OK, thanks. Yeah, if she's interested in the concept, then she and I can talk whenever she has a couple minutes. Also, I'm hoping to set an 11AM meeting with her next Friday to meet with some folks who have been involved in structuring some similar projects around the country.

Good evening.

Jamie Shuster asked me to let you know she is interested in discussing this further; however, she has been tied up with the situation in Greenwood, making visits there everyday this week. She will plan to touch base with you tomorrow (Thursday).

In the mean time, please let me know if you have any questions or need any other assistance.

Thank you.
