Columbia, SC 29101

Dear Governor Haley:

I stayed a Dec. 24, 2016 night at Best Western in Walterboro, SC, room 107. I was on the way to Florida and made a reservation through Expedia for this stay(over $90 a night).

I arrived at around 10 in the evening, was tired, did not check every corners of the room and went to sleep but when I woke up next morning I found the ceiling of the bathroom was in condition as in the picture. Not only it looked terrible but also it had signs and smells of mildew. I firmly believe not only Best Western but any hotels or motels should never sell a room like this, but isn't there any government regulation or government agency who inspect or control this kind of business activity in South Carolina?

I really hope I can stay at any hotel or motel in South Carolina without any health or rip off concerns.

Truly yours,

Tae Lee
