Subject: Gowdy wants more answers on plan to resettle refugees in Spartanburg | The State

Good morning. Reporter Kim Kimzey contacted me yesterday about articles she is writing on Refugee Resettlement in conjunction with Jason Spencer SHJ. This one hit THE STATE and I thought you would have an interest in following this issue with me.

Thank you for reading, listening, and seeking to understand this issue.

While World Relief is reported to have a quarter of a Century reputation of doing good work, our government does not have a stellar reputation on immigration and handling refugee issues. The system is broke. The answer is not y'all come. SC Senator John C. Calhoun was right. Thank you.

Very respectfully,
