

From: Hayden Grooms
To: Danny VaratDannyVarat@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 7/26/2017 1:33:09 PM
Subject: Clips 7-26

Clemson to introduce new automotive certificate program. "Students who complete the two-semester program based at Clemson's International Center for Automotive Research in Greenville will earn a certificate in automotive engineering"
<http://www.greenvilleonline.com/story/news/2017/07/25/clemson-university-introduce-new-automotive-engineering-certificate-program/506368001/>

Santee Cooper and SCE&G are waiting to hear whether Toshiba will provide $1.7B in order to complete VC Summer Nuclear.
<http://www.thestate.com/news/local/article163493068.html>

Scott and Graham vote to begin debate on healthcare
<http://www.thestate.com/news/politics-government/article163588773.html>

Rep. Scalise released from hospital yesterday morning
http://www.postandcourier.com/news/scalise-discharged-from-washington-hospital-six-weeks-after-alexandria-shooting/article_28a44ce3-4046-5437-93ee-673b489f212b.html

Brian Hicks' column on 526 expansion in light of the SIB decision to fund the project due to happen next month
http://www.postandcourier.com/columnists/hicks-column-charleston-s-longest-running-soap-opera-is-nowhere/article_46f34ef2-708a-11e7-9f25-df0b1713b5c1.html

Hayden Grooms
Manager of External Affairs
Office of the Lieutenant Governor
(803) 734-0107