I just looked at the letter. It's not the kind of letter she normally does...very legalese.

Karen reviewed the background e-mail and the draft letter, and she has advised that she thinks its fine for the Governor to sign.

Dear Swati,

Thank you for speaking with me this morning and for considering the letter we are requesting on behalf of Resolute Forest Products. Attached, as promised, is the draft letter we have in mind. I apologize, again, that the time is so short and the issues so complicated, but we are trying to simplify them and limit the Governor's intervention to terrain with which she is very familiar.
