

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy, dignity, security, and humanity through the systematic use of physical, sexual, and/or psychological assault or abuse; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina ranked 2nd in the nation for the number of women killed by men; and

WHEREAS, the effects of domestic violence on children can be devastating, causing depression and psychological distress and raising the likelihood of physical violence among those who witness it; and

WHEREAS, Domestic Violence Awareness Month calls attention to the importance of working together to assure a life free from harm for all South Carolinians.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2012 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join together in the campaign to eliminate domestic violence while reaching out to its victims and letting them know that help is available.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH
