Not to be outdone on #NationalPumpkinDay.....Let's see your carved creations!

Chad Moore I'm horrible at carving pumpkins, but I will be camping at Camp Croft this weekend.

Mina Harrington I'm not good at that stuff, but I found out that there will be a LOT of carving going on at Lake Wateree State Park this weekend. I just got back from camping there -- took a shower with BIG spiders, rats and mice LOL They are doing an amazing job of decorating the park for this weekend. And, SO MANY of the campers are joining in the festivities -- truly a family oriented state park!!
