Get our guide to OEP mailings and key events

We're a little more than a month away from the annual Open Enrollment Period (OEP) for Medicare Advantage and Part D plans. Learn what your clients may be getting in the mail over the next few months, and what these mailings may mean for their plan choices for 2017 in our updated guide to OEP mailings and key events.

CMS delays implementation of observation notice

The Notice of Observation Treatment and Implication for Care Eligibility (NOTICE) Act requires hospitals to provide written and oral notice, within 36 hours, to patients who are in observation/outpatient status for more than 24 hours. Patients were supposed to begin receiving the Medicare Outpatient Observation Notice ("MOON") on Aug. 6.

However, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) has delayed implementation of the NOTICE Act and MOON until final approval by the Office of Management and Budget, likely to be late fall 2016.

Marketplace to Medicare letters coming soon

In the coming weeks, CMS will be mailing notices to consumers who are aged 65+ and dually enrolled in the Federally-facilitated Marketplace with financial assistance and Medicare. The notice will include a warning that if they are enrolled in Medicare than they are not eligible for the financial assistance on the Marketplace, instructions on how to disenroll from the Marketplace, and details on where to get information on Medicare. This notice is only going to a small number of consumers.
