Chaney,

Do you all have any comment to the House GOP Caucus decision today to amend the Senate roads plan, tweaking the governance provisions and removing the funding component to address it only in the budget?

Yes sir, here you go.

Quote from Haley press secretary Chaney Adams, "It comes as no surprise to anyone who has been watching that our transportation system is broken in South Carolina - it's why we've been fighting for real reform to the DoT for years. We have an opportunity to fix this problem - and ultimately our roads - this year, but only if the House concurs with the Senate reform plan, and the governor will continue to press House Members to do just that."
