I want to say that SCETV recorded it for us at the time (because McConnell taped "This Week at the State House" with them weekly during session) and charged us a nominal fee.

Near the end of his stint as LG, McMaster was going to record a PSA (this PSA ended up being with Bryant for the ElderCare Trust Fund), and I reached out to SCETV at that time, but Aimee Crouch told me that they no longer would do it. So, we reached out to Cliff Springs at Genesis Studios in Cayce. I recall they charged us around $2,500 for a negotiated 30-second ad.

This is great. Let's plan to do this again, perhaps with more sheriffs and police. I'll see how we can make that happen. How was this financed?

Example PSA attached for your review. This was on that McConnell recorded back in ~ 2013.
