE, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

ABERDEEN

Thomson, George

RUN away from the subscriber on Tuesday, August 20th, a Negro Boy named Aberdeen, stout and well made, had on a suit of blue livery turned up with red, remarkable for having lost one of his upper foreteeth, is about 14 years old, and well known in town. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse shall have Five Pounds reward. GEORGE THOMSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

MILLA

Sched, Abraham

RUN away from the subscriber a Negro Wench named Milla; she is about 5 feet 3 inches high, of a black complexion, speaks very good English. Any Person who will deliver the said wench to the Warden of the Workhouse shall receive Fifteen Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. ABRAHAM SCHED.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

TONEY

Morris, George

RUN away from the subscriber, the 19th of August, two Negroes named Toney and Nanny; Toney is about 5 feet 3 inches high, a well made fellow between 30 and 40 Years of Age, had on when he went away a white osnaburgs shirt and trowsers and blue jacket. Nanny is about 15 years of age, about 5 feet high, had on when she went away a white wrapper, and coat with blue binding; she has a scar on her right cheek. A reward of Five Pounds will be given for each, and all reasonable charges paid by GEORGE MORRIS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

NANNY

Morris, George

RUN away from the subscriber, the 19th of August, two Negroes named Toney and Nanny; Toney is about 5 feet 3 inches high, a well made fellow between 30 and 40 Years of Age, had on when he went away a white osnaburgs shirt and trowsers and blue jacket. Nanny is about 15 years of age, about 5 feet high, had on when she went away a white wrapper, and coat with blue binding; she has a scar on her right cheek. A reward of Five Pounds will be given for each, and all reasonable charges paid by GEORGE MORRIS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1776.]

DANIEL

Mitchell, John

RUN away from the subscriber about the 20th of June last a Negro Lad named Daniel, country born, about 5 feet

5 or 6 inches high, slim made, large eyes, had on when he went away a Negro cloth jacket and osnaburbs breeches, supposed to be harboured somewhere on Santee, where his mother lives. A reward of Twenty Pounds and all reasonable charges will be paid on his being delivered to me in Georgetown or the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown. JOHN MITCHELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1776.]

CHARLES; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification; stocking-weaver; speaks English and French
Giraud, Peter; Guerard; Girard; Gero; Gerrow; Garo

RAN away from the subscriber October 10, 1776, a likely young Negro Man named Charles, of the Guiney country, has his country marks on his two cheeks like four cuts along his cheeks, had when he went away an old osnaburbs jacket and breeches and a straw hat, speaks good English and pretty good French, is a stocking-weaver by trade. Whoever will apprehend the said Negro Man, and will deliver him to the subscriber living upon the Path or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive a reward of Five POUNDS currency. I forewarn every body from harbouring or employing the said negro fellow, as any person so offending will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. PETER GIRAUD [sic; Guerard].

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 October 1776.]

PRINCE
Wells, Dr.

RAN away about three weeks ago from Dr. Wells's plantation on John's Island, a young Negro Fellow named PRINCE, about five feet six inches high, had his toes frost bitten which obliges him always to wear shoes. Whoever will deliver the said fellow to Dr. Wells on John's Island, to the Warden of the Workhouse or the Printers in Charlestown, shall receive Five Pounds reward. if he will return home, past offences will be forgiven.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 October 1776; 24 September 1778, by John Wells, Jr.; 17 February 1781, by John Wells, Jr.]

WATTIE; hairdresser
M'Crady, Edward

RUN away from the subscriber about two months ago, a likely negro lad, about seventeen years old, speaks good English, and is an exceeding good hair dresser, is known in town by the name of Wattie, had on when he absconded, a black jacket and brown breeches. Whoever delivers the said negro boy either to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to me on the Bay, shall receive Ten Pounds reward, besides other reasonable charges, by EDWARD M'CRADY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 November 1776.]

CAESAR; tailor
Ward, John

RUN away from the Subscriber the middle of December last, a Negro Man named Caesar, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, of a very black complexion, has a large nose. Also runaway this day, two Negro Men named Fortune and Dick. Fortune is about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, very black complexion, has a high foretop head of hair, had on a nankeen coat, and a pair of black breeches, stammers a little in his speech. Dick, a tall slim fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, a Guinea negro, with his country marks in his face, had on a black coattee. These three negroes are taylors by trade, and well known in town, where they are supposed to be harboured; a reward of Twenty Pounds will be given for taking up of Caesar, and Five Pounds each for Fortune and Dick, and delivering them to their masters or the Warden of the Workhouse. Who hereby forbids all persons from harbouring or employing said negroes, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law, and I hereby promise a reward of one hundred Pounds currency on conviction of harbouring said negroes, if by a white Person, and Thirty Pounds if by a negro or negroes. JOHN WARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 November 1776.]

FORTUNE; tailor
Ward, John

RUN away from the Subscriber the middle of December last, a Negro Man named Caesar, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, of a very black complexion, has a large nose. Also runaway this day, two Negro Men named Fortune and Dick. Fortune is about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, very black complexion, has a high foretop head of hair, had on a nankeen coat, and a pair of black breeches, stammers a little in his speech. Dick, a tall slim fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, a Guinea negro, with his country marks in his face, had on a black coattee.

These three negroes are taylors by trade, and well known in town, where they are supposed to be harboured; a reward of Twenty Pounds will be given for taking up of Caesar, and Five Pounds each for Fortune and Dick, and delivering them to their masters or the Warden of the Workhouse. Who hereby forbids all persons from harbouring or employing said negroes, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law, and I hereby promise a reward of one hundred Pounds currency on conviction of harbouring said negroes, if by a white Person, and Thirty Pounds if by a negro or negroes. JOHN WARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 November 1776.]

DICK; b. Africa; Guinea; tailor

Ward, John

RUN away from the Subscriber the middle of December last, a Negro Man named Caesar, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, of a very black complexion, has a large nose. Also runaway this day, two Negro Men named Fortune and Dick. Fortune is about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, very black complexion, has a high foretop head of hair, had on a nankeen coat, and a pair of black breeches, stammers a little in his speech. Dick, a tall slim fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, a Guinea negro, with his country marks in his face, had on a black coattee. These three negroes are taylors by trade, and well known in town, where they are supposed to be harboured; a reward of Twenty Pounds will be given for taking up of Caesar, and Five Pounds each for Fortune and Dick, and delivering them to their masters or the Warden of the Workhouse. Who hereby forbids all persons from harbouring or employing said negroes, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law, and I hereby promise a reward of one hundred Pounds currency on conviction of harbouring said negroes, if by a white Person, and Thirty Pounds if by a negro or negroes. JOHN WARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 November 1776.]

ABRAM

Parkinson, Nicholas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 November 1776.]

See ABRAM in other newspapers.

ROBERT LINDSAY; BOB LINDSAY; MULATTO BOB; carpenter

Brisbane, William; Bourgett, Mr.; Poyas, Mr.; Brisbane, Robert

MULATTO BOB. RUN away from the subscriber, about ten months ago a stout Mulatto Fellow; named BOB LINDSAY; he is very artful, and sometimes changes his name; is well known in Charlestown, where he served his time to the carpenter's trade, and formerly belonged to Mr. Bourgett and Mr. Poyas. He worked at Savannah in Georgia, and has been seen lurking in Charlestown and about Georgetown since he ran away, where he passes for a free fellow, and may endeavour to go to North-Carolina. Any person taking up the said fellow, and delivering him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of Fifty Pounds currency, and all reasonable charges, by applying to Mr. Robert Brisbane, or to the subscriber. All persons are desired not to harbour or to hire the said fellow, as they may depend upon being prosecuted for so doing. WILLIAM BRISBANE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 November 1776.]

CLOE; CHLOE

Valk, Jacob; MacNelege, Mr. ; Gough, John

RUN away, a Negro Wench named CLOE, purchased by me from Mr. MacNelege [sic] at Hobcaw, once the property of John Gough, cabinet-maker in Charlestown, well known by the negroes in Charlestown, a sensible wench. Whoever will bring her to me shall receive Twenty Pounds Currency Reward. She is supposed to be about Hobcaw or in Charlestown. If she is harboured by any person, white or black, upon immediately delivering her up will be forgiven, else hereafter found out, severely prosecuted as the law directs. JACOB VALK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 November 1776.]

DICK; mulatto

Holman, John; Pardo, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber in St. Andrew's Parish, a Mulatto Man Slave named DICK, about 5 feet 10 inches high, had on when he went away a blue surtout coat; as he is remarkably fair and very sensible, he may probably pass for a white man, as he did in a former excursion, but may easily be known by a scar on one of his legs occasioned by a piece of flesh being cut out.

Whoever apprehends the said slave, and will deliver him to Mr. Pardo in Friend-street, Charlestown, or to the subscriber at Ashley river, shall receive Twenty five Pounds, and a further reward of the same sum if harboured by a white person. All captains of vessels and others are hereby forewarned from harbouring or carrying him off this State, as they will be severely prosecuted by JOHN HOLMAN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 December 1776.]

JACK

Smith, George; Pritchard, Mr.

RUN away about three weeks since from Mr. Pritchard's Ship Yard, where he has lived upwards of seven years, a likely Negro Man, not above 23 years of age, named JACK. He is artful and sensible, speaks quick, about five feet six inches high, rather square on the shoulders, and of a black complexion; he had on, at the time of absenting himself, a pair of large canvas trousers and a blue jacket, and was lately seen on board a pettiauger in Wappoo going southwards, and possibly may attempt to get to Port Royal or Georgia. Whoever will inform of his being employed or harboured by a white person, shall, on conviction of the offender and securing the fellow, receive Fifty Pounds reward, and Ten Pounds will be paid with every reasonable expence attending the conveying him to the Workhouse, or on delivering him to Mr. Pritchard at the Ship Yard. GEORGE SMITH. December 4, 1776.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 November 1776.]

SAM; mutilated

Martin, Laughlin; Batesford, Mr., estate of

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away about two months ago, from St. James's, Santee, a stout Negro Fellow called Sam, formerly belonging to Batesford's estate, is well known in Charlestown and about Cainhoy; he wants the smallest toe of his left foot, is about five feet eight inches high, and about 25 years of age. A further reward of Fifty Pounds will be given if harbored by a white person, upon conviction, and delivering the negro to me or the Warden of the Work-house. LAUGHLIN MARTIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 January 1777.]

HARRY

Pendergrass, Sarah, Mrs.; Prendergass; Simons, Benjamin; Long, William

RUN away from Mrs. Sarah Pendergrass, sometimes in October last, a Negro Fellow named Harry, about five feet two inches high, stout and well made; since he run away, he was taken up at Mr. Benjamin Simmons's [sic; Simons] plantation, near Strawberry; Mr. Simons, upon his promising to return to town, sent him from his plantation with a letter. A reward of Ten Pounds will be given and all reasonable charges, so any person who will deliver the said Negro to Mrs. Pendergrass in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber at Bacon's Bridge, who forewarns all persons from harbouring or hiring the said fellow, as they may depend on being prosecuted by WILLIAM LONG.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 January 1777.]

DINAH; mother: Henrietta

Dumoix, Samuel; Gaillard, John; Prioleau, Samuel

RUN away from the subscriber the 13th of November last, two Wenches that formerly belonged to John Gaillard, Esq; named Dinah, and Henrietta her mother, so well known in and about Charlestown as needs no further description. Ten Pounds will be paid on the delivery of them to the Warden of the Workhouse. Apply to Samuel Prioleau, Jun., Esq; of Charlestown. SAMUEL DUMOIX.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 January 1777.]

HENRIETTA; daughter: Dinah

Dumoix, Samuel; Gaillard, John; Prioleau, Samuel

RUN away from the subscriber the 13th of November last, two Wenches that formerly belonged to John Gaillard, Esq; named Dinah, and Henrietta her mother, so well known in and about Charlestown as needs no further description. Ten Pounds will be paid on the delivery of them to the Warden of the Workhouse. Apply to Samuel Prioleau, Jun., Esq; of Charlestown. SAMUEL DUMOIX.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 January 1777.]

ABRAM; Africa; Moco; ritual scarification

Spooler, Catherine

TEN POUNDS reward to any person who will apprehend Abram, a black fellow of the Moco country, having his country marks, particularly very long streaks on his arms, near six feet high, about 30 years old, had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and breeches in April last. Any person who will deliver him to the subscriber at Stono, or to the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges; and any person giving information of his being harboured by a white person, shall receive Fifteen Pounds, and if by a black Ten Pounds, to be paid on conviction by CATHARINE SPOOLER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 January 1777.]

JOHNNY; mulatto*Hartley, G.H.; Dupont, Gideon

RUN away from the subscriber about ten days ago, a dark Mulatto Fellow named JOHNNY; he is about 20 years of age, of a short stature, bushy hair, speaks good English; when he went off he had on a light coloured coat, with red cape and cuff, and breeches of the same, a dark waistcoat with livery lace, and a leather cap. Whoever will apprehend and lodge the above runaway in the Work-house, shall receive a reward of Five Pounds and reasonable charges, by applying to the Printer. It is suspected he is harboured at or about the plantation of Gideon [sic] Dupont, Esq; at Ponpon. G. H. HARTLEY. Dec. 18, 1776.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 January 1777.]

SAM*Sommers, Humphrey

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 January 1777.]

See SAM in other newspapers.

HAGAR*Villepontoux, Benjamin, Captain

RUN away about the middle of December last, a young Negro Wench named Hagar, country born, well known in and about Charlestown, where it is supposed she is harboured. A reward of Five Pounds will be paid on delivering of said Wench to the Warden of the Work-house, or to BENJAMIN VILLEPONTOUX, Capt. of Artillery.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 January 1777.]

GEORGE; cooper*Stitt, Mr.; Elliott, Sarah, Mrs.; Valk, Jacob; Hutchinson, Mr.

RUN away some time ago, a Negro Fellow named George, purchased by Mr. Stitt at Mrs. Sarah Elliott's sale, an exceeding good cooper, and very handy about a plantation, is supposed to frequent Mr. Hutchinson's plantation at Ashepoo. If the said fellow will come home of his own accord he will be forgiven; otherwise a reward of Fifty Pounds to any person who will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house or to me in Charlestown and if any person can give information of the said fellow being harboured by a white persons shall receive a reward of one Hundred Pounds to be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders; or any person inclinable to purchase the said fellow as he runs, may apply to JACOB VALK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 30 January 1777.]

SUE; SABINA*De Brahm; William Gerhard; Savage, Edward, Esq.; Montagu, Lord Charles; Elliott, Charles, Esq.

RUN away the 17th of January from the subscriber, a young Negro Wench called Sue, alias Sabina, formerly the property of Lord Charles Montagu, and lately of Edward Savage, Esq. It is said she pretends to have been made free by his Lordship; she is universally known in town and country; her father is Charles Elliott, Esqr's driver at Sandy Hill, the following rewards are offered for her, viz. 20£. for delivering her at the Work-house; 20£ more on proving she is harboured by a white person, and 10£ more for making proof that she is harboured by a black, so that such transgressors may be brought to trial. WILLIAM GERHARD DE BRAHM.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 February 1777.]

VALENTINE; b. Virginia; boatman; carpenter*Chesnut; John; Leacock, Aaron; Loocock?; Boykin, Samuel

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward. Run away from the subscriber in March 1776, a Negro Man named Valentine, born in Virginia, is about 34 years of age, speaks good English, and is very sensible and artful; he can read a little, and pretends to be very religious, is of a yellow complexion, about 5 feet 9 inches high, pretty strong made, has lost some of his upper jaw teeth, and has very thick lips, is a very good boatman and a tolerable good carpenter, very handy, and has been seen several times since he run away on Savannah-river, near Silver-Bluff. Any person that will deliver said negro to Aaron Leacock, Esq; in Charlestown, to Mr. Samuel Boykin at Granby, or to the subscriber at Camden, shall receive the above reward. JOHN CHESNUT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 February 1777.]

ANDERSON, DR.; mustee; doctor

Valk, Jacob

RUN away a Mustee Fellow, who was seen about a month ago near Strawberry, and amongst other of his villainous practices, gives himself out for a doctor, by the name of Mr. or Dr. Anderson, pretends to be free, and from Virginia. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow and delivers him to me in Charlestown, shall have Fifty Pounds currency reward. JACOB VALK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 February 1777.]

DILL; DILCH

Collins, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 February 1777.]

See DILL; DILCH. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 16 June 1776.

JEMMY; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification

Rowe, Samuel

RUN away from the subscriber on the 12th of November last, two Negroes, viz. one of the Guinea country, named Jemmy, has his country marks on his cheeks, has lost two of his fore teeth, near 5 feet 10 inches high, speaks good English, very artful; had on when he went away two coats, one blue negroe cloth, the other homespun, leather breeches and some other clothes; Will is of a yellow complexion, near 5 feet 2 inches high, has his country marks from his shoulders down his back, very bow legged; had on when he went away, a white woollen jacket, crocus jacket, leather breeches and trowsers. I will give a reward of Twenty Pounds currency to any person that will bring the above negroes to my house at Orangeburgh; and a further reward of Fifty Pounds currency to any person that will inform me of their being harboured by any white person, on conviction of the offender, and if by a negro Five pounds currency, as I am determined to prosecute the offender to the utmost rigour of the law. SAMUEL ROWE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1777.] See also, JEMMY in other newspapers.

WILL; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Rowe, Samuel

RUN away from the subscriber on the 12th of November last, two Negroes, viz. one of the Guinea country, named Jemmy, has his country marks on his cheeks, has lost two of his fore teeth, near 5 feet 10 inches high, speaks good English, very artful; had on when he went away two coats, one blue negroe cloth, the other homespun, leather breeches and some other clothes; Will is of a yellow complexion, near 5 feet 2 inches high, has his country marks from his shoulders down his back, very bow legged; had on when he went away, a white woollen jacket, crocus jacket, leather breeches and trowsers. I will give a reward of Twenty Pounds currency to any person that will bring the above negroes to my house at Orangeburgh; and a further reward of Fifty Pounds currency to any person that will inform me of their being harboured by any white person, on conviction of the offender, and if by a negro Five pounds currency, as I am determined to prosecute the offender to the utmost rigour of the law. SAMUEL ROWE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1777.]

PHILLIP

Doughty, William; Pinckney, Roger, estate of; Porcher, Isaac

RUN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday the 11th day of February, 1777, a Negro Boy named Philip, about 14 or 15 years old, 4 feet 8 or 10 inches high, slender made, and had on when he went away, a white shirt, an old blue jacket with a red cape, and a pair of blue and white mixed homespun breeches. This boy I lately bought from the estate of Roger Pinckney, Esq; deceased, and is supposed to have been inticed away to the Congarees or Back Country, as he was seen last Thursday the 13th inst. on the road, about a mile beyond Monck's Corner, riding in a waggon. I will give Twenty Pounds reward, and pay all reasonable charges to the person who shall deliver him to Isaac Porcher, Esq; in St. Stephen's Parish, the warden of the Work-house, or myself in town; and a further reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid to the person who will give information and prove his being harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender. WILLIAM DOUGHTY. February 17th, 1777.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1777.]

TAMSON

Gough, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1777.]

See TAMSON in other newspapers.

RINAH; RYNAH

Hamilton, Thomas; Smith, Thomas; Mawenny, William; M'Whenny

RUN away on the 13th instant, a Wench named Rinah, slim made, black complexion, had on when she went away, a homespun jacket and red and white striped petticoat; also on the 14th instant, a Negro Fellow named Bob, about 6 feet high, had on leather breeches and homespun jacket. Whoever will deliver either of them to Thomas Smith, near Bacon Bridge, to William Mawenny, or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Ten Pounds reward. THOMAS HAMILTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1777.]

BOB

Hamilton, Thomas; Smith, Thomas; Mawenny, William; M'Whenny

RUN away on the 13th instant, a Wench named Rinah, slim made, black complexion, had on when she went away, a homespun jacket and red and white striped petticoat; also on the 14th instant, a Negro Fellow named Bob, about 6 feet high, had on leather breeches and homespun jacket. Whoever will deliver either of them to Thomas Smith, near Bacon Bridge, to William Mawenny, or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Ten Pounds reward. THOMAS HAMILTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 February 1777.]

MANUEL

Henderson, James; Stevens, Mrs.; Chisolm, Alexander; Chisholm

RUN away from the subscriber about the 1st of October last, a Negro Fellow named Manuel, formerly the property of Mrs. Stevens at the Coffee house in Charlestown; he is a likely well made negro, about 5 feet 5 inches high, has a remarkable scar on one of his cheeks, can tell a very plausible story, and will endeavour to pass for a free man. A reward of 20 L. and all reasonable charges, will be given to any person who will deliver said negro to the warden of the Work house, Mr. Alexander Chisolm in Charlestown, or the subscriber on Edisto Island; and a further reward of 50 L. will be paid upon conviction of the offender, for information of his being harboured by any white person, by JAMES HENDERSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 March 1777.]

MINGO; mustee

Fyffe, Charles, Dr.; Green, Francis; Glen, Elisabeth, Mrs.

RUN away from the plantation of Dr. Charles Fyffe, on Black river near Georgetown, about five months ago, a Negro Fellow named Mingo, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, a little on the mustee, which may be told by his hair, is about 22 years old, and speaks middling good English. Whoever delivers the said negro to me at the plantation of Mrs. Elisabeth Glen on Black river, or to the Gaoler in Georgetown, shall receive a reward of 20£ currency, and all reasonable charges.

FRANCIS GREEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 March 1777.]

ABRAHAM

Mill; Thomas; Fuller, Benjamin; Lowndes, Rawlins; Walter, John Alleyne

RUN away the middle of December last from my plantation near Ashley-river, a Negro Man named Abraham, of a black complexion; he is a stout, artful and sensible fellow, wears his beard half way down his cheeks, is very hairy about the breast, and broad over the same; he is this country born, and about 27 years of age; had on when he eloped, a white negro cloth coat, turned up with blue. Also run away from me about the 14th of January last, a Negro Man named Paul; he is of a middle size, his complexion is neither black nor yellow, but a kind of brown; had on when he went away, a brown match coat; they have both lived at Benjamin Fuller, Esq's plantation at Coosawhatchie, and are well known in Charlestown; the former has relations at Rawlins Lowndes, Esq's plantation at Crowfield, Goosecreek, and at John Allen [sic; Alleyne] Walter, Esq's, plantation at Wampee, Savannah; the latter has a mother at Beech-hill; they may pass for free fellows, but their backs will discover to the contrary. I will give a reward of Twenty Pounds currency for the two, or Ten Pounds for each, to any person who will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me at my plantation. THOMAS MILL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 March 1777.]

PAUL

Mill; Thomas; Fuller, Benjamin; Lowndes, Rawlins; Walter, John Alleyne

RAN away the middle of December last from my plantation near Ashley-river, a Negro Man named Abraham, of a black complexion; he is a stout, artful and sensible fellow, wears his beard half way down his cheeks, is very hairy about the breast, and broad over the same; he is this country born, and about 27 years of age; had on when he eloped, a white negro cloth coat, turned up with blue. Also run away from me about the 14th of January last, a Negro Man named Paul; he is of a middle size, his complexion is neither black nor yellow, but a kind of brown; had on when he went away, a brown match coat; they have both lived at Benjamin Fuller, Esq's plantation at Coosawhatchie, and are well known in Charlestown; the former has relations at Rawlins Lowndes, Esq's plantation at Crowfield, Goosecreek, and at John Allen [sic; Alleyne] Walter, Esq's, plantation at Wampee, Savannah; the latter has a mother at Beech-hill; they may pass for free fellows, but their backs will discover to the contrary. I will give a reward of Twenty Pounds currency for the two, or Ten Pounds for each, to any person who will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me at my plantation. THOMAS MILL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 March 1777.]

CUDGOE; CUDJOE; CUDJO

Williams, Robert

RAN away from the subscriber, a Negroe Man named Cudgoe, who is a short fellow, about 30 years of age, and has several scars in his forehead; also a Negroe Man named Ned, who is about 21 years of age, and near the same stature, but more slender than the former, his knees inclining inwards, and stoops somewhat in the shoulders. They were both born in this country, and had on when they absented themselves, coats and waistcoats of blue whitney, almost new, broad cloth breeches of the same colour and are as sensible negroes as any in Charlestown, where they are very well known. Whoever apprehends the said negroes and delivers them to the subscriber, or the keeper of any of the country Gaols shall be entitled to a reward of ten pounds Currency, for each, besides lawful charges; and notice is given to all persons not to carry them off the country, convey them over ferries, or to hire or employ them, on pain of being prosecuted. ROBERT WILLIAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 March 1777.]

NED

Williams, Robert

RAN away from the subscriber, a Negroe Man named Cudgoe, who is a short fellow, about 30 years of age, and has several scars in his forehead; also a Negroe Man named Ned, who is about 21 years of age, and near the same stature, but more slender than the former, his knees inclining inwards, and stoops somewhat in the shoulders. They were both born in this country, and had on when they absented themselves, coats and waistcoats of blue whitney, almost new, broad cloth breeches of the same colour and are as sensible negroes as any in Charlestown, where they are very well known. Whoever apprehends the said negroes and delivers them to the subscriber, or the keeper of any of the country Gaols shall be entitled to a reward of ten pounds Currency, for each, besides lawful charges; and notice is given to all persons not to carry them off the country, convey them over ferries, or to hire or employ them, on pain of being prosecuted. ROBERT WILLIAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 March 1777.]

DOLL

Smith, Edward; Ripley, George

RAN away from the subscriber in December last, a yellow Wench named Doll, about 5 feet 6 inches high, formerly the property of Mr. George Ripley; it is supposed she is harboured at the Horse-shoe. Whoever will take up the said wench, and deliver her to the subscriber in St. John's Parish, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown shall receive a reward of Twenty Pounds Currency; if any persons will make information of her being harboured by a white person, shall have a reward of Fifty Pounds Currency, and if by a Negro Twenty Pounds. EDWARD SMITH.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 March 1777.]

JACK; waiting man

Bonneau, Josiah; Stuart, John; Ballingall, Robert, Esq.

FIFTY POUNDS reward. Run away from the subscriber above two months since, a Negro Man named Jack, who formerly belonged to John Stuart, Esq; Agent of Indian Affairs, and on whom he used to wait; he is of a black complexion, about 5 feet 8 inches high, middle aged, and very well made; his dress was frequently a scarlet cloth jacket with broad livery lace, and a brown cloth coat; he was seen near Augusta in his way thither. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negro to Robert Bollingall [sic; Ballingall], Esq; at the Horse shoe, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive Fifty Pounds. JOSIAH BONNEAU.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 March 1777.]

TITUS; b. Africa; ritual scarification; branded

Gaillard, Theodore

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS reward. Went from the subscriber's plantation on the lower part of Santee, in Prince George's Parish, the 25th of December, 1775, a tall, slim, young new negro man named Titus, black complexion, his country marks down the sides of his face, slightly branded on his breast with the letters TG very small and may be invisible; it was imagined that he lost himself (as he went out a hunting) and could not find the way home again, nor speak English enough to tell his master's name. Twenty Pounds reward will be paid for any information of him, so that he may be had again; but if wantonly harboured or detained by any person who know they can have no right to the said fellow, a reward of One Hundred Pounds will be paid on conviction of the offender. THEODORE GAILLARD, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 April 1777.]

GEORGE; b. N. America; branded

Dobbin, Joseph

RUN away from the subscriber, March 6, 1777, a Negro Man named George, born to the northward, 5 feet 6 inches high, well made, had on a blue upper jacket, an under jacket of homespun, branded on the left hand between the thumb and forefinger; he is a sensible fellow, and can tell a plausible story. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work house, or William Johnson in Charlestown, or to the subscriber at his plantation near Ferguson's Ferry, shall have Twenty Pounds reward, with all reasonable charges. JOSEPH DOBBIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 April 1777.]

TOM; b. Africa; Angola; ritual scarification; filed teeth

Thomson, Mary; Bowens, Arthur; Sanders, William, Captain; Sanders, John

RUN away the 3d of July, 1776, a Negro Man named Tom, of the Angola country, speaks English tolerably well, pretty black, has two of his upper foreteeth filed, close knead and country marked on one if not both his temples; there is some reason to suspect that he was inticed away by one Arthur Bowens, and afterwards sold by him in the back country. Any person giving information of his being harboured by a white person there or other ways, so that the trespasser be convicted thereof, shall receive a reward of Fifty Pounds, or the like sum for delivering said negro to the subscriber, Capt. William Sanders, or John Sanders at the Round O. MARY THOMSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 March 1777.]

MURRAY; blind in one eye

Westbrook, John; Coleman, Col.

RUN away from the subscriber at Fort James the 8th of September last, an outlandish Negro Man named Murray; he is of a middling stature, about 30 years old, pitted with the small pox, and lost the sight of his left eye, is a little of the yellowish complexion, and can speak broken English. Whoever will give such intelligence so as he may be got again, shall have Ten Dollars reward; or whoever will bring him to Col. Coleman's fort, in the Fork of Savannah and Broad Rivers, shall have Twenty Dollars reward, and more if deserving, by JOHN WESTBROOK. Georgia, March 24th, 1777.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1777.]

JOE

Legare, Daniel, Jr.

RUN away from the subscriber at Wassamsaw, a stout black Negro Man, near 6 feet high, named Joe; he has a remarkable high breast, a little bandy legged, and is ruptured; he had on when he went away, a blue broad cloth coat, a pair of brown German serge breeches, and a rush hat; he is well known in Charlestown, on Wadmelaw and at John's Island, one of which places he will probably go to. Twenty Pounds reward will be paid to any person that will deliver him to me at Wassamsaw, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown; any person giving information of his being harboured by a white person Fifty Pounds currency, and if by negro Twenty Pounds currency, on conviction of the offender, will be paid by DANIEL LEGARE, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1777.]

JACK

Dart, Benjamin

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1777.] See JACK. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 16 June 1777.

MINGO PATON; MINGO STOKOS; sailor; mutilated

“Widow Woman of Bermuda”; Buckle, Thomas, Captain; Tucker, Henry

RUN away from the sloop Diana, Henry Tucker, master, on the 25th of March, a Negro Man named Mingo Paton, alias Mingo Stokos, is a good sailor, above 40 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and much pockpitted; he has lost the little finger and the first joint of his thumb from his right hand; he is the property of a widow woman of Bermuda, and therefore it is to be hoped that no person, after seeing this advertisement, will harbour or entertain him, but deliver him up to Capt. Thomas Buckle or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, and he, she or they shall have a gratuity of Ten Pounds currency for doing such an act of common justice.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1777.]

JOE; bricklayer

Young, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Man named Joe, a bricklayer by trade; he is a well-made fellow, and very artful, has attempted to pass for a free man, and thereby endeavoured to get out of this State. All masters of vessels are hereby cautioned not to carry him off, and any person harbouring or concealing him, will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to the subscriber at the Four Holes, shall receive Ten Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. THOMAS YOUNG

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 April 1777.]

CAROLINA (male)

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

FRANK

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL

ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

LONDON

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

TOM

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

ABRAHAM

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

BELLA; BIG BELLA

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

BELLA; LITTLE BELLA

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella,

Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

PEGGY

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

ELSEY; ELSIE

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

EFFEE; EFFIE; 1 child

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

ANONYMOUS CHILD; mother: Effee; Effie

Andrews, Samuel; Bee, William

THE Subscriber having removed from the Plantation where he lately lived at Stono, to settle near Camden, the following Negroes, on his removal, Absconded, viz. Carolina, Frank, London, Tom, Abraham, Big Bella, Little Bella, Peggy, Elsey, Effee and her Child; it is apprehended they are harboured in the Neighbourhood of the said Plantation at Stono, where they have long lived. I therefore offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be paid on Conviction of any white Person harbouring them, or any of them, and Ten Pounds if by a Negro; I will also pay for taking each of the said Negroes Five Pounds, to be paid at their delivery to the Warden of the Work-house or to Mr. William Bee at Stono. N.B. The Negroes were cloathed in white Homespun. SAMUEL ANDREWS

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

SAMBO; boatman*Sommers, Humphrey; Middleton, Thomas, estate of

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Fellow named Sambo, 5 feet 6 inches high, a boatman, and a remarkable active negroe, well known in Charlestown, and formerly did belong to the estate of Thomas Middleton, Esq. Whoever delivers said negroe to me, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive 20 L reward and all reasonable charges. HUMPHRY SOMMERS. April 14, 1777.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

JUNE (male)

Simons, Ann; Scott, John, Esq. RUN away some time ago from the Subscriber at Scott's ferry, a Negro Man named June, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, with large lips, is country born and very sensible; he has a wife at John Scott, Esqr's, by whom, it is said, he is harboured; also a Negro Woman named Charlotte, about 25 years of age, very lusty, of the Guinea country, with filed teeth; they have been seen together lately about Wragg's and Legare's plantations, near the Quarter-house, where they are harboured. A reward of Twenty-five Pounds for June, and Ten Pounds for Charlotte, will be paid to any one who will deliver them to the Work house, and the like sum paid on conviction of their being harboured. ANN SIMONS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

CHARLOTTE; b. Africa; Guinea; filed teeth

Simons, Ann; Scott, John RUN away some time ago from the Subscriber at Scott's ferry, a Negro Man named June, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, with large lips, is country born and very sensible; he has a wife at John Scott, Esqr's, by whom, it is said, he is harboured; also a Negro Woman named Charlotte, about 25 years of age, very lusty, of the Guinea country, with filed teeth; they have been seen together lately about Wragg's and Legare's plantations, near the Quarter-house, where they are harboured. A reward of Twenty-five Pounds for June, and Ten Pounds for Charlotte, will be paid to any one who will deliver them to the Work house, and the like sum paid on conviction of their being harboured. ANN SIMONS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

KATE*Roybould, Mary

RUN away last February, a young Negro Wench named Kate, 14 years old, very lusty, had on when she went away, a new osnaburg gown and petticoat, and a check handkerchief about her head. Whoever will deliver her to me, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward; and I do hereby forewarn all persons from harbouring or entertaining her upon their peril; she is well known about Stono, and may alter her name. MARY ROYBOULD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

AMY; mestizo; mustee*Nicholas, James; Singleton, Benjamin (d); Singellton

RUN away from the subscriber living in St. Paul's Parish, Stono, in or about the month of February, 1777, an elderly looking wench of the Mustizo breed, known and distinguished by the name of Amy, had on when she left my service, a white Negro cloth coat and wrapper; and as I have strong reasons to believe she must be harboured in St. John's Parish, about the estate of Benjamin Singellton [sic; Singleton], deceased, where she is well known, and has resided for many years, whoever will apprehend the above wench, and deliver her to me, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive a reward of Twenty Pounds, and all reasonable charges. JAMES NICHOLAS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1777.]

GEORGE ROGERS; free man

Allen, Edward DESERTED from the Comet, Brigantine of War, the following men, viz [names]; George Rogers, a negro, passes for a free man, speaks good English, and is a short thick well made fellow; Black Sam belonging to Thomas Savage, Esq; and is a good drummer and fifer; also another negro man named Joe, the property of Mr. Savage, pretty old, and has sailed formerly in the brigantine Defence. A reward of TEN POUNDS currency will be given on the delivery of each of the above mentioned men to me; and for any information of their being harboured or enticed away by any person whatever, the same reward shall be paid the informer. I hereby publicly acquaint all persons who keep houses of entertainment for seamen, that I am fully determined to prosecute, with the utmost rigour of the law, all persons who shall be found harbouring or enticing away from the service (in which they have freely and voluntarily engaged) the above men. EDWARD ALLEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1777.]

SAM; BLACK SAM; drummer; fifer

Savage, Thomas, Esq.; Allen, Edward DESERTED from the Comet, Brigantine of War, the following men, viz [names]; George Rogers, a negro, passes for a free man, speaks good English, and is a short thick well made fellow; Black Sam belonging to Thomas Savage, Esq; and is a good drummer and fifer; also another negro man named Joe, the property of Mr. Savage, pretty old, and has sailed formerly in the brigantine Defence. A reward of TEN POUNDS currency will be given on the delivery of each of the above mentioned men to me; and for any information of their being harboured or enticed away by any person whatever, the same reward shall be paid the informer. I hereby publicly acquaint all persons who keep houses of entertainment for seamen, that I am fully determined to prosecute, with the utmost rigour of the law, all persons who shall be found harbouring or enticing away from the service (in which they have freely and voluntarily engaged) the above men. EDWARD ALLEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1777.]

JOE; sailor

Savage, Thomas, Esq.; Allen, Edward DESERTED from the Comet, Brigantine of War, the following men, viz [white names]; George Rogers, a negro, passes for a free man, speaks good English, and is a short thick well made fellow; Black Sam belonging to Thomas Savage, Esq; and is a good drummer and fifer; also another negro man named Joe, the property of Mr. Savage, pretty old, and has sailed formerly in the brigantine Defence. A reward of TEN POUNDS currency will be given on the delivery of each of the above mentioned men to me; and for any information of their being harboured or enticed away by any person whatever, the same reward shall be paid the informer. I hereby publicly acquaint all persons who keep houses of entertainment for seamen, that I am fully determined to prosecute, with the utmost rigour of the law, all persons who shall be found harbouring or enticing away from the service (in which they have freely and voluntarily engaged) the above men. EDWARD ALLEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1777.]

BEN

Fickling, James

RUN away from the publick service in Charlestown, a Negro Fellow named Ben, about six feet high, had on a long green coat, and a pair of striped trowsers. Whoever will deliver him to me on Edisto-Island, or to the Warden of the Work house, shall receive a reward of Twenty Pounds.

JAMES FICKLING.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 May 1777.]

CARINDA

Gordon, Thomas Knox; Glen, William

RUN away about two months ago, a young Wench named Carinda, about 15 years old, of a yellow complexion, and the property of Thomas Knox Gordon, Esq; she had on a gown of brown negro cloth bound with yellow binding, and has on the side of her neck two or three [illegible] marks. Whoever will deliver her to the Warden of the Work-house or to me, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward. WILLIAM GLEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 May 1777.]

SCIPIO

Clapperton, Alexander

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 May 1777.] See SCIPIO. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 30 June 1777.

TONEY; sailor; mutilated

Blake, Edward; Blake, John

RUN away from the subscribers about the 2th inst. of April last, a Negro man named TONEY; he is a short well set fellow, speaks fast, and has lost several of his toes by the frost; as he has always been used to go to sea or in a coasting schooner, he will possibly endeavour to ship himself on board some vessel; all Masters of vessels and others are forewarned employing him. Whoever will deliver said fellow to the warden of the Work house, or the subscribers, shall receive TWO DOLLARS reward, and whoever will give information of his having been harboured, if by a white person, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS, and if by a negro FIVE POUNDS Reward, on conviction of the offenders, from EDWARD & JOHN BLAKE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 15 May 1777.]

TOM

Benfield, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 May 1777.] See TOM. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 26 May 1777.

BILLEY; BILLY; mulatto

Williams, Robert; Perroneau, Henry, Esq.; Dutarque, John

RUN away, a young Mulatto Fellow named BILLEY, formerly belonging to Mr. John Dutarque, but lately unto Henry Peronneau, Esq; who sold him to the subscriber; since which, without coming home, he hath absented himself from his duty. As the fellow is very well known in Charlestown, as well as at and about Santee, where it is probable he may be harboured by his relations, a particular description of his person or apparel is unnecessary. Any person apprehending the said fellow and delivering him to me in Charlestown, shall be entitled to a reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency, and those who entertain or employ him, may depend on being prosecuted with the utmost severity. ROBERT WILLIAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 May 1777.]

BILLEY; BILLY

Freer, Solomon; Mathews, Benjamin; Matthews

RUN away from Mr. Solomon Freer, a Negro Boy named BILLEY, well known in Charlestown. Whoever will deliver him to the subscriber in Charlestown, or at the Work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward.

BENJAMIN MATHEWES.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 May 1777.]

SAMPSON

Evance, Thomas

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 29 May 1777.] See SAMPSON. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 2 June 1777.

CAESAR

M'Lean, Andrew; MacLean

RUN away from the subscriber about a month ago, a stout, likely Negro fellow, named CAESAR, of a yellow complexion, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, and about 26 years of age, speaks remarkable good English, and very artful, dresses very neat, and is supposed to be harboured in and about Charlestown; he may perhaps try to get a passage to some of the West-India islands. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to the subscriber in Augusta, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS reward, and all charges. ANDREW M'LEAN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 June 1777.]

NERO; b. Africa; Coromantee; ritual scarification

Mouret, John

RUN away from the subscriber, a likely Negro Fellow of the Coromantee country, about 25 years old, 5 feet 6 inches high, his three marks like stabs on his left arm, speaks very good English, his name NERO; carried with him a suit of white broad cloth, a brown bath-coating surtout, a pair of blue Manchester velvet breeches, several summer jackets and breeches, ruffled shirts stockings and shoes, a holster pistol of Wilson's make, and a cousteau; likewise a knapsack with my name wrote on it in large characters; the shirts and handkerchiefs he has are marked IM, he took with him also a bright chesnut GELDING, 10 or 11 years old, blind of the left eye, branded on the cheek of the same side IR in one, on the mounting shoulder with a heart not very visible, has a white lock of hair betwixt his ears, and several saddle spots on his back. FIFTY POUNDS reward will be paid on delivery of the fellow and horse to me at Ponpon, or the Warden of the Work-house; the horse may be left at Mr. Hatfield's in Charlestown. THIRTY POUNDS will be given for the negro singly, and TWENTY for the horse, with all reasonable charges. JOHN MOURET.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 June 1777.]

BOB*Allen, Francis

RUN away from the subscriber on Sunday June 1, 1777, a Negro Fellow named BOB; had on when he went away a pair of black breeches, check shirt, green coat and a red waistcoat, and speaks good English. Whoever will take him up the said boy, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward. FRANCIS ALLEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 June 1777.]

YORK*Price, William; Carsan, James

RUN away about a month ago, a young Negro Man named YORK, about 5 feet 7 inches high, yellowish complexion, is very active and artful, and speaks good English; he has lived with a barber some years; his late master was James Carsan, merchant, with whom he lately went to Georgetown and the Cheraws, and it is very probable he may again take that route. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward. WILLIAM PRICE. May 20, 1777.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 June 1777. Supplement]

ABRAHAM*Russel, John; Linn, David (d); Lind

RUN away from the subscriber's ship-yard on the 9th day of May, 1777, a Negro Man named ABRAHAM; he is well known in town and country, is stout and tall, and speaks good English but stammers; he had on when he went away a blue negro cloth jacket, red waistcoat, and canvas trowsers, and was formerly the property of David Lind [sic; Linn], shipwright, deceased. Whoever takes him up, or gives information so he may get again, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward.

JOHN RUSSELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 5 June 1777.]

TOM; FROHAWK; b. North Carolina; mutilated*Remington, John

RUN away about the 25th of May, 1775, from the subscriber, a Negroe Fellow named TOM, but may change his name to FROHAWK; he is about 5 feet 5 inches high, has a film on one of his eyes, and lost the lower part of both of his ears, is very talkative, and was born in North Carolina; he was seen at work, about the time he was missing, on board the ship B(?); Thomas Powell, master, bound for Liverpool, where I do suspect he is carried. TEN POUNDS sterling will be paid on the delivery of him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOHN REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 June 1777.]

JACOB; carpenter*Rowand, Robert

RUN away about the 10th of last month, from my plantation at Stono Landing, a NEGRO FELLOW named JACOB, of a yellowish complexion, by trade a carpenter, country born, he is a short well made fellow, had on a good coat made of brown corduroy, a blue broad cloath jacket, and white breeches. This is to forewarn all persons from harbouring him, as they may depend on being prosecuted. Any person delivering the said fellow to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at my plantation at Stono Landing shall receive a reward of TEN POUNDS with all reasonable charges, from ROBERT ROWAND. June 10, 1777.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 12 June 1777.]

CHARLES*Torrans, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 June 1777.]

See CHARLES. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 30 June 1777.

GEORGE; carpenter*Smith, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Winyaw, a stout well made Negro Man, named GEORGE, of a very black complexion, by trade a carpenter; he has been seen in different parts of the country between Charlestown and Georgetown, and has worked on his own account in Charlestown; he is very artful, and may possibly change his own and master's name. Whoever apprehends the said fellow, and delivers him/ to either Charlestown or Georgetown Work-house, or to me at Winyaw, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS currency and lawful charges. THOMAS SMITH.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 June 1777.]

HARRY

Ofsky, Anthony John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 19 June 1777.]

CAESAR; b. Africa; Guinea

Hext, Thomas; Phillips, Mr.; Windsor, Joshua

RUN away from the subscriber the 6th of June last a Negro Fellow named CAESAR, formerly the property of one Mr. Phillips living in Georgia; he is of the Guinea country, about 5 feet 10 inches high, has his country marks on each side of his face, and had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and breeches. Whoever will deliver him to me on Edisto-Island; to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to Mr Joshua Windsor in Georgia, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward. THOMAS HEXT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 July 1777.]

JOSH; JOHSUA

Gowrlay, John; Fitzpatrick, Edmund

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 July 1777.]

SAMPSON

Dwight, Samuel

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 July 1777.]
[of South-Carolina (Timothy). 16 June 1777.]

See SAMSON and PHEBE. Gazette of the State

PHEBE; PHOEBE

Dwight, Samuel

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 3 July 1777.]
[of South-Carolina (Timothy). 16 June 1777.]

See SAMSON and PHEBE. Gazette of the State

STEPNEY

Heriot, George; Hunt, Joseph; Horn, Alexander

RUN away from the subscriber in Georgetown, a Negro Boy named STEPNEY, about 18 years of age, of a black complexion, country born and speaks pretty good English, is very artful, and may probably change his name; had on when he went away, an osnaburg jacket and a leather jockey cap, and carried a bundle of cloathes with him; he formerly belonged to Mr. Joseph Hunt near the Saltketcher, and is probably gone that way, as he has been seen at Dorchester, on his way to the Southward. A reward of TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS and reasonable charges, will be paid to any person that will deliver him to me in Georgetown, or to Mr. Alexander Horn in Charlestown. Any person that may harbour or entertain him, will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law.

GEORGE HERIOT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1777.]

BOSTON

Darrell, Joseph

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1777.]
[of South-Carolina (Timothy). 7 July 1777.]

See BOSTON. Gazette of the State of South-

DICK

Strobel, Daniel

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 July 1777.]
[of South-Carolina (Timothy). 15 September 1777.]

See DICK. Gazette of the State of South-

JAMIE; mulatto; cabinet-maker

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday night, July 26, 1777, THREE NEGROES; one a mulatto fellow named Jamie, well known in Charlestown, and is remarkable for having a large scar on one of his ears and cheek; another fellow of the Guinea country, named Peter, of a middle stature, who is very active and artful, but speaks very bad English; the third is a tall likely fellow of the Ebo country, named York. They may change their dress, but when they went away two of them had striped jackets. They are all bred to the cabinet making business. It is suspected they will attempt to go for St. Augustine by land or water. All masters of vessels and keepers of ferries are requested to be particularly on their guard. A reward of FIFTY POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges, will be paid on delivering them to me, or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOHN FISHER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 July 1777.]

PETER; b. Africa; Guinea; cabinet-maker

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday night, July 26, 1777, THREE NEGROES; one a mulatto fellow named Jamie, well known in Charlestown, and is remarkable for having a large scar on one of his ears and cheek; another fellow of the Guinea country, named Peter, of a middle stature, who is very active and artful, but speaks very bad English; the third is a tall likely fellow of the Ebo country, named York. They may change their dress, but when they went away two of them had striped jackets. They are all bred to the cabinet making business. It is suspected they will attempt to go for St. Augustine by land or water. All masters of vessels and keepers of ferries are requested to be particularly on their guard. A reward of FIFTY POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges, will be paid on delivering them to me, or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOHN FISHER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 July 1777.]

YORK; b. Africa; Ibo; cabinet-maker

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday night, July 26, 1777, THREE NEGROES; one a mulatto fellow named Jamie, well known in Charlestown, and is remarkable for having a large scar on one of his ears and cheek; another fellow of the Guinea country, named Peter, of a middle stature, who is very active and artful, but speaks very bad English; the third is a tall likely fellow of the Ebo country, named York. They may change their dress, but when they went away two of them had striped jackets. They are all bred to the cabinet making business. It is suspected they will attempt to go for St. Augustine by land or water. All masters of vessels and keepers of ferries are requested to be particularly on their guard. A reward of FIFTY POUNDS for each, and all reasonable charges, will be paid on delivering them to me, or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. JOHN FISHER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 July 1777.]

BEN; mustee; lived New York

Smith, M., Sheriff, estate of; Chollet, Samuel; Fraser, James

RUN away from the subscriber about six weeks ago, a Mustee Lad named BEN, but has art enough to change it for any other that may suit his purpose; he has lost some of his fore teeth, has a very bushy head unless he has cut the hair, and is about 5 feet 6 inches high; he was formerly the property of Mr. Samuel Chollett, and was brought by him from New-York, and now is a part of the estate of M. Smith, late sheriff of Beaufort; he may possibly ship himself, therefore all masters of vessels are cautioned against employing him. A reward of Twenty five Pounds will be paid on his being delivered to the Warden of the Work-house. JAMES FRASER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 July 1777.]

SAM HOLLYBUSH; Hollibush

Hinds, Patrick

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 31 July 1777.]

See SAM HOLLYBUSH, Gazette of the State of South Carolina (Timothy), 4 August 1777; and other newspapers.

POMPEY

Brailsford, Joseph

RUN away from the Subscriber about two months ago; a likely country born fellow named POMPEY; he is of a yellowish complexion, a little close kneed, has the scar of a shot in one of his ancles, and has lost the use of the middle joint of his middle finger. Whoever will apprehend said fellow, and deliver him to the subscriber, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall have Twenty Pounds reward; Fifty Pounds will be given for his head, and One Hundred Pounds to any person that will give information of his being harboured by a white man, and Twenty Pounds if by a negro, upon conviction of the offender. JOSEPH BRAILSFORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1777.]

JACK; tailor Grimke, Frederick

WHEREAS my Negro Fellow JACK, a Taylor by Trade has absented himself for some time past from my service, and has been employed by several people in and about Dorchester, it is expected that those gentlemen he has been at work for, will call and settle with me; and I do hereby forbid all persons whatever from employing him hereafter, without a written order from me, and an engagement on their part to pay his wages to FREDERICK GRIMKE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1777.]

JACK
North & Trescot

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1777.]

JEMMY; ship's-carpenter; sailor; pilot
Scott, Jonathan; Morgan, Charles, Captain; Addison, Captain; Bennet, John

RUN away, or absented himself from the subscriber, about the time Mr. Poaug's Wenches attempted to go on board the English ships off our bar last month, a Negroe Fellow named JEMMY, about 28 years of age, near 6 feet high, speaks good English, by trade a ship-carpenter, a good seaman and coasting pilot, well known amongst the coasters and ship-builders of this town; he formerly belonged to Capt. Addison in the Winyaw trade, and since to Capt. Charles Morgan; he commonly wore a check shirt, old red jacket, [illegible] trowsers, and a round black hat; perhaps he may endeavour to go to Augusteen [St. Augustine], or attempt going off the State with some outward-bound vessels. I do forewarn all persons from employing him in any shape at their peril. A reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency will be paid on delivering him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to JONATHAN SCOTT. N.B. This Jemmy was lately taken by a John Bennet, patroon of a schooner in the southward trade, to bring rice from Ashepoo; if he should be harboured or employed since that by a white person, on conviction, I will pay ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1777.]

ANONYMOUS WOMEN
Pouag, Mr.

RUN away, or absented himself from the subscriber, about the time Mr. Poaug's Wenches attempted to go on board the English ships off our bar last month, a Negroe Fellow named JEMMY.... JONATHAN SCOTT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 14 August 1777.]

SHOREHAM; mulatto
Clark, James; Lightwood, Edward

RUN away from the subscriber on Sunday the 27th of July, last a Mulatto Fellow named SHOREHAM; he is about six feet high, has a blemish in one of his eyes, which he generally keeps shut, and is hard of hearing, well known in and about town and James Island, from whence he was lately bought; and as he has a mother at the plantation of Mr. Edward Lightwood, it is very probable he may be harboured there. TEN POUNDS reward, with every other reasonable charge, will be paid to any person that will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber on Edisto-Island; and TWENTY POUNDS to any person that will give information of his being harboured by a white person, and if by a negroe TEN POUNDS, to be paid on conviction of the offender, by JAMES CLARK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 August 1777.]

CAROLINA (male)
Adams, Nathaniel

TEN POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Boy named CAROLINA, about 16 years of age, remarkably tall for his age, though slim and of a very black complexion. I do hereby caution all slaves and others from harbouring him, as I am determined to prosecute with the utmost rigour of the law. I will give a reward of Ten Pounds to any person who will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me on Wadmelaw Island. NATHANIEL ADAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 August 1777.]

JUNE

Strobhar, John

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 28 August 1777.]

JOE

Martin, John Christopher

RUN away, a Negro Fellow named JOE, about 35 years of age, 5 feet 3 inches high, has some marks of the small pox on his face, his left hand out of joint, with some scars on his wrist, and was seen last week in Charlestown. I will give Twenty Pounds reward if harboured by a negro, and One Hundred Pounds if by a white man, upon conviction of the offender, to any person who will deliver him to me in St. John's Parish, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown.

JOHN-CHRISTOPHER MARTIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 4 September 1777.]

ROSE

Dart, John; Moore, Charles, Captain

RUN away about six weeks past, a young Negro Wench named ROSE, formerly belonging to Capt. Charles Moore, of whom I purchased her; she is a likely wench, rather black and pretty lusty; had on when she went away, a blew striped gown, and otherwise very well cloathed; as she has a general acquaintance in town, I hereby forewarn any person from harbouring or entertaining her, as such will be certainly prosecuted; and will pay a reward of TEN POUNDS currency to any one who will deliver her to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the subscriber. JOHN DART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 4 September 1777.]

SCIPIO; mutilated

Milton, William

RUN away from the subscriber in Georgetown on the 19th of August last, a Negro Fellow named SCIPIO, about 28 years old, well made, very black, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, has lost off his right hand [illegible] joints, speaks good English, had on when he went away, a pair of black stocking breeches, an old white shirt, and an old Dutch cap. I do hereby offer a reward of TEN POUNDS for taking up said fellow, and delivering him to me in Georgetown, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, and all reasonable charges, paid by WILLIAM MILTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 4 September 1777.]

PRINCE

Harris, Charles

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 1 September 1777.]

See PRIMUS and PRINCE. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 14 July 1777.

PRINCE

Harris, Charles

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 September 1777.] See PRIMUS and PRINCE. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 14 July 1777.

SAMBO

Ladson, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at Ashepoo, an elderly Fellow named SAMBO, very much pitted with the small pox; it is expected, from his simplicity, that he has been seduced away by some villain, as he absented himself at the time the State was invaded, and has never been heard of since. I will give a reward of TWENTY FIVE POUNDS to any person that will deliver him to me, or give me information where he is.

THOMAS LADSON (John's Island).

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 11 September 1777.]

WILLIAM; WILLIAM CHESTER; b. West Indies? N. America?; speaks English & French Robertson, John; Grimball, Thomas, Jr.; Huger, Daniel

RUN away from the subscriber the 3d instant, a Negro Fellow named William, but calls himself William Chester, formerly belonging to Daniel Huger, Esq; lately to Thomas Grimball, jun. Esq; about 26 years old, 5 feet 6 inches high, very black, can read and write, speaks good English and French, and was born at the Northward or some part of the West-Indies. Whoever apprehends the said fellow, and delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in Elliott-street, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward; if information can be given of said negro being harboured by a white person, free mulatto, or free negro, the person giving such information, upon conviction of the offender, shall receive a further reward of one Hundred Pounds currency; and if by a slave Twenty Pounds. If the said fellow returns home of his own accord he shall be forgiven.

JOHN ROBERTSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 25 September 1777. Supplement.]

SAUNDERS; b. Africa; Guinea
Lawrence, William

RUN away Sept. 14 from the subscriber, a Negro Boy named Saunders, 13 or 14 years of age, of the Guinea country, about 4 feet 8 inches high, had on an osnaburg shirt and breeches, is rather of the yellowish complexion, is pitted a little with the small pox, and is very artful. Whoever delivers him to me or the Warden of the Work-house, shall have Five Pounds reward, Ten Pounds if harboured by a negro, and Twenty Pounds if by a white person, on conviction; if he is taken in the country all reasonable charges will be paid by WILLIAM LAWRENCE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 October 1777. Supplement.]

GORING

Samways, Henry

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777. Supplement.] See GORING and HARFORD.
Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 14 October 1777.

HARFORD

Samways, Henry

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777. Supplement.] See GORING and HARFORD.
Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 14 October 1777.

DUKE

Bonneau, Samuel; Villepontoux, Zachariah, Esq. (d.)

RUN away from the subscriber the 21st of June last, a Negro Fellow named DUKE, about 5 feet 6 inches high; also a Negro Wench named LUCY, pretty stout, about eight months gone with child, bought at the sale of Zachariah Villepontoux, Esq; and supposed to be harboured there or thereabouts. A reward of Ten Pounds will be given for the fellow, and Five Pounds for the wench, to any person who apprehends and delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house. Twenty-five Pounds will be given to any person that can prove their being harboured by a negro, and Fifty by a white person, which will be paid on conviction. SAMUEL BONNEAU.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777.]

LUCY; pregnant

Bonneau, Samuel; Villepontoux, Zachariah, Esq. (d)

RUN away from the subscriber the 21st of June last, a Negro Fellow named DUKE, about 5 feet 6 inches high; also a Negro Wench named LUCY, pretty stout, about eight months gone with child, bought at the sale of Zachariah Villepontoux, Esq; and supposed to be harboured there or thereabouts. A reward of Ten Pounds will be given for the fellow, and Five Pounds for the wench, to any person who apprehends and delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house. Twenty-five Pounds will be given to any person that can prove their being harboured by a negro, and Fifty by a white person, which will be paid on conviction. SAMUEL BONNEAU.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777.]

TONEY; b. Africa; Angola; branded

RUN away from the subscriber about the 10th of July last, a Negro Man of the Angola country, named TONEY, about 5 feet 6 inches high, about 35 years old, branded on his arm WP (?) in a heart. A reward of TEN POUNDS will be given to any person that will deliver him to me in St. Matthew's Parish, or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown.

WILLIAM PEAK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777.]

JAMEY

Dupont, Gideon, Jr., Esq.; Ward, Joshua

RUN away from the publick works at Sullivan's Island, a Negro man named JAMEY, the property of Gideon Dupont, jun., Esq; also one named JACK, from the plantation of said Dupont at Ponpon. Whoever delivers either of them to the Warden of the Work-house or the Subscriber, shall have a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency for each of them besides all reasonable charges.

JOSHUA WARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777.]

JACK

Dupont, Gideon, Jr., Esq.; Ward, Joshua

RUN away from the publick works at Sullivan's Island, a Negro man named JAMEY, the property of Gideon Dupont, jun., Esq; also one named JACK, from the plantation of said Dupont at Ponpon. Whoever delivers either of them to the Warden of the Work-house or the Subscriber, shall have a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency for each of them besides all reasonable charges.

JOSHUA WARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 October 1777.]

WILL; b. South Carolina; Charleston

Clapperton, Alexander

RUN away the latter end of September from the subscriber, a short thick yellow fellow named WILL, born in Charlestown, and well known; he most commonly wears a blue coat turned up with red, but had on when he went away, a mixed homespun coattee. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house, or the subscriber, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS currency reward; and I hereby forewarn all masters of vessels and others from harbouring or carrying him off, as they may depend on being prosecuted as the law directs. ALEX.

CLAPPERTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 October 1777.]

MARCH; branded

Vanbibber, Jacob

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber above a year ago, a Negro Fellow, about 5 feet 9 inches high, lost some of his fore-teeth, about 35 years old, branded on his forehead NB in one, but appears blotched, is also branded on his body the same; he has long been harboured about the Three R[illegible], up the Saltketcher [Salkehatchie], and on Savannah river, as I have been informed; also have heard that he was offered to be carried by a white man to North-Carolina and sold if he would consent. I hereby offer ONE HUNDRED POUNDS reward to any person that shall give me sufficient information of harbouring or selling him, on conviction of the offender; I also offer, FIFTY POUNDS to any person that shall deliver the said fellow named MARCH to me at Pocotaligo safe. JACOB VANBIBBER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 16 October 1777.]

ABRAHAM; b. Bermuda

Parsons, James; Jevens, Mr.; Houston, John, Esq.

RUN away, pray catch him if you can, for he is a devilish thief and rogue, ABRAHAM, a broad shouldered, middle sized, smooth faced yellow Negro Fellow, Bermudas born, who used to be employed in Mr. Parson's schooner, and generally wears a short blue or green jacket, with trowsers, and a narrow flapped round hat, and is remarkable for having small hands and the mark of a large wound on his forehead. As he was seen in his way to the Southward at Mr. Jeven's on Port Royal Island, it is supposed he will endeavour to go to Beaufort or Georgia, and hire himself as a free Seaman on board a Vessel, in order to get away. TWENTY DOLLARS reward will be paid for apprehending him, or giving information where he may be found, or of any slave harbouring him in this State, and FIFTY DOLLARS if in Georgia; and ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS for informing against any master of a vessel or other white person, that shall take or attempt to take him off the country, on conviction of the offender, who in such case is by law liable to be hanged, of which all strangers are hereby warned to take notice. The reward will be paid in Georgia to whoever shall become entitled to it, by John Houston, Esq; or in South Carolina by JAMES PARSONS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1777.]

DINAH

Cape, Brian; Muter, Stephen, Esq.; Daniel, Robert; Glen, William, Jr.; Cochran, Robert

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from me about two months ago, a Negro wench named DINAH, formerly the property of Stephen Muter, Esq; deceased; she is an artful, sensible wench, and speaks good English, of a yellowish complexion, and short thick make, has several scars on one side of her cheek as if done by a whip. The above reward will be given on delivery of her to me in Charlestown, or at my plantation on Cainhoy, and, I hereby offer ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to whoever will inform of her being harboured by a white person, and FIFTY POUNDS if by a Negro to be paid on conviction. I suppose she may be harboured by some of the Negroes that were purchased at the sale of Mr. Muter's estate, especially by Messrs. Robert Daniel, William Glen, jun. or Robert Cochran's Negroes on Cainhoy; she having a brother and sister at the two first places, and a very good friend at the last. All Masters of Vessels and others are hereby forwarned not to carry her off the State at their peril.

BRIAN CAPE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1777.]

TOM

Simmons, John

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation in Prince William's Parish the 5th of October, 1777, two Negro Fellows named TOM and PRIMUS; the former is short and thick, smooth faced, and remarkably well made; the latter is a salt water negro, about 5 feet 10 inches high a little inclined to the mustee, speaks bad English and wears a blanket made into a great coat. Whoever will deliver the said fellows to the subscriber at Ponpon, or to Mr. Thomas Hut[illegible; Hutson?] in Prince William's Parish shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward for each; and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS if proved to be harboured by a white man, payable on conviction of the offender. JOHN SIMMONS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1777.]

PRIMUS; b. Africa

Simmons, John; Hut?, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation in Prince William's Parish the 5th of October, 1777, two Negro Fellows named TOM and PRIMUS; the former is short and thick, smooth faced, and remarkably well made; the latter is a salt water negro, about 5 feet 10 inches high a little inclined to the mustee, speaks bad English and wears a blanket made into a great coat. Whoever will deliver the said fellows to the subscriber at Ponpon, or to Mr. Thomas Hut[illegible; Hutson?] in Prince William's Parish shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward for each; and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS if proved to be harboured by a white man, payable on conviction of the offender. JOHN SIMMONS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1777.]

JACK FELL; EBOE JACK; b. Africa; Ibo

Butler, James Henry

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 23 October 1777.] See JACK FELL or EBOE JACK. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 14 October 1777.

QUASH; mutilated*Wood, John; Smith, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber, a tall young black Negro Fellow named QUASH, his toes are burnt off from one of his feet, and two from the other foot; when he went away, he had on a blue jacket and leather breeches. Whoever will deliver him to me at Goosecreek, or to Mr. Thomas Smith in Charlestown, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward; and whoever will give information of his being harboured, shall, on conviction, receive a reward of FIFTY POUNDS. JOHN WOOD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1777.]

FRANK*Boone, Capers; Boone, John (d); White, Sims, Captain; Simms

RUN away in September last, a stout likely well looking Negro Man named FRANK, formerly belonging to the late Mr. John Boone, and is thought to be harboured about Christ Church Parish and Charlestown; he may attempt to leave the State, therefore all persons are cautioned against carrying him off. A reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid to any person that will deliver the said fellow to the Warden of the Work House, Capt. SIMS WHITE in Charlestown, or at Santee to CAPERS BOONE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1777.]

JOSHUA; literate*M'Lin, Thomas

Newbern, North-Carolina, October 7, 1777. RUN away from the subscriber in July 1776, a Negro Fellow named JOSHUA, about 27 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high or thereabouts, a [illegible] long slim foot, his big toe longer than the rest, can write a tolerable good hand and print with a pen pretty well; he may forge himself with a pass, as he once did before. Whoever apprehends the above negro shall have TWENTY DOLLARS reward, and all reasonable charges paid to bring him to me at Newbern, or TEN DOLLARS if secured in any gaol, so that I may get him again.

THOMAS M'LIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1777.]

DANIEL*Mitchell, John

RUN away from me in May 1776, at Georgetown, a Negro Boy named DANIEL, about 20 years of age, near six feet high, supposed to be harboured near the mouth of Santee; he was formerly the property of William G[illegible; Glen?]; at the same time run away, a stout made Negro Fellow named DICK, about 5 feet 4 inches high, 30 years of age, formerly the property of Mr.[illegible], blacksmith, in Georgetown. FIFTY DOLLARS reward for securing any of said fellows in any gaol in this State, or TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS upon any white man being convicted of stealing, harbouring, or concealing the said fellows by me living near the Cheraws courthouse. JOHN MITCHELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1777.]

JOHNNY*Sommers, Humphry; Humphrey

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1777.]

POMPEY; barber*Perdriau, Samuel; Webb & Sautham; Peterman, Mr.

RUN away the 9th of October last, a stout, well set young fellow; he is remarkable for red eyes; had on when he went away, a blue broad cloth coattee, a brown fustian jacket, a pair of leather breeches, an osnaburg shirt, and a round hat with a white ribbon round it; his name is POMPEY, brought up a barber by Mr. Peterman, and sold at vendue in May last by Messrs. Webb and Sautham; he is well known in town. TWO DOLLARS will be paid to any person who delivers him to me in Charlestown; and a further reward of TWENTY POUNDS will be paid on conviction of his being harboured by a white person, and TEN POUNDS if by a negro. All captains of vessels and others are cautioned from carrying him off the state, as they will answer at their peril. SAMUEL PERDRIAU.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 13 November 1777.]

JACK*North & Trescott; Trescott

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 27 November 1777.]

SHADRICK; SHADRACH*Eaton, Samuel; Packrow, John; Hopkins, Samuel

Run away from the subscriber on Edisto Island, a Negro Fellow named SHADRICK, lately the property of Mr. John Packrow, and formerly of Mr. Hopkins, butcher. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Work house, or to me on Edisto Island, shall receive TWENTY POUNDS reward. SAMUEL EATON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 27 November 1777]

See SHADRICK; SHADRACH. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. 12 February 1778; 8 October 1778.

CORVIN*Chiffelle, Philotheos

RUN away from the subscriber, a negro waiting man, well known in Charlestown by the name of CORVIN; all persons are desired not to trust him on his master's account; and all masters of vessels are hereby cautioned about him. A reward of Ten Pounds currency will be paid upon his being in safe custody of the Warden of the Work-house. PHILOTHEOS CHIFFELLE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 11 December 1777]

DEAN; branded*Heyward, Daniel

RUN away from the subscriber in August, 1775, a Negro Man named DEAN, about 5 feet 7 inches high, has very bad fore teeth, is branded on the right breast IE. Twenty Dollars reward will be paid to whoever will apprehend and deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown or to me at my plantation in St. Helena Parish. DANIEL HEYWARD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 25 December 1777.]

MOSES; b. Africa; Guinea*Farr, John

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation in St. Bartholomew's Parish about 4 months past, a very black negro fellow named MOSES, 5 feet 10 inches high, of the Guinea country; had on when he went away a suit of homespun. A reward of Ten Pounds currency will be given on his delivery to the overseer of said plantation, or at Stono to JOHN FARR.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 25 December 1777]

ROBIN*Tidyman, Philip; Hinkley, William; Rose, John, Esq.

RUN away a negro man named ROBIN, about 26 years of age, rather under the middle size and country born; he lately belonged to Mr. William Hinkley on John's Island, and is supposed to be harboured thereabouts. Whoever will bring him to me, or in my absence to John Rose, Esq; in Charlestown, shall receive Ten Pounds reward; and Twenty Pounds on information and proof where and by whom he has been harboured. PHILIP TIDYMAN. N.B. I have reason to believe the above negro was inveigled away by an artful fellow named Ned, who formerly belonged to Mr. Hinkley, and now to Mr. Will Price.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 25 December 1777]

NED*Price, William; Hinkley, William

RUN away a negro man named ROBIN....PHILIP TIDYMAN. N.B. I have reason to believe the above negro was inveigled away by an artful fellow named Ned, who formerly belonged to Mr. Hinkley, and now to Mr. Will Price.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 25 December 1777]

LOUIS; branded*Wayne, Richard; M'Kelvey, Widow

RUN away from the subscriber, a short well-set Negro follow, named LOUIS; was taken out of Camden goal [sic; gaol] about a week ago, and the same day made his escape about twelve miles from Camden; he took with him a half wore light-coloured surtout, which is stained on the cape behind with Yellow paint; the said fellow is branded on the breast 3G; he pretends to have a wife at the Widow M'Kelvey's near Nelson's ferry, from whence he has been fetched once or twice already. A reward of Twenty Pounds, with reasonable charges, will be given to any person that delivers him to the subscriber in Charlestown; and a further reward will be given of One Hundred Pounds on proof of his being harboured by a white person, and Twenty Pounds if by a free negro, mulatto or slave, to be paid on conviction of the offender. RICHARD WAYNE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 25 December 1777]

DELIAH; DELIA; DELILAH; mulatto

Allston, William, Jr.; Simons, Maurice, Esq.; Nash, General (d); Belin, Allard; Limes, Captain; Allston, Joseph, Esq.

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. ABSENTED herself from her master, William Allston, jun. Esq; in town last night, DELIAH, a remarkable fair mulatto wench; she is about 25 years of age, of a middling stature, pretty thick, is likely, very sensible, speaks proper and may probably attempt to pass for a white woman; she lately belonged to the deceased General Nash, of North-Carolina; was brought from thence about 3 weeks since by one Capt. Limes, in a ship consigned to Maurice Simons, Esq. The above reward will be paid to any person who will convict a white person or persons or free negro of harbouring said wench; and Twenty-five Pounds if harboured by a slave, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders; and Fifty Pounds to any person who will apprehend and deliver her to Joseph Allston, Esq; of Waccamaw, to the Warden of the Work house in this town, or the subscriber; who hereby forewarns all masters of vessels and others from taking her out of this State, as they may expect to be dealt, with according to law. ALLARD BELIN. Charlestown, Dec. 11, 1777.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 1 January 1778]

PETER; mulatto; drummer; Grenadier

M'Call, John, Jr.

RUN away from the subscriber, a Mulatto Boy named PETER, about 15 years old, well known in and about Charlestown, being formerly a drummer to the Grenadier company; had on when he went away, a new blue whitney coatee, with plain brass buttons thereon, a white double milled flannel robin, a good pair of London made buckskin breeches, and a new round hat; he may probably take other cloaths with him, as he had a variety. Whoever will deliver the said boy to the subscriber, shall have Two Dollars reward; and if information can be given of his being harboured by a white person, the informer shall receive Twenty Dollars. All masters of vessels are hereby forewarned against carrying him off the State, as they will answer the same at their peril. He is very artful, and may probably attempt to pass for being free. JOHN M'CALL, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 1 January 1778]

SCIPIO

Arwin & Rugge

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 1 January 1778]

See SCIPIO. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). December 1777.

OLIVE (male)

Hinds, Patrick

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 8 January 1778]

See OLIVE in other newspapers.

ROMEO

Motte, Charles

RUN away from the subscriber about 2 months ago, a Negro Boy named ROMEO, well known in Charlestown; had on when he went away, a brown jacket and breeches, with black buttons; he is about 13 years old. Whoever will give information of his being harboured by a white person, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward, and if by a negro Ten Pounds, as I am determined to prosecute them. Whoever will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Ten Pounds. I forewarn all masters of vessels from carrying him off the State. CHARLES MOTTE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 29 January 1778]

FRANK

Moultrie, William; Middleton, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber about 3 months ago, a Negro Fellow named FRANK, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a remarkable cut on one of his hands, speaks good English, and is 35 years of age; also a stout Negro wench with her daughter, who is about 12 year of age; she is a good spinner, country born. They were seen lately at Mr. Middleton's plantation. A reward of Twenty Pounds is offered for each of the said negroes, to any person who will deliver them to the Warden of the work-house. WILLIAM MOULTRIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 29 January 1778]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; spinner; 1 daughter

Moultrie, William; Middleton, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber about 3 months ago, a Negro Fellow named FRANK, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a remarkable cut on one of his hands, speaks good English, and is 35 years of age; also a stout Negro wench with her daughter, who is about 12 year of age; she is a good spinner, country born. They were seen lately at Mr. Middleton's plantation. A reward of Twenty Pounds is offered for each of the said negroes, to any person who will deliver them to the Warden of the work-house. WILLIAM MOULTRIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 29 January 1778]

ANONYMOUS GIRL

Moultrie, William; Middleton, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber about 3 months ago, a Negro Fellow named FRANK, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a remarkable cut on one of his hands, speaks good English, and is 35 years of age; also a stout Negro wench with her daughter, who is about 12 year of age; she is a good spinner, country born. They were seen lately at Mr. Middleton's plantation. A reward of Twenty Pounds is offered for each of the said negroes, to any person who will deliver them to the Warden of the work-house. WILLIAM MOULTRIE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 29 January 1778]

MINUS; MINOS

Cuhun, George; Colquhon?; Myers, Charles (d)

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negroe Fellow named MINUS this country born, speaks good English, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, formerly belonged to Mr. Charles Myers, deceased, and pretends to pass for a free man; is well known in Charles-town, Goosecreek and Ponpon, where his mother lives. I forewarn all masters of vessels and others from harbouring or carrying said fellow off this State; and I do hereby offer a reward of Twenty Pounds to any person who will apprehend and deliver said fellow to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown. GEORGE CUHUN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 29 January 1778]

STEPNEY

Heriot, George

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 29 January 1778]

See STEPNEY in other newspapers.

JOE; mustee; goldsmith

Valk, Jacob

TWO HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD. RUN away about 7 years ago, a very likely mustee boy named JOE, then about 14 years old, brought up to the goldsmith's business; he was short and chubbed, has had the small pox, but no very visible marks; he has a round head, broad foreteeth, the white of his eyes somewhat yellow, very sensible and artful, and may perhaps pass himself for a free fellow; he has no particular marks about him as can be remembered, except on his back or nearer the shoulder, where he was stabbed by a negro. The above reward of Two Hundred Pounds South-Carolina money, will be paid on delivery of him to JACOB VALK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 February 1778]

PLENTY

Valk, Jacob; Logan, John, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber about three weeks ago, a Negro man named PLENTY, formerly the property of John Logan, Esq; at the Round O, at which said plantation he was seen about a month ago; he is about 5 feet 8 inches high, had on when he went away, a blue jacket lined with white negro cloth, white breeches and white stockings, and a check shirt, is of a very black complexion, full faced, country born, very artful and sensible; he used to wear silver ear-rings. Whoever delivers the said negro to the Warden of the Work house, or to me in Charles-town, shall have Twenty five Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges, by JACOB VALK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 February 1778]

BRISTOL; wife: Celia

Roche, Thomas; Oliphant, David, Dr.

RUN away from the subscriber about the first of January, two Negroes, BRISTOL and his wife CELIA, late the property of Dr. Oliphant, and is well known in many parts of the country, particularly at [Haddrell's] Haddrell's Point and Sullivan's Island; they carried different shifts of cloaths, amongst others he had a Soldier's coat. Whoever will deliver them to the Warden of the Work house, or the subscriber, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward. THOMAS ROCHE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 February 1778]

CELIA; husband: Bristol

Roche, Thomas; Oliphant, David, Dr.

RUN away from the subscriber about the first of January, two Negroes, BRISTOL and his wife CELIA, late the property of Dr. Oliphant, and is well known in many parts of the country, particularly at Haddrell's [Haddrell's] Point and Sullivan's Island; they carried different shifts of cloaths, amongst others he had a Soldier's coat. Whoever will deliver them to the Warden of the Work house, or the subscriber, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward. THOMAS ROCHE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 February 1778]

SARAH

M'Call, John; Hahnbaum, George, Dr.

RUN away from the subscriber on Friday the 23d of January, a Negro Woman named SARAH, 20 years old, had on when she went away, a black petticoat lined yellow, a white cloth jacket and a blue and white jacket, with a handkerchief about her head; she formerly belonged to Dr. Hahnbaum. Twenty Pounds reward will be given to any person who will deliver her to me or the Warden of the Work-house; and Fifty Pounds to any person who can make it appear she is harboured by any white person.

JOHN M'CALL, Taylor.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 February 1778]

PHEBE; PHOEBE

Hall, Daniel; Mackenzie, Mrs.

RUN away the day after the fire from the subscriber, a negro wench named PHEBE, formerly the property of Mrs. Mackenzie; she is a middling sized wench, and had on when she went away, a striped linen gown. One Hundred Pounds will be paid on conviction if harboured by a white person, and Fifty Pounds if by a negro. Whoever delivers her to the Warden of the Work house or to me, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward. DANIEL HALL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 February 1778]

BEN; b. Africa; Ibo

Matthews, John

RUN away from the subscriber about the 20th of Nov. last, a negro fellow named BEN, of the Eboe country; he is about five feet, 6 or 7 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, and very round shouldered; he has been for near two years past employed on the publick works, and for the last sixteen months at Sullivan and Long Islands [now Isle of Palms]; he has lately been seen in Charlestown, where he may probably attempt to pass as still being employed on the publick works. Any person who will apprehend the said negro and deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to my overseer at my plantation on Ashley river, near Dorchester, shall be entitled to a reward of Twenty Pounds currency, and all reasonable charges. JOHN MATTHEWES.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 February 1778]

PRIMUS

Harris & Co., Meeting Street

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 February 1778]
See PRIMUS and PRINCE in other newspapers.

PRINCE

Harris & Co., Meeting Street

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 February 1778]
See PRIMUS and PRINCE in other newspapers.

SAUNDERS

Lawrence, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 February 1778]

SHADRICK; SHADRACH

Hopkins, Samuel; Cunningham, William

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD for SHADRICK, a Negro man belonging to Mr. Samuel Hopkins, about 5 feet 8 inches high, had on about six weeks ago, coat jacket and breeches of homespun. The above reward will be paid for delivering him to the Warden of the Work-house, or the subscriber, who hereby forewarns all masters of vessels against taking him off the State, on pain of the utmost rigour of the law. WILLIAM CUNNINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 February 1778]

See SHADRICK; SHADRACH. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. 27 November 1777.

See SHADRACH. South-Carolina and American General Gazette. 8 October 1778.

TOM; cook

Pinckney, Hopson

ABSENTED himself from Haddrell's Point, a stout likely fellow named TOM, of a yellow complexion, and a remarkable thick beard; he is very plausible, and may attempt to pass for a free man, or engage on board some vessel as a cook: This is to warn all masters of vessels and others from employing the said fellow, and to offer a reward of Ten Pounds to any person who will deliver him to the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me in St. Thomas's Parish. HOPSON PINCKNEY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 19 February 1778]

NED

Price, William; Tidyman, Philip; Hinckley, William; Rivers, Mr.; Stoutenburg, Mrs.

RUN away, a negro man named NED, about 40 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, this country born, formerly belonged to Mr. Rivers on James Island, for whom he attended the market, who sold him to Mr. Hinckley, with whom he lived some time on John's Island, until he sold him at publick sale to Mr. Tidyman, of whom the subscriber lately bought him; he is an active artful fellow, has a wife at Mrs. Stoutenburg's plantation on John's Island, where he may probably be harboured. Whoever will deliver the said fellow to the Warden of the Work-house or to the subscriber on Back river, Goosecreek, shall receive fifty Pounds reward; and any person giving information of his being harboured shall receive the same reward on conviction of the offender, from WILLIAM PRICE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 19 February 1778]

ISAAC; sailor

Jarvis, John; Ash, John

RUN away from the subscriber in December last, a negro fellow named ISAAC, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, formerly went in Mr. John Ash's schooner; he is supposed to be harboured about Tobedoo, as he has a wife at Mr. John Ash's plantation. A reward of One Hundred Pounds will be given to any person giving information of his being harboured by a white person, so that he or she may be prosecuted and convicted; and Twenty Pounds if by a negro, and Fifteen Pounds for the delivery of him to the Warden of the Work house or to me on Stann's Island. JOHN JARVIS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

JACK

Branton, Henry

RUN away from the subscriber about a month go, a negro fellow named JACK, about 5 feet high, thick legs, full face and small eyes; speaks good English, this country born, had on a blue jacket and straw hat, formerly belonging to Mr. Thomas Middleton, merchant in Charlestown; he was seen lately in town. A reward of Ten Pounds will be given to any person who will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to me at Whitehall, near the Twenty three Mile House. HENRY BRANTON. Feb. 19, 1778.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

YORK

Fullerton, John

RUN away on Thursday Feb. 12, 1778, two negroes, a fellow and a wench; the fellow's name is YORK, speaks very quick, is short and smooth faced, had on when he went away, a striped homespun jacket, double breasted robin, and short breeches: The wench's name is FATIMA, speaks very bad English, and was likewise cloathed in homespun. They will probably make for the southward, where they were bought. Whoever delivers them to the subscriber, at his plantation in St. George's Parish, or to the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, or secures them in any of the county gaols, shall be entitled to Ten Pounds for each, to be paid by JOHN FULLERTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

FATIMA; b. Africa?; Muslim?

Fullerton, John

RUN away on Thursday Feb. 12, 1778, two negroes, a fellow and a wench; the fellow's name is YORK, speaks very quick, is short and smooth faced, had on when he went away, a striped homespun jacket, double breasted robin, and short breeches: The wench's name is FATIMA, speaks very bad English, and was likewise cloathed in homespun. They will probably make for the southward, where they were bought. Whoever delivers them to the subscriber, at his plantation in St. George's Parish, or to the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, or secures them in any of the county gaols, shall be entitled to Ten Pounds for each, to be paid by JOHN FULLERTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

JAMALING; b. Africa?; Muslim?

Edings, Joseph

RUN away from the subscribers on Feb. 14, 1778, a negro fellow, named JAMALING; he is about 30 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high; had on when he went away, a suit of homespun, and a large watch coat. whoever delivers the said negro to the subscriber on Laurell Bluff, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of Ten Pounds currency. JOSEPH EDINGS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

BRISTOL; wheelwright

Walter, John Alleyne

RUN away from the subscriber, three negro men, all this country born, viz. BRISTOL, CUSH and GUY: Bristol is a wheelwright by trade, about 50 years old, and well known in this State and Georgia; Cush a sensible, artful fellow, speaks good English, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and lusty made; Guy speaks good English, is well made, has a wife at Mrs. Thomas's plantation, and is supposed to be harboured there by the negroes. Whoever will deliver the above negroes to the subscriber, or the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall receive Ten Pounds currency for each; and if information can be given of their being harboured by a white person, the informer shall receive One Hundred Pounds currency for each; and if by a negro Thirty Pounds. All masters of vessels and others are hereby forewarned against carrying them off this State, or employing them in any way whatever, as they will answer the same at their peril. JOHN ALLEYNE WALTER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

CUSH

Walter, John Alleyne

RUN away from the subscriber, three negro men, all this country born, viz. BRISTOL, CUSH and GUY: Bristol is a wheelwright by trade, about 50 years old, and well known in this State and Georgia; Cush a sensible, artful fellow, speaks good English, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and lusty made; Guy speaks good English, is well made, has a wife at Mrs. Thomas's plantation, and is supposed to be harboured there by the negroes. Whoever will deliver the above negroes to the subscriber, or the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall receive Ten Pounds currency for each; and if information can be given of their being harboured by a white person, the informer shall receive One Hundred Pounds currency for each; and if by a negro Thirty Pounds. All masters of vessels and others are hereby forewarned against carrying them off this State,, or employing them in any way whatever, as they will answer the same at their peril. JOHN ALLEYNE WALTER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

GUY

Walter, John Alleyne; Thomas, Mrs.

RUN away from the subscriber, three negro men, all this country born, viz. BRISTOL, CUSH and GUY: Bristol is a wheelwright by trade, about 50 years old, and well known in this State and Georgia; Cush a sensible, artful fellow, speaks good English, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and lusty made; Guy speaks good English, is well made, has a wife at Mrs. Thomas's plantation, and is supposed to be harboured there by the negroes. Whoever will deliver the above negroes to the subscriber, or the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, shall receive Ten Pounds currency for each; and if information can be given of their being harboured by a white person, the informer shall receive One Hundred Pounds currency for each; and if by a negro Thirty Pounds. All masters of vessels and others are hereby forewarned against carrying them off this State,, or employing them in any way whatever, as they will answer the same at their peril. JOHN ALLEYNE WALTER.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

REO

Weston, Plowden; Hamlin, Mr. TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber a negro fellow named REO, country born and sensible, lately belonging to the estate of Mr. Hamlin at the Cypress, and is supposed to be harboured in that neighbourhood, where he is well known, or about Dorchester: Also a likely fellow named ISAAC, of the Guinea Country, but speaks tolerable English, and was persuaded to go away by the above mentioned fellow. A reward of Twenty Pounds will be paid on delivering of Reo to the Warden of the Work house, and Ten Pounds for Isaac, besides all reasonable charges; but if they will return of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. All persons are forewarned from harbouring the said Negroes. PLOWDEN WESTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

ISAAC; b. Africa; Guinea

Weston, Plowden

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber a negro fellow named REO, country born and sensible, lately belonging to the estate of Mr. Hamlin at the Cypress, and is supposed to be harboured in that neighbourhood, where he is well known, or about Dorchester: Also a likely fellow named ISAAC, of the Guinea Country, but speaks tolerable English, and was persuaded to go away by the above mentioned fellow. A reward of Twenty Pounds will be paid on delivering of Reo to the Warden of the Work house, and Ten Pounds for Isaac, besides all reasonable charges; but if they will return of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. All persons are forewarned from harbouring the said Negroes. PLOWDEN WESTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 February 1778]

BRUTUS; b. Africa; Angola; branded

Waight, Abraham; Brown, Captain

RUN away from the subscriber about two months past, a short thick fellow of the Angola country named BRUTUS, of a very black complexion, knock kneed, and branded on one of his cheeks with a blotched R; he was seen on board of Capt. Brown's schooner, on her way to Charlestown, about a month since, in or near which place it is supposed he is harboured. All masters of vessels are hereby cautioned from carrying him off this State; and a reward of Fifty Pounds will be given to any one that will inform of his being harboured by a white person, or Ten Pounds if by a negro, on conviction of the offender; and a reward of Ten Pounds for him delivered to the Warden of the Work-house, or the subscriber on John's Island. ABRAHAM WAIGHT.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 March 1778]

HARRY

Ladson, Elizabeth; Bowler, William; Ladson, Thomas, Capt.; Miles, Joseph (d); Postell, John, Jr.

RUN away from the plantation now in the possession of Mr. William Bowler, near Godfrey's Savannah, a negro man named HARRY, a tall slim fellow, with a small face, about 30 years of age; he is this country born, has some of his foreteeth out, and is supposed to be harboured by some of his friends, either at Capt. Thomas Ladson's plantation, at the plantation of Mr. Joseph Miles, deceased, at the Great Swamp, or at the plantation of Mr. John Postell, jun. at the Waterees. I will give One Hundred Pounds to any person that will deliver the said fellow to me at my plantation in St. Paul's Parish, near Parker's Ferry, or in Charlestown to the Warden of the-Work-house. ELIZABETH LADSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 March 1778]

SCIPIO; shoemaker

Abercromby, John; Mitchell, Moses (d)

RUN away from the subscriber about four weeks ago, a negro fellow named SCIPIO, a shoemaker by trade, formerly the property of the deceased Mr. Moses Mitchell, can read and write very well, and it is possible he may write a ticket for himself to pass, as he has many acquaintance at Hobcaw, and is supposed to be harboured thereabouts; he is about 5 1/2 feet high, full faced, and of a yellowish complexion. Whoever will give information of his being harboured by a white person, shall receive Twenty Pounds, and if by a negro Ten Pounds, as I am determined to prosecute them; and whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Twenty Pounds. I forewarn all masters of vessels from carrying him off the State. JOHN ABERCROMBY.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 March 1778]

TONEY; waiting-man

Cromwell, Oliver; Lynch, Thomas; Wareham, Charles, Jr.

RUN away from the subscriber the 6th of August, 1776, a likely young negro man named TONEY; he is about 5 feet 9 inches high, this country born, and very sensible; he formerly belonged to Thomas Lynch, Esq; and was his waiting man; he has a sister at one of Mr. Lynch's plantation, by whom, it is said, he is harboured; also a young negro man named PORTSMOUTH, a taylor by trade; he went away the 6th of June last; he is about 5 feet 6 inches high, has a remarkable high breast, large lips, and walks very upright; he is supposed to be harboured either in Charlestown or at Goosecreek, where he is very well known, A reward of Thirty Dollars for Toney, and Twenty Pounds for Portsmouth, will be paid to any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house: A further reward of One Hundred Pounds if harboured by a white person; if by a negro Twenty Pounds will be paid, upon conviction of either of them being harboured by applying in Charlestown to Charles Wareham, jun. or the subscriber on Santee, near Lanneau's Ferry. OLIVER CROMWELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 March 1778]

PORTSMOUTH; tailor

Cromwell, Oliver; Lynch, Thomas; Wareham, Charles, Jr.

RUN away from the subscriber the 6th of August, 1776, a likely young negro man named TONEY ...also a young negro man named PORTSMOUTH, a taylor by trade; he went away the 6th of June last; he is about 5 feet 6 inches high, has a remarkable high breast, large lips, and walks very upright; he is supposed to be harboured either in Charlestown or at Goosecreek, where he is very well known, A reward of Thirty Dollars for Toney, and Twenty Pounds for Portsmouth, will be paid to any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house: A further reward of One Hundred Pounds if harboured by a white person; if by a negro Twenty Pounds will be paid, upon conviction of either of them being harboured by applying in Charlestown to Charles Wareham, jun. or the subscriber on Santee, near Lanneau's Ferry. OLIVER CROMWELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 March 1778]

CLARISSA; b. Africa; Fulla

Gaultier, Joseph

RUN away from the subscriber on Sunday evening the 28th of December last, a Negro wench about 19 or 20 years of age, named CLARISSA, of the Fulla country, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, stout and well made, remarkably high chested, a small scar on her stomach, one of her upper and one of her lower foreteeth out; had on when she went away, an osnaburgh shift and wrapper of the same, a striped ticking petticoat with callico borders; she took with her a furniture check wrapper red and white, a linen one and sundry other clothes; speaks tolerably good English. A reward of Twenty Pounds will be given to any person or persons that will apprehend and deliver the said wench to the subscriber, or the Warden of the Work house; and a further reward of Fifty Pounds to any person that can convict any white person or persons of harbouring the said wench, and Twenty Pounds if harboured by free or slave negroes, to be paid on conviction by JOSEPH GAULTIER. N.B. If the said wench will return of her own accord, she shall be forgiven.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 5 March 1778]

PRINCE; sailor

Hawkins, Phillip; Owen, John; Green, Captain; Thompson, William, Col.

RUN away from Mr. Philip Hawkins's plantation at the Congarees, a negro fellow named PRINCE, about 5 feet 8 inches high; he has lately been seen in Charlestown, and had on an osnabrug split shirt and breeches; he was formerly the property of Capt. Green, and has been accustomed to the sea, on which account he may probably attempt to ship himself on board of some vessel. All masters of vessels and others are hereby forewarned against carrying him off the State, or employing him. Whosoever will deliver the above negro to Col. William Thompson at Amelia or the subscriber, shall receive Twenty Dollars, besides all reasonable charges. JOHN OWEN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 March 1778]

BRUTUS; b. Africa; Guinea

Akin, James

RUN away, a negro lad named BRUTUS about 19 years of age, of the Guiney country, about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, very likely, active and well made, somewhat bow legged, turns his feet out rather too much; his navel larger than common, and speaks tolerable good English. A reward of One Hundred Pounds will be paid on conviction of a white person, Fifty Pounds of a free negro, and Twenty-five pounds of a slave, for harbouring him; and Ten Dollars to any person who will apprehend and deliver him to the subscriber in St. Thomas Parish, or the Warden of the Work-house, with reasonable charges.

JAMES AKIN.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 March 1778]

COLLY; b. Africa

Evans, George, Jr.

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away, a negro fellow named COLLY, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, a little ruptured, African born, consequently speaks bad English. Whoever apprehends and delivers him to the subscriber near Dorchester, shall be entitled to the above reward. GEORGE EVANS, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 12 March 1778]

LUKE; speaks French

Wayne, Richard, & Co.; Valk, Jacob

RUN away, a Negro Fellow named LUKE, belonging to the schooner Pocotaligo Packet, the property of RICHARD WAYNE and Co. This fellow speaks French, and is perhaps amongst some of them. A reward of Fifty Pounds currency is offered, and will be paid, to any person who will give information of his being harboured by any white person, upon conviction of the offender; and Twenty Pounds, on his being delivered to me. JACOB VALK.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 19 March 1778]

ISAAC; b. Africa; Kissi; branded

Maxwell, William; Mayfield, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber about two years since, a negro fellow named ISAAC; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, square and well made; he has been seen about Waccamaw neck or Pedee, and says his master's name is Mayfield, and that he came from the Southward; also last September, a negro fellow named DAVY, of the same age and size; they are both of the Kishey country, artful and sly, and each branded on both breasts W. MXLL, perhaps a little obscure. Whoever delivers either of them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall be suitably rewarded; but on conviction of the harbourer, the sum of Fifty Pounds for each, paid by WILLIAM MAXWELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 March 1778]

DAVY; b. Africa; Kissi; branded

Maxwell, William

RUN away from the subscriber about two years since, a negro fellow named ISAAC; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, square and well made; he has been seen about Waccamaw neck or Pedee, and says his master's name is Mayfield, and that he came from the Southward; also last September, a negro fellow named DAVY, of the same age and size; they are both of the Kishey country, artful and sly, and each branded on both breasts W. MXLL, perhaps a little obscure. Whoever delivers either of them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall be suitably rewarded; but on conviction of the harbourer, the sum of Fifty Pounds for each, paid by WILLIAM

MAXWELL.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 March 1778]

TIMMY

Tart, Nathan

RUN away since August last from the subscriber, a negro fellow named TIMMY, country born, about 40 years old, tall and slim, has a great impediment in his speech, had on when he went away, a pair of drab cloth breeches and homespun jacket. Whoever will deliver him to me or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or will give such information where he is harboured so that he may be caught, shall receive a reward of Twenty five Pounds; and if harboured by a white person, a reward of One Hundred Pounds upon conviction of the same, from NATHAN TART.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 March 1778]

WILL

Reeves, Henry; Broughton, Andrew, Jr.

RUN away in October last, a negro fellow named WILL, late the property of Mr. Andrew Broughton, jun. He is about 25 years of age, and 5 feet 4 inches high, to be harboured about said Broughton's plantation. Whoever will deliver said negro to the subscriber or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Twenty Pounds, and reasonable charges; and whoever will inform of his being harboured, on conviction of the offender, shall receive One Hundred Dollars reward, if a white man, and Twenty Dollars if a negro. HENRY REEVES.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 26 March 1778.]

PETER; b. West Indies; Jamaica

Legare, Daniel, Jr.

RUN away about the 20th of March, a Negro fellow named PETER, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, born in Jamaica; had on when he went away, a brown jacket double breasted and a pair of leather breeches. Ten Pounds reward will be paid to any person that will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or to the subscriber at Wassamsaw. DANIEL LEGARE, jun.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 2 April 1778, Addition.]

ABRAHAM; b. Africa; Guinea

Herly, Isaac

THREE new NEGROES of the Guiney country, supposed to be run away from this State, named Abraham, Smart, and George, have lately been taken up in North-Carolina, and are now at a plantation about twenty miles from Wilmington. For further information apply to ISAAC HERLY at Washaw plantation, Santee, near Lewis's Ferry.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

SMART; b. Africa; Guinea

Herly, Isaac

THREE new NEGROES of the Guiney country, supposed to be run away from this State, named Abraham, Smart, and George, have lately been taken up in North-Carolina, and are now at a plantation about twenty miles from Wilmington. For further information apply to ISAAC HERLY at Washaw plantation, Santee, near Lewis's Ferry.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

GEORGE; b. Africa; Guinea

Herly, Isaac

THREE new NEGROES of the Guiney country, supposed to be run away from this State, named Abraham, Smart, and George, have lately been taken up in North-Carolina, and are now at a plantation about twenty miles from Wilmington. For further information apply to ISAAC HERLY at Washaw plantation, Santee, near Lewis's Ferry.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

ANDREW

Lord, John; Leeson, Mr.; Kelvey, Mrs. (d); Thomson, Col.; Loockock, Aaron

RUN away from the subscriber the 2d of April instant, a young negro fellow named ANDREW, late the property of Mrs. Kelvey deceased, and bought of Mr. Leeson in Charlestown about a month ago; he is rather short and thick made, of a black complexion, with a remarkable large nose; had on when he went away, an old blue jacket, osnaburg shirt and trowsers, and a straw cap. Whoever delivers said runaway to me at my plantation near Col. Thomson's or to Mr. Aaron Loockock in Charlestown, shall receive Twenty Pounds reward, and reasonable charges. JOHN LORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

SENTY

Godin, Isaac

ABSENTED himself from the plantation late of Mr. Isaac Godin, in Goosecreek, about six weeks since, a Negro boy called SENTRY, about 15 years of age, well made and artful; he was dressed when he went off with a brown coat and leather breeches, but was seen afterwards in Charlestown in a sailor's dress, and is supposed to be employed on board of some vessel. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned not to employ or entertain the said runaway, or they will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. Ten Pounds currency reward (over and above what is allowed by law) will be paid to any person that will apprehend and deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

JEFFERY

Adams, Nathaniel; Oliphant, David, Dr.

TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Wadmelow [Wadmalaw] Island, a Negro Fellow named JEFFERY; which fellow I purchased last May at Dr. Oliphant's sale; he is of a black complexion, well made, no visible marks as I remember; he is supposed to be on or about Dr. Oliphant's plantation, near Dorchester, where he formerly lived. I will give a reward of Twenty five Pounds on delivery of said negro to the Warden of the Work-house, or to my overseer on Wadmelow Island; any person knowing him to be harboured and will inform, shall, upon conviction of the offender, receive the above reward. NATHANIEL ADAMS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

BRISTOL; wife: Celia

Roche, Thomas; Oliphant, David, Dr. RUN away in January last, two negroes named BRISTOL and CELIA, formerly the property of Dr. Oliphant; they are well known in different parts of the country, and have been seen lately in Charlestown. Should they return of their accord, their elopement will be forgiven; likewise a negro boy named PETER, about 15 years of age, had on when he went away, a black waistcoat and robin, the button holes worked with white thread, a pair of leather breeches, and check shirt; was purchased of Mr. Jacob Valk, and formerly the property of Mr. Nicholas Lechmere, of Port-Royal, where it is supposed he has gone. A reward of Fifty Pounds will be given on information of their being harboured by a white person; Twenty Pounds if by a negro, and Twenty Pounds for each on delivery of them to the warden of the Work-house, or THOMAS ROCHE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

CELIA; husband: Bristol

Roche, Thomas; Oliphant, David, Dr. RUN away in January last, two negroes named BRISTOL and CELIA, formerly the property of Dr. Oliphant; they are well known in different parts of the country, and have been seen lately in Charlestown. Should they return of their accord, their elopement will be forgiven....THOMAS ROCHE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

PETER

Roche, Thomas; Valk, Jacob; Lechmere, Nicholas RUN away in January last, two negroes named BRISTOL and CELIA...likewise a negro boy named PETER, about 15 years of age, had on when he went away, a black waistcoat and robin, the button holes worked with white thread, a pair of leather breeches, and check shirt; was purchased of Mr. Jacob Valk, and formerly the property of Mr. Nicholas Lechmere, of Port-Royal, where it is supposed he has gone. A reward of Fifty Pounds will be given on information of their being harboured by a white person; Twenty Pounds if by a negro, and Twenty Pounds for each on delivery of them to the warden of the Work-house, or THOMAS ROCHE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

PHILLIS

Remington, Margaret

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

See PHILLIS and ELSEY. Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy). 25 November 1777.

See PHILLIS in other newspapers.

ELSIE

Remington, Margaret

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

See PHILLIS and ELSEY, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina (Timothy), 25 November 1777

See ELSEY in other newspapers.

KINSALE

Wilson, John; Godin, Isaac; Salvador, Mr.; Bonneau, Josiah

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

ELICK; ALEC; ALECK

Wilson, John

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

NANCY

Wilson, John

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

NERO

Wilson, John

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

WARWICK*Wilson, John

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

JULY; mutilated*Wilson, John; Godin, Isaac

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

PETER; wife: Coomba*Wilson, John; Salvador, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

COOMBA; husband: Peter*Wilson, John; Salvador, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber, the following NEGROES, viz. Kinsale, Ellick, Nancy, and Nero, these went off at the same time, and may probably keep together. Warwick and July; as the former came from Georgia, and is a stranger in the State, it is likely he may keep company with July, who was brought from Mr. Isaac Godin's plantation at the Southward. Peter and his wife Coomba bought at Mr. Salvador's sale; as they have relations in Dorchester, they may make for that place; the fellow is remarkable for having lost the roof of his mouth, and by having one leg much larger than the other, occasioned by the bite of a dog some years since. Fifteen Pounds reward will be paid for each upon delivery to the Warden of the work-house, applying to Mr. Josiah Bonneau, or upon delivery to the subscriber at Amelia, with all reasonable charges. JOHN WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 16 April 1778]

BEN; coachman*Nash, Abner; Rose, Alexander

Newbern, North Carolina, March 21, 1778. RUN away from the subscriber, a short well set fellow, rather of a yellow complexion, named BEN; had on when he went away, an old blue coat; he is an exceeding good horseman and carriage driver, and a very active arch fellow; it is more than probable he may be in Charlestown. I will give Fifty Dollars to whoever will apprehend and deliver him to me at Newbern, or to Alexander Rose, Esq; or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, with all reasonable charges. ABNER NASH.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 23 April 1778]

PRIMUS

Johnson, William

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 23 April 1778]

See PRIMUS in other newspapers.

WILL; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Remington, John

RUN away from the subscriber's waggon the 10th of April instant, on his return from the camp near Nelson's ferry, a negro fellow named WILL, about five feet nine inches high, has his country marks each side of his face, slender made, 23 years of age, had on a homespun jacket and woollen breeches. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work house, or the subscriber at Goosecreek, shall receive Ten Pounds and all reasonable charges; and one hundred Pounds on conviction of his being harboured by a white person. Also run away about the 25th of May, 1775, a negro fellow named TOM, but may change his name to FROHAWK; he is about 5 feet 5 inches high, has a film on one of his eyes, and lost the lower part of both of his ears, is very talkative, was born in North-Carolina; he was seen at the time he was missing on board the ship Baillie's, Thomas Powell master, bound for Liverpool; for the delivery of him to the Warden of the Work house, the person shall be entitled to one third of the value of the said fellow.

JOHN REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 30 April 1778]

TOM; FROHAWK; b. North Carolina; mutilated

Remington, John

RUN away from the subscriber's waggon the 10th of April instant, on his return from the camp near Nelson's ferry, a negro fellow named WILL, about five feet nine inches high, has his country marks each side of his face, slender made, 23 years of age, had on a homespun jacket and woollen breeches. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work house, or the subscriber at Goosecreek, shall receive Ten Pounds and all reasonable charges; and one hundred Pounds on conviction of his being harboured by a white person. Also run away about the 25th of May, 1775, a negro fellow named TOM, but may change his name to FROHAWK; he is about 5 feet 5 inches high, has a film on one of his eyes, and lost the lower part of both of his ears, is very talkative, was born in North-Carolina; he was seen at the time he was missing on board the ship Baillie's, Thomas Powell master, bound for Liverpool; for the delivery of him to the Warden of the Work house, the person shall be entitled to one third of the value of the said fellow. JOHN REMINGTON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 30 April 1778]

TOM; sailor; cook

Pinckney, Hopson

RUN away last Friday, a negro fellow named TOM, well known at Haddrell's [Haddrell's] Point, having worked there all last year, has a remarkable large beard; he is very plausible, and may attempt to pass for a free man, or engage on board some vessel as a sailor or a cook, being used to both; he had with him when he went away, a brown cloth coat turned up with white. Also a negro fellow named BILLY, of a yellow complexion, round-shouldered, and looks elderly, had on a brown jacket and homespun breeches. A reward of Five Dollars will be paid for each on being delivered at the Work house, or to me in St. Thomas Parish. HOPSON PINCKNEY. April 26, 1778.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 30 April 1778]

See TOM in other newspapers.

BILLY

Pinckney, Hopson RUN away last Friday, a negro fellow named TOM....Also a negro fellow named BILLY, of a yellow complexion, round-shouldered, and looks elderly, had on a brown jacket and homespun breeches. A reward of Five Dollars will be paid for each on being delivered at the Work house, or to me in St. Thomas Parish. HOPSON PINCKNEY. April 26, 1778.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 30 April 1778]

STEPNEY; hostler

Saltus, Francis; Wright, Alexander; Righton, M'Culley

RUN away from the subscriber on April 3d, two negro fellows, STEPNEY and JACK; Stepney is about 5 feet 8 inches high, a stout well made fellow, had on when he went away, a white negro cloth jacket and white trowsers, is a good hostler, and formerly belonging to Alex. Wright of this State: Jack is about 5 feet high, about 40 years old, speaks French well, a good oarsman, had on when he went away, an old brown negro cloth jacket and trowsers. Whoever will deliver them to Mr. M'Culley Righton, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Twenty Dollars reward. FRANCIS SALTUS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 30 April 1778]

JACK; speaks French; oarsman

Saltus, Francis

RUN away from the subscriber on April 3d, two negro fellows, STEPNEY and JACK....Jack is about 5 feet high, about 40 years old, speaks French well, a good oarsman, had on when he went away, an old brown negro cloth jacket and trowsers. Whoever will deliver them to Mr. M'Culley Righton, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Twenty Dollars reward. FRANCIS SALTUS.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 30 April 1778]

MOLLY

Akin, James; M'Queen, Alexander; Canty, Charles; Villeponteaux, Zachariah; Villepontoux

RUN away ten days since, a middle-sized, likely country born negro wench, named MOLLY, slim and neat made, thin visaged, speaks remarkably well, very artful, and is 25 years old; when she went away, she had on a homespun habit; she hath relations at the plantations of Alexander M'Queen, Esq; southerly, at Charles Canty, Esq; at Santee, at Zachariah Villiponteaux, Esq; in St. James's, Goosecreek, and in St. John's Parish. Twenty Pounds, with reasonable charges, will be paid on delivery of her to the subscriber in St. Thomas's Parish, or the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or in any one of the country gaols; and One Hundred Dollars reward for information of her being harboured by a white person, Fifty if by a free negro, and Twenty-five if by a slave, to be paid on conviction of the offender, by JAMES AKIN. April 30, 1778.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

WILL; painter; glazier; patroon; boatman

Keith, James; Miche, Harry

THE subscriber will give Ten Dollars reward to any person that will take and deliver to him a negro fellow named WILL, by trade a painter and glazer, formerly the property of Mr. Harry Miche; the said negroe is a stout well made fellow, 26 years of age, and about 5 feet 6 inches high; he is supposed to be either skulking about Charlestown, gone on board some vessels in the harbour, or gone in some of the river boats, as he understands patrooning in both rivers, and is a good boatman. Masters of vessels, and all others, are hereby forewarned not to employ him, as they must answer the consequences at their peril. He will likewise give Five Dollars reward to any person that will deliver to him an old Ledger, containing several open accounts, that was lost or taken away by mistake, about the time of the late fire.

JAMES KEITH.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

ISAAC; sailor

Lord, Andrew; Holman, Mr., estate of

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at the Congarees about 12 months ago, three negro fellows named ISAAC, GEORGE and GEORGE; Isaac was bought of the estate of [?] Holman, 4 years ago; he is a very likely young fellow, about 20 years old, very black, has been used to go in a schooner up and down the rivers in Georgia; one of the George's is a yellowish fellow, rather tall, was bought of Mr. Alexander Rose; the other George is a thick strong made fellow, not very tall; they are supposed to be either about Messrs. Greenwood and Higginson's plantation on Savannah river, or in the neighbourhood of Beaufort. I will give a reward of Fifty Dollars for each of them delivered either to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at my plantation as above, with all reasonable charges. If information is given of their being harboured by any white person, so that they may be convicted, a further reward of One Hundred Pounds; or if by any negro, Fifty Pounds. If any of them will return to their duty, they shall be forgiven. ANDREW LORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

GEORGE (tall)

Lord, Andrew; Rose, Alexander; Greenwood, Mr.; Higginson, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at the Congarees about 12 months ago, three negro fellows named ISAAC, GEORGE and GEORGE; Isaac was bought of the estate of Holman, 4 years ago; he is a very likely young fellow, about 20 years old, very black, has been used to go in a schooner up and down the rivers in Georgia; one of the George's is a yellowish fellow, rather tall, was bought of Mr. Alexander Rose; the other George is a thick strong made fellow, not very tall; they are supposed to be either about Messrs. Greenwood and Higginson's plantation on Savannah river, or in the neighbourhood of Beaufort. I will give a reward of Fifty Dollars for each of them delivered either to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at my plantation as above, with all reasonable charges. If information is given of their being harboured by any white person, so that they may be convicted, a further reward of One Hundred Pounds; or if by any negro, Fifty Pounds. If any of them will return to their duty, they shall be forgiven. ANDREW LORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

GEORGE (not tall)

Lord, Andrew; Holman, Estate of

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation at the congarées about 12 months ago, three negro fellows named ISAAC, GEORGE and GEORGE....one of the George's is a yellowish fellow, rather tall, was bought of Mr. Alexander Rose; the other George is a thick strong made fellow, not very tall; they are supposed to be either about Messrs. Greenwood and Higginson's plantation on Savannah river, or in the neighbourhood of Beaufort. I will give a reward of Fifty Dollars for each of them delivered either to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, or at my plantation as above, with all reasonable charges. If information is given of their being harboured by any white persgn, so that they may be convicted, a further reward of One Hundred Pounds; or if by any negro, Fifty Pounds. If any of them will return to their duty, they shall be forgiven. ANDREW LORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

ADAM; JOHN ADAM; cooper; tailor; mutilated

Wilson, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber in September last, a thin black fellow about five feet six inches high, twenty six years of age, has lost some of his small toes off each foot, the top of his head his hair is altogether white, occasioned by a scald head; he is by trade a cooper and taylor named Adam, but calls himself John Adam. A reward of Fifty Pounds will be given to secure him in the Work-house by THOMAS WILSON.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

TOM

Clifford, Charles

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD. RUN away from the subscriber about the month of June or July 1777, a negro man named TOM, has remarkable stout feet and hands, very high cheek bones, and is supposed to be about 30 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and is suspected to be harboured at or near the Saltketchers. Whoever will deliver the above negroe to me at the Horseshoe, or to the Warden of the Work-house in Charlestown, shall receive the above reward, with all reasonable charges. CHARLES CLIFFORD.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 7 May 1778]

BRUTUS; JOHN FLY

Legare, Thomas, Jr.; Pillans, Robert; Storr, Marmaduke

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD. ON Sunday the 10th instant, a negro lad named BRUTUS, about 15 or 20 years old, 5 feet 4 inches high, very black, slender built, and belonging to the subscriber, found means to open a desk belonging to Mr. ROBERT PILLANS; from whence he took a certificate, given by the Treasurers of this State to the said Mr. Pillans, for L. 1200 lent the Publick on interest, and dated the 7th inst.; also a Pocket Book, containing several memorandums of the time of his scholars entering into his school, and of books, &c, given out to them, together with about Fifty Pounds in cash. He likewise stole a Shagreen cased watch, cap'd, and running on a diamond, maker's name Marmaduke Storr, No. 9550, and immediately absconded. As there is great reason to suspect that he will endeavour to get out of this State, these are to forewarn all persons of the danger of either taking him away, or harbouring him, as they may depend on being prosecuted to the utmost rigour. Whoever will apprehend the said negro and secure him in any of the gaols in this or the neighbouring States, or deliver him to the subscriber in Charlestown, shall be entitled to the above reward, besides all reasonable charges; or whoever will give information of his being harboured by a white person shall receive One Hundred Pounds on conviction of the offender. Ten Pounds will be paid for the certificate, or the pocket book with the cash it contained when stolen, and Twenty Pounds for the watch, to any person who will stop and deliver him to THOMAS LEGARE, jun. N.B. The said negro has absconded several times, and always takes on himself the name of John Fly.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 14 May 1778]

JOHN FRANSWAY; JOHN FRANÇOIS; speaks French & Spanish; bricklayer Coltrane, William; Kolb, Captain [possibly Abel Kolb]

Guildford County, North Carolina, May 1, 1778. RUN away from the subscriber, the beginning of last month, a negro fellow named John Fransway, a tall yellow fellow, has a small scar on one of his cheeks, speaks broken English, but understands the Spanish and French languages tolerably well. He is by trade a bricklayer, and I suppose will endeavour to pass for a free man. I forewarn all masters of vessels and others, not to harbour or carry the said fellow off, as I am determined to prosecute any such offender or offenders, to the utmost rigour of the law. A reward of Thirty Dollars will be paid to any person that will take up the said slave, and deliver him to Capt. KOLB in the Cheraw district, or the Warden of the Work house in Charlestown, or to WILLIAM COLTRANE.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, SC. 14 May 1778.]

TONY; blacksmith; wife: Flora
Fripp, William; Fitz, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber on the 18th of September last, a negro fellow named Tony, a blacksmith by trade, and well known about Pocotaligo, formerly the property of Mr. Fitz; also his wife Flora; she has a scar on one cheek, and a blemish in one eye. They are suspected to be harboured about the Saltcatchers. One hundred pounds reward will be given for delivering them to me on St. Helena Island. WILLIAM FRIPP.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 14 May 1778]

FLORA; husband: Toney
Fripp, William; Fitz, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber on the 18th of September last, a negro fellow named Tony, a blacksmith by trade, and well known about Pocotaligo, formerly the property of Mr. Fitz; also his wife Flora; she has a scar on one cheek, and a blemish in one eye. They are suspected to be harboured about the Saltcatchers. One hundred pounds reward will be given for delivering them to me on St. Helena Island. WILLIAM FRIPP.

[South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, S.C. 14 May 1778]

CHARLESTO