Senator John W. Matthews, Jr., Chairman
Orangeburg County Legislative Delegation
Post Office Drawer 9000
Orangeburg, South Carolina 29116-9000

Dear Senator:

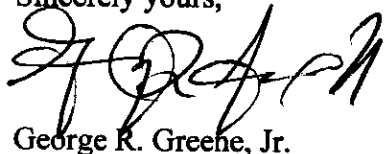

I am in receipt of your letter dated March 2, 2015, informing me of two outstanding issues on my credit report. I only see one: Santander. Santander and I came to an agreement, and all is well. I am enclosing the letter sent to Santander as further explanation of the circumstances of this "voluntary repossession."

If there is a second matter, it is not highlighted to my knowledge.

Other matters that are incorrect on the report include the following: Although I did live on Oak Street, it was not 915 Oak, and I was living on Columbia Road in 2004, and I never lived in Bamberg, SC.

I hope that this clears up the matter. I appreciate your confidence in me, and I am sorry for this inconvenience.

Sincerely yours,

To Whom It May Concern:

I recently completed telephone verification for the "voluntary repossession" of my motorhome. I am writing this letter to explain the reasons for this action and possibly receive some consideration in this situation.

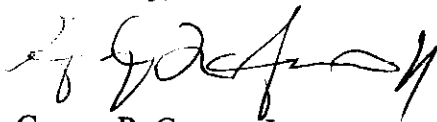

First, I sought help from your company and was told that I could not receive any reduction of payment amount or a lower interest rate. Even though I have made 70 payments, the debt is not clear until March 2027. I will be 90 years of age.

I found that refinancing is impossible because the amount owed is more than twice the value of the motorhome.

I really hate to do this because I love camping in my Discovery and because of what it might do to our very good credit, but I have no choice. I am retired now and on a fixed income; I cannot afford to pay $700/month on a recreational vehicle when I have increased need for medical specialists and medicines. Presently, I am borrowing money from my savings to make the payment. If it were to have a major problem, I could not afford to make the repairs.

Thank you for your consideration of these reasons for the "voluntary repossession" as you make decisions about this account.

Yours truly,
