scstateparks (Park 14/16) Myrtle Beach State Park opened in 1936, making it the first park to open in the South Carolina State Parks system. The Civilian Conservation Corps also built the six cabins located in the park. 📍: @ashleyblough stu_live20 I camped out at this in a tent with two friends of mine during a tropical storm in the summer of '81. It poured rain for several hours. There was only one dry spot in the whole tent and I didn't have it!

sellbythesea It's also important to know why Myrtle Beach State Park was built. The Afro-American soldiers from The Myrtle Beach Air Force Base were not allowed on any beach due to segregation. There are photos at the Base Recreation Center in Market Commons of the beginnings of Myrtle Beach State Park. Our State Park is the absolute best!
