Ms. Lillian B. Koller
Director
SC Department of Social Services
Post Office Box 520
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1520

Dear Ms. Koller:

I have received numerous letters, telephone calls and emails from parents regarding the recent closure of Nana's Day Care in Boiling Springs, South Carolina. The parents were told the daycare's license was not renewed because of violations with paperwork.

I am respectfully requesting that you convene a meeting with the parents of children being kept at Nana's Day Care as soon as possible. I understand you have an extensive list of violations dating back to June 2012. The parents need to be told the reason the facility was closed - and they need to be told this by the Department of Social Services.

When this meeting is scheduled, please notify the owner listed on the license and the parents, if you are able to locate them. In addition, please notify me and I will contact the parents who have expressed their concerns to me. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,
