Upcoming Webinar

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Plan Choice Challenge: Winning Tools and Considerations for States

Learn more about "Plan Choice Challenge," a competition facilitated by Health 2.0 to spur the development of innovative technology applications that better support consumers as they shop for and purchase health insurance.

Co-hosted by the National Academy for State Health Policy (NASHP) and State Health Reform Assistance Network (State Network), this webinar will feature background on the challenge from Health 2.0, an overview of the winning apps, and insights on what states should consider as they explore plan selection tools. States will have a chance to ask questions of the vendors who developed the winning applications—Consumers' CHECKBOOK (first place), Stride Health (second place) and Clear Health Analytics (third place).

Don't Take Your Eyes Off Vermont: Gobeille v. Liberty Mutual Insurance Company

Vermont is at work to hold down costs and reform payment and delivery systems. The Green Mountain Care Board (GMCB) is engaged in comprehensive efforts to control health care costs; the state requires all individual and small group insurance to be sold through the state's insurance exchange, there are well-established integrated delivery systems, and a history of action to improve population health. But today there is an emerging issue of interest to all states – the challenge to Vermont's ability to collect claims data from self-insured plans in a case pending before the Supreme Court.
