Subject: 61 Years Teaching Sunday School - Kenneth Morgan

Hi Chaney,

Thank you for your help with this as we discussed a moment ago.

Mr. Morgan has been a prominent member of the community, having risen to the position of president of the local bank and, upon retiring, he ran a successful real estate firm -- Morgan Realty -- and served on the Board of Directors for the bank.

But his greatest accomplishment is being celebrated this coming Sunday, Oct 4. After 61 years, he is retiring as Adult Sunday School Teacher at Red Oak Grove Baptist Church in Modoc, SC (Edgefield County) having taught there continuously since 1954. Red Oak Grove is a very historic church, having been established in 1812. We expect a full house, around 200 quite possibly more, on Sunday with Kenneth's extended family and many friends from the Edgefield area and beyond in attendance. After the 11 am service, there is a meal... the day will be covered in the State Baptist paper, The Baptist Courier.

I apologize for this late notice but it occurred to me that this might be something Gov. Haley would like to do even though it's a last minute thing on our part. We will be able to very professionally print any letter you might email if you prefer to send a pdf, etc., due to the late notice... or we will follow whatever other guidance you may have. Kenneth's mailing address is:

Kenneth Morgan
P.O. Box 84
Edgefield, SC 29824

Of course, Gov. Haley is cordially invited to attend and say a few words if she would like but I understand that her schedule is very likely already filled for Sunday. We would be honored to have her attend. She would greet a lot of folks who pulled the handle for her in the voting booth -- we're a friendly Republican crowd.

If you are only able to oblige with a letter, Kenneth (and we) will be quite happy to have it and will know that, with more notice, Gov. Haley may have been able to attend.

If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience, even if it is after hours.

Blessings,

Steve Cartin
Pastor, Red Oak Grove Baptist Church
