Subject: One last try

---

I've been trying for well over a month.

I've contacted countless agencies and churches. I've tried the few family members that exist. I've tried friends. I even setup a gofundme. Nothing is working.

I'm sitting here at the library trying to find resources online.

If I don't find a solution today, I will be homeless tomorrow. I will not go to a shelter. I'll literally be sleeping in my car.

I haven't eaten in days because I ran out of food. I only have $0.21 to my name.

I found a place that claims they will take care of 1/2 the rent if I can find a way to get the other half.

I need a way to have cash in my hands, a check in my hands, money in my bank account, or money through PayPal, today.

Will you help me?

Sincerely,
Nicole
