General Joseph F. Dunford,

I wanted to write in order to inform you that I was using copied originals of the General George Washington papers from the Library of Congress in a federal petition that I am submitting to the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) on behalf of the Santee (Santé) Indian Tribe of South Carolina. I am also using enlistment regulations for the Civil War, WWI, and WWII in the federal petition. General I have to build a court case for a simple federal petition, and we have already submitted through a Ph.D and a M.A. at Brockington & Associates. I am working with a Waccamaw Indian regarding their federal petition, and he says that he is a former Chief Warrant Officer during Vietnam. He also claims that the Warrant Officer School is like a B.A., but looking at the work it does not appear so.

I am not expecting a response, as I am a member of the Church of England. I wanted you to know that I was not writing about General Washington as an "American Fabian", and yes I know what the reference is to. I have to tell people constantly that the "Scipio" in the Lawson work A New Voyage to Carolina is a reference to the Roman General Scipio Africanus, and he was from Rome not Africa. That has been all through those slave records that I have been going through in South Carolina. I am a former USAF JTAC who has numerous AC-130 controls with the "Spooky" version, and the United States Air Force squadron "Ghostriders". I am currently conducting research in the areas of Jamaica, Barbadoes, Cuba, Mexico, Bermuda, Spain, Germany, and England. This research is in relation to the slavery of Indians, and the legal understanding that if those records do not exist in those countries, then it did not take place. I do not imagine an African slave in the presence of Queen Elizabeth I, or any of the Tudor dynasty. Or any other English dynasty from Cnute on to Queen Victoria, but I am doing research on this as well. I am using an Oxford and Cambridge scholar in order to dispel these rumors. I will be using documents from the Elizabethan era as well, but I wanted to inform you about the General George Washington papers.

General, as I am a member of the Vatican as well, and have been to the Vatican to meet with a Cardinal. I would also like to inform you that I will be working with Indians near the Edisto river, once they have completed their elections. This is just to get their history together. They do have contact with the Roman Catholic Church through two or three Sisters of the cloth. However, I have contacted the Roman Catholic Diocese in Charleston, SC for the information on these sisters, if it exist. The natives say that they have no Roman Catholics in the tribe, and I have to understand if these sisters were with the Jesuit or Franciscan mission similar to the Navajo and Sioux. That is the only avenue that they could have taken in order to use the Roman Catholic Church to convert. Although, I do not think that the practice of converting Christians to Christians is something that is done, I do believe that they were trying to help the natives. I have to contact the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris tomorrow, in order to see if there was any colonial contact in the area. I am also inquiring into what religion the Swiss are in order to understand Baron Christoph von Graffenried, and I have contacted the Grossmünster in Zurich.

I hope to make it to the Emerald City soon for research, and I hope you have a Dickens styled Christmas! I have attached my paternal lineage just so that you know the connection that my Father's side has had with England since the 13th Century. Always have been a member of the Church of England, but I get to claim the Vatican to, because I can document through the Spanish archives with the University of Salamanca graduate, that Francisco de Chicora did actually return to the Santee (Santé) area. It does not however say that he made it back to Chicora from the Santee (Santé) Indian Tribe of South Carolina. Maybe he decided to stay with the No-nosed doctor at Mons. Eugée's in the ancestral tribal lands of the Santee (Santé) Indian Tribe of South Carolina. I also can claim the Roman Catholic connection through my Prussian/Hessian/Bavarian/Swiss name! All the same to you General, have a "St Stephen" kind of day.

I have to constantly tell people that you cannot enlist in the Continental or Confederate States of America (CSA) unless you were white or Native American. Do people not read the General Albert Pike records at the National Archives (I have had that meeting with the Cardinal at the Vatican.). It is all really just historical significance, and tracking down documentary evidence. I still do not know if the NY/NJ Port Authority Police are the same as the NYPD. I always stay at the Trump SoHo because I was told that, that is the place that every New Yorker starts off in. Who wants to live in Hell's Kitchen? Donald Trump does have a beautiful daughter, and she has an elegant way of speech. However, nothing in comparison to HRH The Princess Royal who stole my heart in Bath! Still trying to get to Egypt, but they have got to calm down with all of that Arab nonsense. I do not want to go to Egypt for any of that Aliester Crowley nonsense, for that is the work of the Devil, and as Ben Jonson would have put it, The Devil is an Ass! Although, Ben Jonson did take those plays from the French, I want to see where all of the Cleopatra's were from. I did enjoy my visit to Windsor Castle, and look to return to dreary London for communion. As I did have an Arab chauffeur in a Mercedes Benz, I was thrilled to see the Wagner work at the Royal Opera House.

I also think that the Prince of Wales, while he holds no official duties in the UK, is a nice and kind gentleman that is very pleasant. A Cambridge man, I might add! I would like to do more research in the future on The Holy Roman Emperor Charlemagne, and his connection with France. I will enjoy my time in the Emerald City, and hopefully a stay at the Trump Washington DC. While I get the research done on these Colonial and Civil War enlistment regulations nonsense, and have a look at the charts.

General, please bless the Earl of Shaftesbury! I hope that he feels better, as I called his office the other day.

Your German Knight,
