Subject: Governor Haley/ Stephen Colbert/The Late Show

Hi Chaney—Monica Hickey passed along your contact to me. I know that she spoke to you about Governor Haley joining us from the floor of the RNC during our live broadcasts the week of July 18th.

Stephen had another idea that might be even more enticing. We have a lead guest spot open on Thursday, July 28th. Would Governor Haley like to give the official Late Show response to Secretary Clinton's acceptance speech at the DNC?

This would be a 15 minute interview live from the Ed Sullivan Theater where she'd have the opportunity to school the Democrats and their nominee on what I suspect she thinks is the error of their ways. The interview would be less about her feelings for Trump and more about her objections to Secretary Clinton. Her joining us on such a pivotal night would also remind our audience that the GOP has it's own women superstars.

What do you think? Can we discuss this further? I'm at 212-975-2140.

All the best,
