To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing today to put in my formal complaint against your agency SC DEW. I received a Notice of Overpayment applied to debt form from SC Department of Revenue advising me that my refund had been taken and applied to my husband's debt. I am in no way responsible for his debt and that is why when I filed jointly I included a Form 8379 Injured Spouse form to protect me from his debts. I have to file each year jointly because we are legally married and we share a son. Each year Child Support SC Department of Social Services normally takes my refund and I have to contact them and I sent a copy of my W2's along with the tax return and injured spouse form and they refund me my portion. When I received this notice I immediately contacted Ruby Jefferson at (803)737-1908. After several messages she called me back and advised me to contact SC Department of Revenue to ask for a refund. I advised her that I normally have to contact the agency who took the refund but I went ahead and followed her instructions. I spoke with person at Department of Revenue and they said that they have nothing to do with it because the funds were given to SC DEW. I then called Ruby Jefferson back and she told me that she had never had anyone ask for a refund and would have to follow up with her supervisor Brian Johnson. Brian Johnson then called me today and said that they didn't have a process of refunding monies back. I advised him that this was not my debt and that I did not owe SC DEW and that you are holding onto my refund. I agree with taking his portion but my portion is not owed to you. So that is the reason that I am writing you today to ask that you contact me about refunding my portion of the refund that is owed to me. Please note that I will be faxing this letter of complaint to the Governor's office as well. I can't believe that your agency does not have some type of process of refunding an injured spouses portion back. Please contact me ASAP so that we can resolve this issue.

Sincerely,

Julie Lewis
