DID YOU KNOW? September 17, 2013, begins the national celebration of Constitution Week. The weeklong commemoration of America's most important document is one of our country's least known official observances. Our Constitution stands as a testament to the tenacity of Americans throughout history to maintain their liberties and freedom, and to ensure those inalienable rights to every American. The tradition of celebrating the Constitution was started many years ago by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). Check out a few pics from our Constitution display done by the Catawba Chapter DAR of Rock Hill, SC at Andrew Jackson State Park!

Spring Slagle Wonderful post and amazing display! The SC State parks do a tremendous job of sharing South Carolina's role in defending and preserving the liberties we cherish.
