Questions and Discussions From Caregivers

Q: I want to go away after my mother-in-law's service to be alone and grieve, any suggestions?

My dad passed away 13 days before she did. I feel selfishly sad that my dad's passing wasn't celebrated as my MIL's will be.

Q: Should I have made a big deal of our anniversary?

Today was our anniversary, but my husband with dementia had no clue. I had a card ready and made a fancy dinner, but I didn't mention it.

Q: Is it helpful or harmful to send Mom a Christmas card from her deceased parents?

She has dementia and thinks that they live in our former family home. She often says, "Let's go back to the house, my parents are there."

Q: Can a POA put a security freeze on the credit of the person they are representing?

I am caring for my dad who has dementia.
