Dear Mr Tony Kester,

In recent weeks, heads of state gathered at the United Nations General Assembly for a high-level meeting on antimicrobial resistance (AMR). It's only the fourth time in history the UN has convened heads of state to talk about a health issue.*

Following on from this and bringing in voices from some of the most senior industry thought leaders in infectious disease and drug discovery, Superbugs & Superdrugs USA arrives at a significant time for the industry to collaborate and stem the surge of resistant infections.

THREE CRITICAL UPDATES TO COMBAT MULTI-DRUG RESISTANCE

1. STRATEGIC LINE OF ACTION - WHAT ARE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES DOING?

Learn about progress in the development of National Action Plans with exclusive presentations from PAHO/WHO, NIAID and BARDA. This unmissable session will bring together senior officials from leading federal agencies and will also include an exclusive keynote address by John Rex, Senior VP and Chief Strategy Officer from the Infectious Disease Unit at AstraZeneca.

2. CLINICAL ADVANCES – HOW CLOSE ARE WE?

Identify new windows of opportunity through novel antibacterial therapeutic approaches to enable drug discovery. The programme will showcase new developments through clinical and pre-clinical results in topics such as: new pathways, macrocycle platforms, vaccine development, gram negative therapeutics, synthetic biological manipulation and protein resistant neutralizers.

3. INDUSTRY INCENTIVES – DISCOVER NEW OPPORTUNITIES!

Learn how to utilize innovative PPP investment programs to take your research from "bench to bedside" and benefit from an agenda tailored towards new funding opportunities.
