Jeb Bush Jr.

Mr. Doug Mayer

Dear Mr. Mayer,

Mr. Mayer, I want you to be among the first to know that my dad, Jeb Bush, is seriously considering running for President of the United States.

And I am writing to personally ask you for your early support of a new organization, "Right to Rise Super PAC," that has been created with a mission of independently supporting a leader who will restore the promise of America with a positive, conservative vision.

Dad is gauging support and very soon will decide if he is going to run for President. He believes the time is right to elect a conservative leader with proven executive experience – in fact, America's future depends on it.

I am convinced, as are many Americans my dad has visited already, that he is the right man for the job. But NOW we need to hear from you.

Mr. Mayer, here is what I am asking you to do... right now. To help encourage my dad Jeb Bush to run for President, I have enclosed a Personal Endorsement Form with your name on it. Please sign the endorsement form and return it in the enclosed envelope.

When you do, I hope you will include your most generous contribution of $25, $50, $100, $250, $500, or more. A strong sign of financial support from you will make all the difference. So please don't wait.

My dad is passionate about leading a conservative reform movement that will ignite economic growth, lift the middle class and restore the American dream.

As Governor of Florida, Jeb Bush remained true to his conservative principles cutting nearly $20 billion in taxes, vetoing more than $2.3 billion in wasteful earmarks and reducing the state government workforce by more than 13,000.

His limited government approach helped unleash one of the most robust and dynamic economies in the nation, creating 1.4 million net new jobs.

To save Florida's children from failing schools, he took on the powerful education unions, implementing a bold accountability system and creating the most ambitious school choice programs in the nation.

Now, my dad is considering running for President. So what kind of leader would you get in Jeb Bush?

First and foremost, Jeb Bush believes in the greatness of America, and the genius of our Constitution and Bill of Rights, written by visionary leaders who unlocked the great potential of a free people.

But today my dad says what is holding America back is a lack of visionary leadership in Washington.

Washington D.C. is stuck in an unprecedented gridlock, and millions of our fellow citizens across the middle class feel that the American Dream is out of reach.

A President Jeb Bush would celebrate success and risk-taking, protect liberty, cherish free enterprise, strengthen our national defense, embrace the energy revolution, fix our broken immigration system, and give all children a better future by transforming our education system.

If you agree with me that the leader America needs is Jeb Bush, please sign your endorsement form and let my Dad know you want him to run for President.

And when you do, please enclose your largest gift to the "Right to Rise Super PAC." If you can afford to write a large check for $500 or $1,000, I hope you will do so today.

But at this early stage, any amount is important. So if you can only afford to send $250, $100, $50, or even $25, please don't wait. He needs to hear from you.

Take it from me, if Jeb Bush decides to run, he will not cede an inch of territory – no issue, no demographic group, no voter. My Dad believes every American has the right to create a better life for themselves and their loved ones.

And we must get the federal government out of the way and make sure the next generation is prepared to pursue their hopes and dreams.

America can lead the world once again, but only if we take action now.

Sincerely,

Jeb Bush Jr.

P.S. Help me convince my dad – Jeb Bush – to run for President. The "Right to Rise Super PAC" is actively building support for Jeb's optimistic vision for America. If you agree we need Jeb Bush to lead a conservative reform movement, please let my Dad know you support him by signing the enclosed Personal Endorsement Form and send in your most generous gift today. Thank you so much.
