Anne Darnell Barnwell State Park is one of the most awesome places to visit to view wildlife, birdwatching and fishing. The lakes are beautiful with some really granddaddy bass being caught there. The well kept trails are a treat to hike and commune with nature. The cabins have wonderful views of the upper lake and gives the urge to get the pole in the water. I love the totally natural setting of this park, if it is camping or cabin. It is one of the best get aways in SC. Rest and Relaxation to view the fall color change will be a plan. Thank you Barnwell State Park for an awesome get away.
