Wonderful! This expansion discussed is hopefully going to become an active Indian project soon. They've been working through issues with their workforce but we're on top of it ☺ Thanks for sharing, great article!

Also, Krishna's daughter Neha is fantastic! ☺ Y'all would love her, I hope you can meet her through misc. India efforts! Super cute and smart.

Katherine and Morgan,

Great (and timely) article on one of the Indian FDI (foreign direct investment) announcements we've had during the first term. SarlaFlex announced in 2012, and we included them in the fact sheet we provided to media earlier this week related to the India mission.

Have a good one!
Allison
