

Have we killed enough Americans?

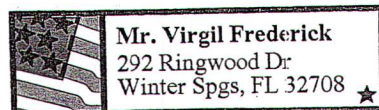

It's time to forget our outdated "2nd Amendment Rights" and go back to "Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness".

The 2nd Amendment was intended to give us a "well regulated militia" which we have had for 200 years. But now we call it Police/Army/Navy/Marines/Air Force/Coast Guard/National Guard/Reserves.

You probably heard "A journey of 1000 miles begins with a single step". This is my "single step". Now take yours.

When you interact with others by talk, internet (not invented by Al Gore), phone, bill paying, anything tell them that we have killed enough of our own. Tell your elected officials, relatives, complete strangers, even the GOP/NRA. Don't quit!

We can win, if we want to.
