Dear,

Mrs. Haley

I hope that this letter reaches you in the very best of spirit.

I am a inmate in the department of Corrections at the Heath Correctional facility for Women in Greenwood & Carolina.

I am writing to you seeking help in regards to my legal status.

During the year of 2003, I was picked up by the Richland County Sheriff investigators and served with two warrants.

One of the two warrants was Murder, the other warrant was Armed Robbery.

Mrs. Haley, I've always been a productive citizen. I have no prior history of any criminal activities. During my wait of jury trial my then boyfriend, whose my now husband I was deployed to Iraq. My son was placed in the custody of DSS. I went from being a great mother/ girlfriend to a convicted felon.

During the year of 2005 I went to trial & had a hung jury. The judge allowed further deliberations, in which lead to a conviction of life for Murder & 30 yrs for Armed Robbery. I've not stated this case was a 2 yr. Cold case w/ few leads.

As of today, I've claimed my faith of no involvement. I've been rail-robed & dragged by a state in which I once loved. My family is conversing with people throw-out the nation in regards to my status.

My son recently contacted the White House about my unequal Justice.

My Attorney filed a Cert petition w/ the Supreme Court stating the same.

The Strongest evidence I have against me is the Statement of a Purged Witness - No, Weapon / No, DNA, No Surveillance Only a Witness Whom gave numerous Statements. As of now my life has changed, I've been incarcerated almost 12 yrs. Both Parents died along with grand Parents & more. Last week my husband whom is a Army Veteran found out he has Cancer.

All I want to know is how long does this pain & hurt has to last.

Ms. Haley, if you help me prove myself innocent or whatever you can I'd accept & won't disappoint you.

It's just not easy for me to be strong & I'll refuse to give up. I'll know that you're a Woman with children & it hurts to wait away & say son I don't know when I'm coming home.

All I ask if for you to look in my case Contact my Attorney "Ms. Cobb-Hunter, Whom know alot of my case. Please help me, in the name of Jesus I speak life into this letter & into the Ears of yourself are whom may read this.

God Bless You,

Carmen Rice # 308637 Alexander
