Hi Tony,

New technology can radically transform an organization's resources, budget, and processes, but most importantly, how staff perform their daily duties.

Join me for Granicus' next webinar, Achieving Buy-In with Technology Implementations, where I'll be joined by Karen Carter, Community Relations Manager for the Town of Castle Rock, Colo., and members of Granicus' client deployment team, where we'll discuss how to ensure optimal staff buy-in when implementing new technology at your organization.

Hope you can make it!
