Just wanted to forward this e-mail so you would have all of Dustin's contact information. Anne mentioned that you would be calling him at some point today to discuss program specifics.

Have a good weekend.

Sure, that's fine. I'd like the answers by tomorrow evening though, if possible.
Thanks!

Hi Dustin,

I just got out of a meeting, and I need to discuss a few of your questions with Anne Wolf in the Office on Aging. Would it be okay if I got back to you after speaking with her?

Hank,

This is Dustin Wyatt with the Spartanburg Herald-Journal; we met last week in Chesnee. I am trying to learn more about this Respite Care Program that is designed to give caregivers a break, while, at the same time, save money. Is this a fairly new program? How does the program save money? Lt. Gov. McConnell said he was going to ask for $3 million more dollars from the General Assembly. Is this money to keep the program going, or to improve the program?

I've been told by our local chapter of the Alzheimer's Association that the program is "shut down" until July because it's being revamped. Why? How is it being revamped?
