GET IN FREE WITH A TREE
Sadlers Creek State Park

April 20, 2013
9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

In celebration of Earth Day, Sadlers Creek will be offering free admission to all people in a vehicle who bring in a 3.5-gallon or 5-gallon tree and help plant it with a park ranger.

Acceptable species include: persimmon, red oak, white oak, hickory and red maple.

To participate, call the park in advance at 864-226-8950.

On the day of the event, bring your tree and a shovel.
Please stop by the office when you arrive so a park ranger can give you your tree's approved planting location.
