LG received this from ETV

We are just a few short days away from the upcoming SCETV/Post and Courier debates at Clemson University. The Brooks Fine Arts Center is located at 141 Jersey Lane and there is a large parking lot out front. When you arrive someone from ETV or Clemson will greet you (schedule of arrival below.) I'm also attaching the debate FAQ, which should address the technical aspects of the debate. If you have any questions, please let me know. We look forward to working with you.
