

Deborah Jordan
4116 Bonaparte Drive
Apt 3
North Charleston, SC 29418

Dear Governor Haley,

I just wanted to send you an update on my grandson, Jerome Smalls. I sent you information on him in the past and he had the opportunity to meet you at one of Tim Scott's fundraisers at California Dreaming. Jerome is an ambitious young man with big dreams for the future and it would be fantastic if we could visit with you personally in the State House one day.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Hope you and your family have a very merry Christmas and New Year.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Deborah Jordan". The ink is dark and the signature is fluid, with a long horizontal flourish at the end.

Deborah Jordan

843-324-4927

Wishing you all the joys of an old-fashioned holiday season.

Merry Christmas.

Deborah Jordan

d

Jerome Smalls.

©AGC, LLC
CLEVELAND, OHIO 44114

UX20034-34N

07000213

AMERICAN GREETINGS

NTAL

E SHES
NOTE

ted States,
ing tennis nization in to become
West Ashley Cording's
e when she she was a ennis team,
the Week.
y, Cording
ennis team
I it for the ition is so ng finishes
J-3 record.
y, always ould think Kennedy.

ly
O

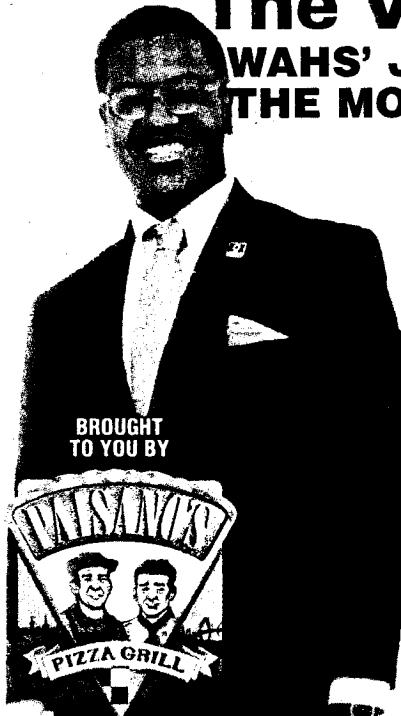

Trophies
Gifts
ards
id
wards.com

(WEST-OF) STUDENT of the MONTH

The Voice of West Ashley

WAHS' JEROME SMALLS IS MAKING THE MOST OUT OF HIS SENIOR YEAR

Special to West of Jerome Smalls is an outstanding student, currently one of the top ten in his class, and is a true asset to West Ashley High School. He has wisdom well beyond his years that he uses to lead his classmates on many new adventures. Besides being an A+ student, Jerome is on the Varsity football team, a member of The Drama Studio, this year's Homecoming King, President of Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA), a manager of The Cat Shack (school store), the "Voice" of West Ashley, and many other things.

"It's a pleasure to interact and work with Jerome on any and all projects that he decides to tackle," says Donald Newton, public relations coordinator at WAHS. Under Smalls leadership, DECA's 52 members have come up with a once a month event called Professional Dress Day where students are encouraged to dress in professional dress as they would for a job interview. The students were advised against shorts, leggings, and t-shirts and instead encouraged to wear a suit and tie, a pants suit, etc.

"You should have seen the number of students and teachers alike that were dressed up last week," says Newton. "It was amazing and it was all due to one student's leadership – one student's ability to take a teacher's idea and run with it." Professional Dress Day is now scheduled once a month until the end of the year.

Smalls, who will attend the University of Pennsylvania next year, is a true leader, whether it be on the football field, on the stage as a shining example for other students to follow, or in the classroom among his fellow classmates. Each morning Smalls leads the school in saying the Pledge of Allegiance, moment of silence, and reads the announcements, making him the "Voice" of West Ashley.

Along with all of this Smalls has also been the Youth Entrepreneur of the Year for South Carolina, and was a DECA ICDC (International Career Development Conference) Finalist as well. Smalls is also the manager of WAHS's school store, The Cat Shack, which he does as part of the Work-Based Learning Program that many WAHS students are a part of. Through this program, Smalls is able to get hands-on exposure to managing a store, or a business, and what all goes into that process.

"Jerome has been primarily responsible for changing the food and beverage items we offer in The Cat Shack to meet the new 'Smart Snack' Federal guidelines," says marketing teacher Terry Stutts. "He's also responsible for doing employee reviews at the end of each of our cycles. He has also been instrumental in us getting our 'Paw Prints' brand up and running." The Paw Prints brand consist of custom t-shirts for 10 different groups on campus.

"Even if Smalls wasn't involved in all these different activities, he would still stand out because of his incredible attitude and personality," says Newton. "You will never meet a more kind, considerate, sincere person on the face of the earth. He will do anything that you ask, with a big smile on his face."

As sponsors of the West Of Student of the Month, Paisano's Pizza Grill will provide the student with a T-shirt and a gift certificate to the restaunt, located at 1789 Ashley River Road.

Visit
Earth Fare
12-3 pm every Sunday!

You're better than fast food

Three Buck Burgers
and $1.50 Sides

 Earth Fare
the healthy supermarket

BURGERS FOR BUCKS

Andy Brack
Pragmatic, to-the-point,
opinionated, candid *

Every Wednesday in WestOf ...

... all week at AndyBrack.com

* just what you want a columnist to be