Nikki Haley, Ambassador to the United Nations

Deep roots go back thousands of years as to why cultures are the way they exist today. In order to change the ideology there has to be a new start for the whole world with their actions as well as their spoken word. The history may or may not have the answers, but it's a place to start with history professors from all over the world that belong to the United Nations. It's hard to conceive that the Bible and the Quran condones killing of anyone that is not a believer in Islam.

Not anyone country is going to be able to solve the Islam Cult, therefor by getting all of the countries involved, but as a group can destroy the ideology of Radical Islam ISIS.

Revoke their passport of any ISIS fighter that has come back to their country before they are even tried for their crime of treason.

Muslims and only Muslims should fight ISIS. The draft of Muslims should be put in place for Muslims throughout the world to fight ISIS. Getting rid of the bad seeds in the Muslim world would bring back dignity to the millions of Muslims around the world.

Sincerely,

Nick Andrakin
