The lilies are coming! The lilies are coming! It's almost Lily Season at Landsford Canal State Park. Here's our weekly Lily Watch Update and a photo from the park. Check our website for more information!

LILY WATCH, APRIL 24: Today there are quite a few lily plants in bloom, but peak is still several weeks away. It is beginning to look as if peak bloom will be mid-May instead of late May/early June. Stay tuned next week for another update. <http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/things-to-do/wildflowers/lily-fest/default.aspx>
