Letter emailed to Delleney, to be copied to all committee members.

I spoke with Bruce Bannister after the meeting. He said that no form of independent investigation will pass. They are not even really pretending that their amendment is serious.

James Smith, who was the one committee member to speak up about the absurdity of the proposal in the last meeting, says that he is going to continue to press for SLED involvement. He also wants to be on the conference committee and I told him that the League would write Delleney and ask for that. He asked what is in the Senate version on investigation, and I told him the Senate version has nothing, so unless he gets something in from the House, there will be nothing to work from.
