Ruchelle,

Thank you for the opportunity to interview for the Fiscal Analyst III position this morning. It was a pleasure to meet you. I appreciate your time and the information you shared with me about the position--it was a very thorough interview.

As we discussed, I am confident that I have skills and experience that would allow me to transition easily to the position and that could benefit you, and Tony, in successfully accomplishing the duties and goals that have been set for the finance team. While I do not know the other candidates you are interviewing, I can guarantee that you won't find one that will work any harder for you than I will (I got the sense that you and I share that in common). And working for an agency that provides needed services to enhance the lives of SC citizens would be very appealing to me.

I hope that you will take a moment and review my experience and the answers I provided today, and even speak to a few of my references to get a good overall view of my work history and of me as a person.

Thank you again for your time and your interest--I am genuinely appreciative. I hope to hear from you soon.

Regards,

Kevin Dailey
