

From:

To:

Date: 9/29/2015 12:28:25 PM

Subject:

---

"We've worked hard to make South Carolina a place where government works for the people not the other way around—four years ago the people of South Carolina won a huge victory when we signed roll call voting into law. But we won't stop there, we will continue to fight for transparency and ethics reform until lawmakers no longer govern themselves, facing independent investigations, and disclose their income, allowing the people of South Carolina know who is paying them."