Please note (and hopefully pass on to your colleagues in both the house and Senate) that I am tired of excuses.

I always vote (even when I was in Viet Nam) and am tired of the excuses.

I will support moderately increasing taxes to get better roads.

My wife has a bad back and I am tired of her being in pain whenever I hit a pothole. If there is no bill free of pet projects, roads and bridges to nowhere, bike trails and walking paths, etc. this year, I will NOT vote for ANY incumbent for any office next year. It does not matter if you were for or against any bill to fix the roads. It means that there is not enough leadership to get the job done.

ENOUGH OF THE EXCUSES – GET IT DONE!
