Comment Period for Draft APS Consensus Guidelines Extended to Feb. 8

ACL is committed to supporting states in developing effective Adult Protective Services (APS) systems to ensure all older Americans and people with disabilities have similar protections and access to services, regardless of where they live.

As part of these efforts, last summer we released Draft Voluntary Consensus Guidelines for State APS Systems and asked for your feedback.

We appreciate the many thoughtful comments we received and are pleased to reopen the comment period thru Monday, February 8th, to offer an additional opportunity for feedback from the public.
