I appreciate the LG leading on this issue.

The Statehouse has suffered for decades from an organized effort trade power for money, and I'm tired of it.

The prosecutor has gained two resignations and one conviction, so far, but the penalties were weak and almost laughable.

That's in part because the law is weak on this issue, and I'm looking to change that with this bill.

This bill will stop legislators and their consultants from organizing and effort to trade power and votes for money so that the next crime family never can get started.
