I don't know if this is really your email, so I don't want to say too much, I have been being harassed by DSS for almost 2 years now, at first they had a reason to come in to our life, but now I have called the complaint line with no answers and getting the run around with the case worker. Please I really don't know what to do and I don't have money to hire a lawyer. They were supposed to send an order to get us a lawyer but it has been 4 months and still nothing, they can't even tell me why my case is still open. I have 5 children and I am losing it, I don't have anyone no family or nobody to turn to please if you can just talk to me and listen to what has been happening maybe you could point me in the right way.
