Subject: Military Appreciation Dinner concert for Charleston

Mr. Godfry/Ms. Adams,

Please let me introduce myself, I am a retired military officer and the Executive Director of the Florida National Guard Foundation and I worked with the Public Affairs Office for the Florida National Guard for many years. I am currently working with several people in Columbia, SC putting together a military appreciation dinner on July 11 in Columbia with Ms. Candice Glover, American Idol winner as the entertainment.

First we would like to invite the Governor to the dinner, if she is available but we will also be announcing a benefit concert in Columbia in August with all profits going to the victims and their families of the Charleston shooting. We have two singers so far, that includes Ms. Glover and are reaching out to other performers as we speak. We have talked with the Church and the profits will be directly deposited into the bank account at Wells Fargo established by the mayor of Charleston. We have a production team that has many years in the business, the venue and the stage. We expect to have more names by the time we announce on July 10th.

I would like to talk with someone on your staff regarding both events. Could someone please contact me by telephone at 904-501-6488 or through this email [dc Cox50@comcast.net](mailto:dc Cox50@comcast.net)
