The Huntington Beach Nature Center opened this past Friday, September 25. This new center replaces the one that was destroyed by fire in 2016. Check out this video as Ranger Mike takes you on a tour of his new digs! <https://southcarolinaparks.com/huntington-beach>

Amy Hite Dorrell Thrilled that the nature center is back! Our children grew up with the original center. We were all devastated and deeply saddened when it was gone. Can't wait to see it again! We'll be there on the 12th! The children have all flown the nest, but they were happy to hear of the reopening.
