Hey Mr. Bryant, I was wondering if you are still willing to write me a letter of recommendation for Georgetown University. The letter must be postmarked by November 1, 2017 and sent to their office of admissions. I have no problem mailing it for you if you just want to write it and sign it. Attached to this email are multiple examples of letters of recommendation teachers have wrote me and my resume I used for my application. Feel free to use these as examples. Thank you so much.
