Subject: Webinar Announcement: Outreach and Recruitment, March 12th, 3-4 p.m. eastern

---

Dear ADSSP, ADI, and Systems Integration Grantees and Collaborative Partners,

We are pleased to announce a webinar focusing on Outreach and Recruitment for People with Dementia and their Caregivers on March 12th.

Registration is now open for the National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center (formerly the ADSSP National Resource Center) Technical Assistance (TA) webinar on Thursday, March 12th from 3:00-4:00 pm Eastern. Please use the following link to register for the webinar: <https://webtraining.rti.org/registration/?eventid=a66e4bbd-8622-4573-ad37-21d53bb22599>. Detailed registration instructions are below. Please register at your earliest convenience.

The March 12th webinar will provide participants with information on outreach and recruitment with two hard to reach populations of people with dementia and their caregivers. Anne Wolf will speak about efforts in South Carolina to serve rural areas of the state by providing services for people with dementia and their caregivers. Jed Levine will speak about outreach and recruitment of people with dementia and their caregivers in the lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, and transgender (LGBT) communities.

Anne Wolf currently serves as the supervisor for the Community Resources Division of the Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging, the State Unit on Aging for South Carolina. Ms. Wolf served as the Project Director for multiple ADDGS/ADSSP grants during her tenure with the Office on Aging. She also served as the program manager for the Alzheimer's Resource Coordination Center, which provides grants to organizations for dementia – specific respite or education programs. She co-authored Conquering the Specter of Alzheimer's Disease in South Carolina, a state plan to address Alzheimer's disease. She was also co-author of Take a Break SC! Sustaining South Carolina's Caregivers through Respite.

Jed A. Levine is the Executive Vice President and Director of Programs at the Alzheimer's Association, New York City Chapter, where he has been on staff since 1990. He has taught at Columbia Mailman School of Public Health and Hunter College, School of the Health Professions. He is a member of the New York State Coordinating Council for Services Related to Alzheimer's and Other Dementias, and is a member of Senator Gillibrand's Working Group on Aging. He is the principal investigator for the Chapter's project: Palliative Care for Advanced Dementia: Training and Implementation. A frequent guest on radio and TV, Mr. Levine has presented nationally and internationally on dementia care, family caregiving, and disaster preparedness for persons with dementia.

We hope you will join us for this informative webinar. The webinar will be recorded for those who are unable to attend.

These Technical Assistance Webinars are used to provide helpful, current and applicable information for grantees and partners of ADSSP, ADI, and Systems Integration projects.
